APB lay-off: DUJ blasts BEXIMCO

Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) blasted the BEXIMCO authorities for declaring lay off in the Associated Press of Bangladesh (APB) and demanded immediate reversal of the decision and payment of outstanding wages of the jour-nalists and employees, reports

"The BEXIMCO authorities will be responsible for the eventualities unless the lay off is withdrawn in the APB news Agency," DUJ President Altaf Mahmud and General Secretary Abdul Jalil Bhuiyan in a statement said.

They also accused the au-thorities of "complicating the situation" with their rigid stand. The journalist leaders said the authorities also created a complicated situation in two other sister concerns of the Independent and the Muktakantha by not paying salaries to the journalists and employees.

In a separate statement, the DUJ leaders condemned the attack on Gias Majumdar. a special correspondent of The Daily New Nation, and demanded punishment to the attackers.

New train service between Dhaka Jamalpur

Bangladesh Railway yesterday introduced the second commuter train service between the capital Dhaka and Jamalpur, reports BSS.

Communications Minister Anwar Hossain inaugurated the service of the 'Jamalpur Commuter," which left Kamlapur Railway Station with 355 passengers in the evening.

State Minister for Land Rashed Mosharraf, State Minister for Religious Affairs Maulana Nurul Islam, Communications Secretary Syed Rezaul Hayat, Director General, Railway, Atiqui Hossain Khan and other senior railway officials were present at the inaugural ceremony of the service.

Munajat was offered wishing good journey of the train. Maulana Nurul Islam conducted the munajat.

The 450-seat 'Jamalpur Commuter' will leave Jamalpur at 5:30 am and reach Dhaka at 9:45 am. Another 'Jamalpur Commuter' will leave Dhaka at 6:45 pm and reach Jamalpur at 10:45 pm.

Officials said the service was introduced as part of a commitment by Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina so that the residents of greater Mymensingh could return home after the day's work in Dhaka.

The train will stop at Joydevpur, Kaoraid, Gafargaon, Mymensingh and Piarpur. The one-way fare between Dhaka and Jamalpur has been fixed at Taka 50.

The Railway authorities introduced the first commuter train between Dhaka and Brahmanbaria on May 27,

'UNDP for vigilance on Bangladesh's HR scenario'

. UNDP steered clear of its part in the government action and suggested concerted vigilance by all concerned on Bangladesh's human-rights scenario, reports UNB.

The Resident Representative of United Nations Development Programme in Bangladesh, David Lockwood, in a release yesterday informed the concerned quarters both government and non-government.

His statement came to press after Shonghoti, a human-rights coalition, met with him Sunday and narrated the plight of sex workers, evicted from two brothels in Narayanganj. He stressed the need for vigilance on Bangladesh's humanrights scenario mentioning that the UNDP has been assisting the government in preparing legislation for a National Human Rights Commission. He also received from the Shonghoti representatives a letter to the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights. He assured Shonghoti of its concern about future of UNDP-assisted projects and broader human rights issues.

Lockwood in the statement said he and his colleagues met a group of sex workers from Tanbazar on July 29 and briefed them on purpose of UNDP-as-

About the project, Lockwood said Bangladesh government with financial assistance from the UNDP had, since September 1998, been implementing it for empowerment of women and children living in 4 brothel communities.

"The project was designed in open consultation with NGOs and representatives from brothel communities to provide improved access to reproductive and sexual health services. formal and non-formal education, management and skills training, legal services etc."

The project is implemented in Narayanganj, Jessore, Mymensingh and Daulatdia. It specifically envisaged implementation with brothel communities within the actual brothel areas, Lockwood added.

Student bodies protest occupation of JU halls

By DU Correspondent

Chhatra Ganotantrik Oikkya (GCO), a conglomeration of some left leaning student organisations and Bangladesh Chhatra Federation (BCF) yesterday brought out separate processions on the Dhaka University campus, demanding immediate arrest and trial of the 'rapists' who captured some residential halls of Jahangirnagar University (JU) on Friday.

The GCO held a rally in front of the Madhu's Canteen on the campus at noon. Addressing the rally GCO leaders blamed the 'terrorists' of pro-government Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) of creating unrest on the JU campus. "This very group was accused in the rape incidents at the JU and they have intruded into the campus along with outsider terrorists by capturing the residential halls", they said.

Condemning the role of police during the attack on the residential halls, they urged the university authorities to take necessary steps for return of a congenial atmosphere on the The GCO leaders also expressed solidarity with the general students of JU, agitating against the return of the 'rapists' on campus. Among others, Nurul Islam, Monjur-E-Khoda Torik, Imam

Gazzali and Sabbah Ali Khan Colince also addressed the rally. Condemning the silence of manding immediate expulsion the JU authorities and role of police in the incident, BCF held a rally in front of the Central

JCD procession in support of 30-hr hartal

By DU Correspondent

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), student wing of the main Opposition BNP, brought out a procession on the Dhaka University campus yesterday in support of the Opposition sponsored 30-hour countrywide har-

Following the procession, JCD held a rally in front of the DUCSU building at noon.

Addressing the rally, JCD leaders criticised the government saying, "Government has made the country a corridor of India in the name of providing transshipment facility.'

Terming the proposed transshipment facilities a 'treaty of slavery,' they also said, "Rather we will lay down our lives than to give corridor to India."

The JCD leaders also urged the countrymen to make the hartal a success for resisting the transshipment agreement.

Presided over by Monir Hossain, the rally was addressed, among others, by Monjur Elahi, Rafiq Sikder, Azizul Bari Helal Rakibul Islam Bakul, Mahbubul Islam Nannu, ABM Mosharraf Hossain, Ansar Ali Khan Joy, Nurunnabi Chowdhury, Mos-tafizul Islam Mamun, Shamsuzzaman Mehedi and Roksana Khanom Mitua.

Meanwhile, Enamul Haq Shamim, former president of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) Executive Committee protested the hartal and termed it a 'conspiracy to save the killers of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.'

While addressing a rally at the Jagannath University organised to launch the monthlong programme of BCL, he also said that the Opposition alliance is creating anarchy throughout the country to destroy the democracy.
