Intra-factional BCL clash averted on DU campus

A prompt intervention by the central leadership averted a possible clash between two factions of Pro-Awami League Chhatra League (BCL) on the campus yesterday, reports UNB.

Witnesses said activists of Dhaka City (South) and Haji Mohammad Muhsin Hall of Dhaka University came face to face over taking place in front of Madhu's canteen.

Armed cadres of one group brandished cut rifle and Chinese axe during hot altercation.

BCL president Bahadur Bepari, who was inside the Madhu's Canteen at that time, came out and ordered the activists of Muhsin Hall to leave the place.

The matter was later mutually resolved mediated by central leaders.

Meanwhile, Samajtantrik Chhatra Front (SCF) president Nurul Islam and general secretary Saifur Rahman Tapan condemned the incident.

In a statement, they said the ruling party and its student front was trying to curb the democratic movement in one hand and on the other creating anarchy through terrorist activities.

They called for building a mass student movement against the 'undemocratic' and 'terrorist' government of Sheikh Hasina.
