

The Drifters

Eviction in the name of rehabilitating sex workers based in Kandupatti, Nimali and Tanbazar brothels appears to have succeeded in increasing the number of floating sex girls in the city, thereby inviting scathing criticism from the media as well as the civil society. Apart from being detrimental to the moral fabric of the society, such dispersion of those in the oldest trade augments the bleak prospect of a major health emergency, for, according to a recent survey, a substantial number of them are potential carriers of different sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) including HIV. Our chief photographer AKM Mohsin has framed many a sex-worker whiling away time on the sidewalks along the major streets of the capital.
