The victim was admitted to Jamalpur General Hospital for treatment and medical test.

Acute crisis of food in Satkhira

From Abu Ahmed

SATKHIRA, Aug 8: An acute crisis of food has been prevailing in seven thanas here.

There is also little job opportunity for day labourers. A large number of jobless villagers have been migrating to the district town from villages. As a result the number of beggars has been increasing.

A prolonged drought and other natural calamities have created the acute food crisis. Prices of essentials have shot up abnormally. Prices of food-grains and other essential commodities have gone beyond the purchasing capacity of about 60 per cent of people. The situation has worsened further due to disappearance of some essentials from the local markets.

At present rice is being sold between Taka 520 and Taka 580 per maund. Despite moderate supply of fish, its prices show a higher trend. The minimum prices of ordinary lungi and saree are Taka 100 and Taka 180 respectively.

Every day hundreds of people have been rushing in the town in search of job. But there are little job opportunities here. A large number of able bodied beggars mostly women are now seen loitering in the town. Besides, young women have resorted to immoral activities as the suitable substitute for beg-

Foodgrains procurement drive in Manikganj fails

MANIKGANJ, Aug 8: The drive to procure rice and paddy has virtually failed to reach the target in seven thanas of the district due to bureaucratic tangles and low price fixed by the government, reports UNB.

The Food Ministry directed the authorities concerned here to procure a total of 772 metric tons of rice and paddy from the district under the countrywide foodgrains procurement drive.

But so far only 9.8 metric tons of paddy were procured by eight food godowns in seven thanas. This is only 7.7 per cent of the target.

Local farmers and rice-mill owners lost interest to sell paddy and rice to the government authorities as their market price are higher than the official rate.

When contacted, organising secretary of Bangladesh Food Godown Inspectors Association and Officer-in-Charge of Uthuli food godown Mohammad Golam Hossain said purchase of rice and paddy was continuing only in his godown.
