More human skulls found at Noori Mosque site

By Staff Correspondent

On its fourteenth day of excavation the Liberation War Museum found more human skulls and belongings at the Muslim Bazar mass grave site yesterday in city's Mirpur section 12.

These include one skull, some parts of skull, 16 pieces of small and large size human bones, tuft of hair, two live bullets and a small piece of cloth, a museum press release said.

The Bangladesh Army extended their hand to help excavate the site started on Thursday.

The 46th Brigade of the Bangladesh Army joined the Liberation War Museum Thursday. A lieutenant colonel is leading the 40-member army engineering team.

The army is using mine detector to find explosives and live bullets.

The Liberation War Museum started excavation at the Noori Mosque on July 31. Over 300 pieces of intact bones were so far found from the site including five skulls, four lower jawbones and parts of limb bones.

Bangabandhu's killers cannot be saved: Zillur

LGRD and Cooperatives Minister Zillur Rahman yesterday said the self-confessed killers of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman cannot be saved by any means, reports BSS.

"The entire nation is now united for immediate execution of the judgement of Bangabandhu murder case", he said while laying foundation stone of Savar Poura Bhaban and addressing some wayside public meetings.

Presided over by Savar Pourashava chairman Ashraf Uddin Khan Imu, the function was addressed, among others, by Chief Engineer of Local Government and Engineering Department Mohammad Monwar Hossain Chowdhury, President of Dhaka district Awami League Shamsudoha Khan Majlish, General Secretary Benazir Ahmed and local Awami League leaders.

The LGRD minister said the opposition political parties were afraid of historic successes achieved by this government in last three years.

He said the government has implemented welfare programmes of the people and solved different serious problems faced by the nation during the last 21 years of misrule.

The killers of Bangabandhu in collusion with the collaborators of 1971 wanted to lead the country to post 1975 situation, he said. Zillur Rahman alleged that the BNP after failing to come to power through people's mandate had resorted to the politics of violence and killing to destroy peace, development and stability of the people.

He said the beneficiaries of 1975 change over had amassed huge wealth by looting national assets coming to power through illegal means.

Earlier, the minister visited different rural development works in Savar.

Dhaka seeks support for 'right to development'

Bangladesh yesterday urged the international community to support the country's efforts to "right to development," reports BSS.

"Right to development" is a key ingredient of human rights that embodied in the charter of the United Nations, Dr. Iftekhar Ahmed Chowdhury, Bangladesh Ambassador to the UN office in Geneva told the current session of the sub-commission on human rights. He said there should be an instrument for legal binding to make this embodiment effective, according to a message from Geneva.

Dr. Chowdhury asserted that this concept was intrinsic to Bangladesh's national development strategy, which underlined the importance of sustainable development through community participation and poverty alleviation.
