Dhaka-Mawa AC bus service opened

Awami League Presidium Member Amir Hossain Amu yesterday said the present government has attached utmost importance to the development of infrastructure, specially the road network, reports BSS.

"The level of communication network is an indicator of the stage of development in a country," Amu said at a function marking the inauguration of AC bus service between the capital and Mawa. Al-Amin Paribahan Ltd. will run the service.

The function held at Wari office of Al-Amin was presided over by M Amirul Islam, Chairman of Al-Amin Paribahan, A Ghosh, Chief Executive Officer of State of Bank of India, Dhaka Office. Enayetullah, General Secretary of Bangladesh Road Transport Owners Association and Selim Ahmed Morol, Managing Director of Al-Amin Paribahan, a press release said.

Amu said the government of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina was making concerted efforts to bring all-round improvement in road communication in the country. He said national development meant total development of the country and certainly not that of any individual or group. "We should all work unitedly to maintain the trend of national development," he said.

The service was opened after a recitation from Holy Quran and munajat was offered seeking Allah's blessings for the success of the service.
