Shakur Majid's 2nd solo photography exhibition

By Muneera Parveen

Shakoor Majid

THE exhibition is titled Traveler's Clicks and very rightfully so. The exhibits are of photographs taken by Shakur Majid during his travels in India, Nepal and the United Arab Emirates. The pictures are a series of composition captures by the photographer in his lenses during his travels in these three countries.

Traveler's Clicks was inaugurated by the Speaker of the Jatiya Sangsad Humayun Rashid Chowdhury last Friday at the gallery of Alliance Francaise de Dhaka. The photographs on show display a variety of angles of the lifestyles of the three nations that the artist has visited and they also somehow underline the architectural style of many buildings and structures of the three nations.

Some 200 pictures are on display at the exhibition. They include The Lost Kingdom showing glimpses of the Durbar Marg in Nepal. Yet to Forget which also shows glimpses from old building also in Nepal. Hill and the People show people from the hilly areas of India, a photo titled Couple at the White Marble show an elderly couple in front of the Taj Mahal. Another beautiful composition is When the Birds Fly a set of pictures that show a flock of birds flying off from the walls of a fort.

Shakur's passion for architectural details is obvious from the pictures he has taken, wherein he tries to display the structural beauty of different buildings. In Legacy of Arches, he captures different arches of buildings in his lenses in Jaipur (India) which are all similar and yet bear legacies of different architectural work. In Taj Replica, the beauty of the Victoria Memorial in Calcutta is brought out. Most of his pictures on the UAE also show the architectural patterns of both old as well as new structures.

Last Evidence shows the ruins of old forts on the hills of the region while Resist the Tradition shows the familiarity of patterns between traditional Arabian structures and some relatively new constructions of the country.

The fact that the artist has an interest in architecture is obvious to all from his photographs. Shakoor Majid is an Architect by profession, and a graduate from BUET. He ventured into the world of photography only in 1990 by taking part in a competition arranged by UNICEF and won an honorary mention for his work. Since then he has been pursuing his love with passion and has won the 4th prize from the New York Photographic Society (USA), has twice won the 1st prize in the monthly evaluation from BPS and an honorable mention in the Khelaghar competition.

He has had his first solo exhibition at the Drik Gallery in 1997 and has also participated in group exhibitions at the Shipakala Academy, BUET and in New York. He has participated in two workshops, one on Documentary Photography conducted by British photographer Steve Conlon in 1992 and another on Videography conducted by Australian videographer Wayne Levy in 1997.

Traveler's Clicks is open everyday from 9 am-12 pm and 5 pm-8 pm and will continue till September 2.

Six men. With nothing to lose. Who dared to go...

Sunday Night Premiere: The Full Monty

on Star Movies at 10 PM Starring Robert Carlyle, Mark Addy, Tom Wilkinson, Paul Barber, Steve Huison and Hugo Speer This smash hit was received extremely well not only in England, where it is set, but right around the globe. Robert Carlyle (Trainspotting star) portrays fun-loving, slightly irresponsible Gaz. Short of funds, he hatches a plan to launch a striptease act in order to earn himself and his out-of-luck friends, some much-needed money. Unlike the famous male striptease act the Chippendales whose visit to a local pub inspires them, these friends are the furthest thing from the ideal of exotic dancers.
