4th National Children Theatre Workshop Ends

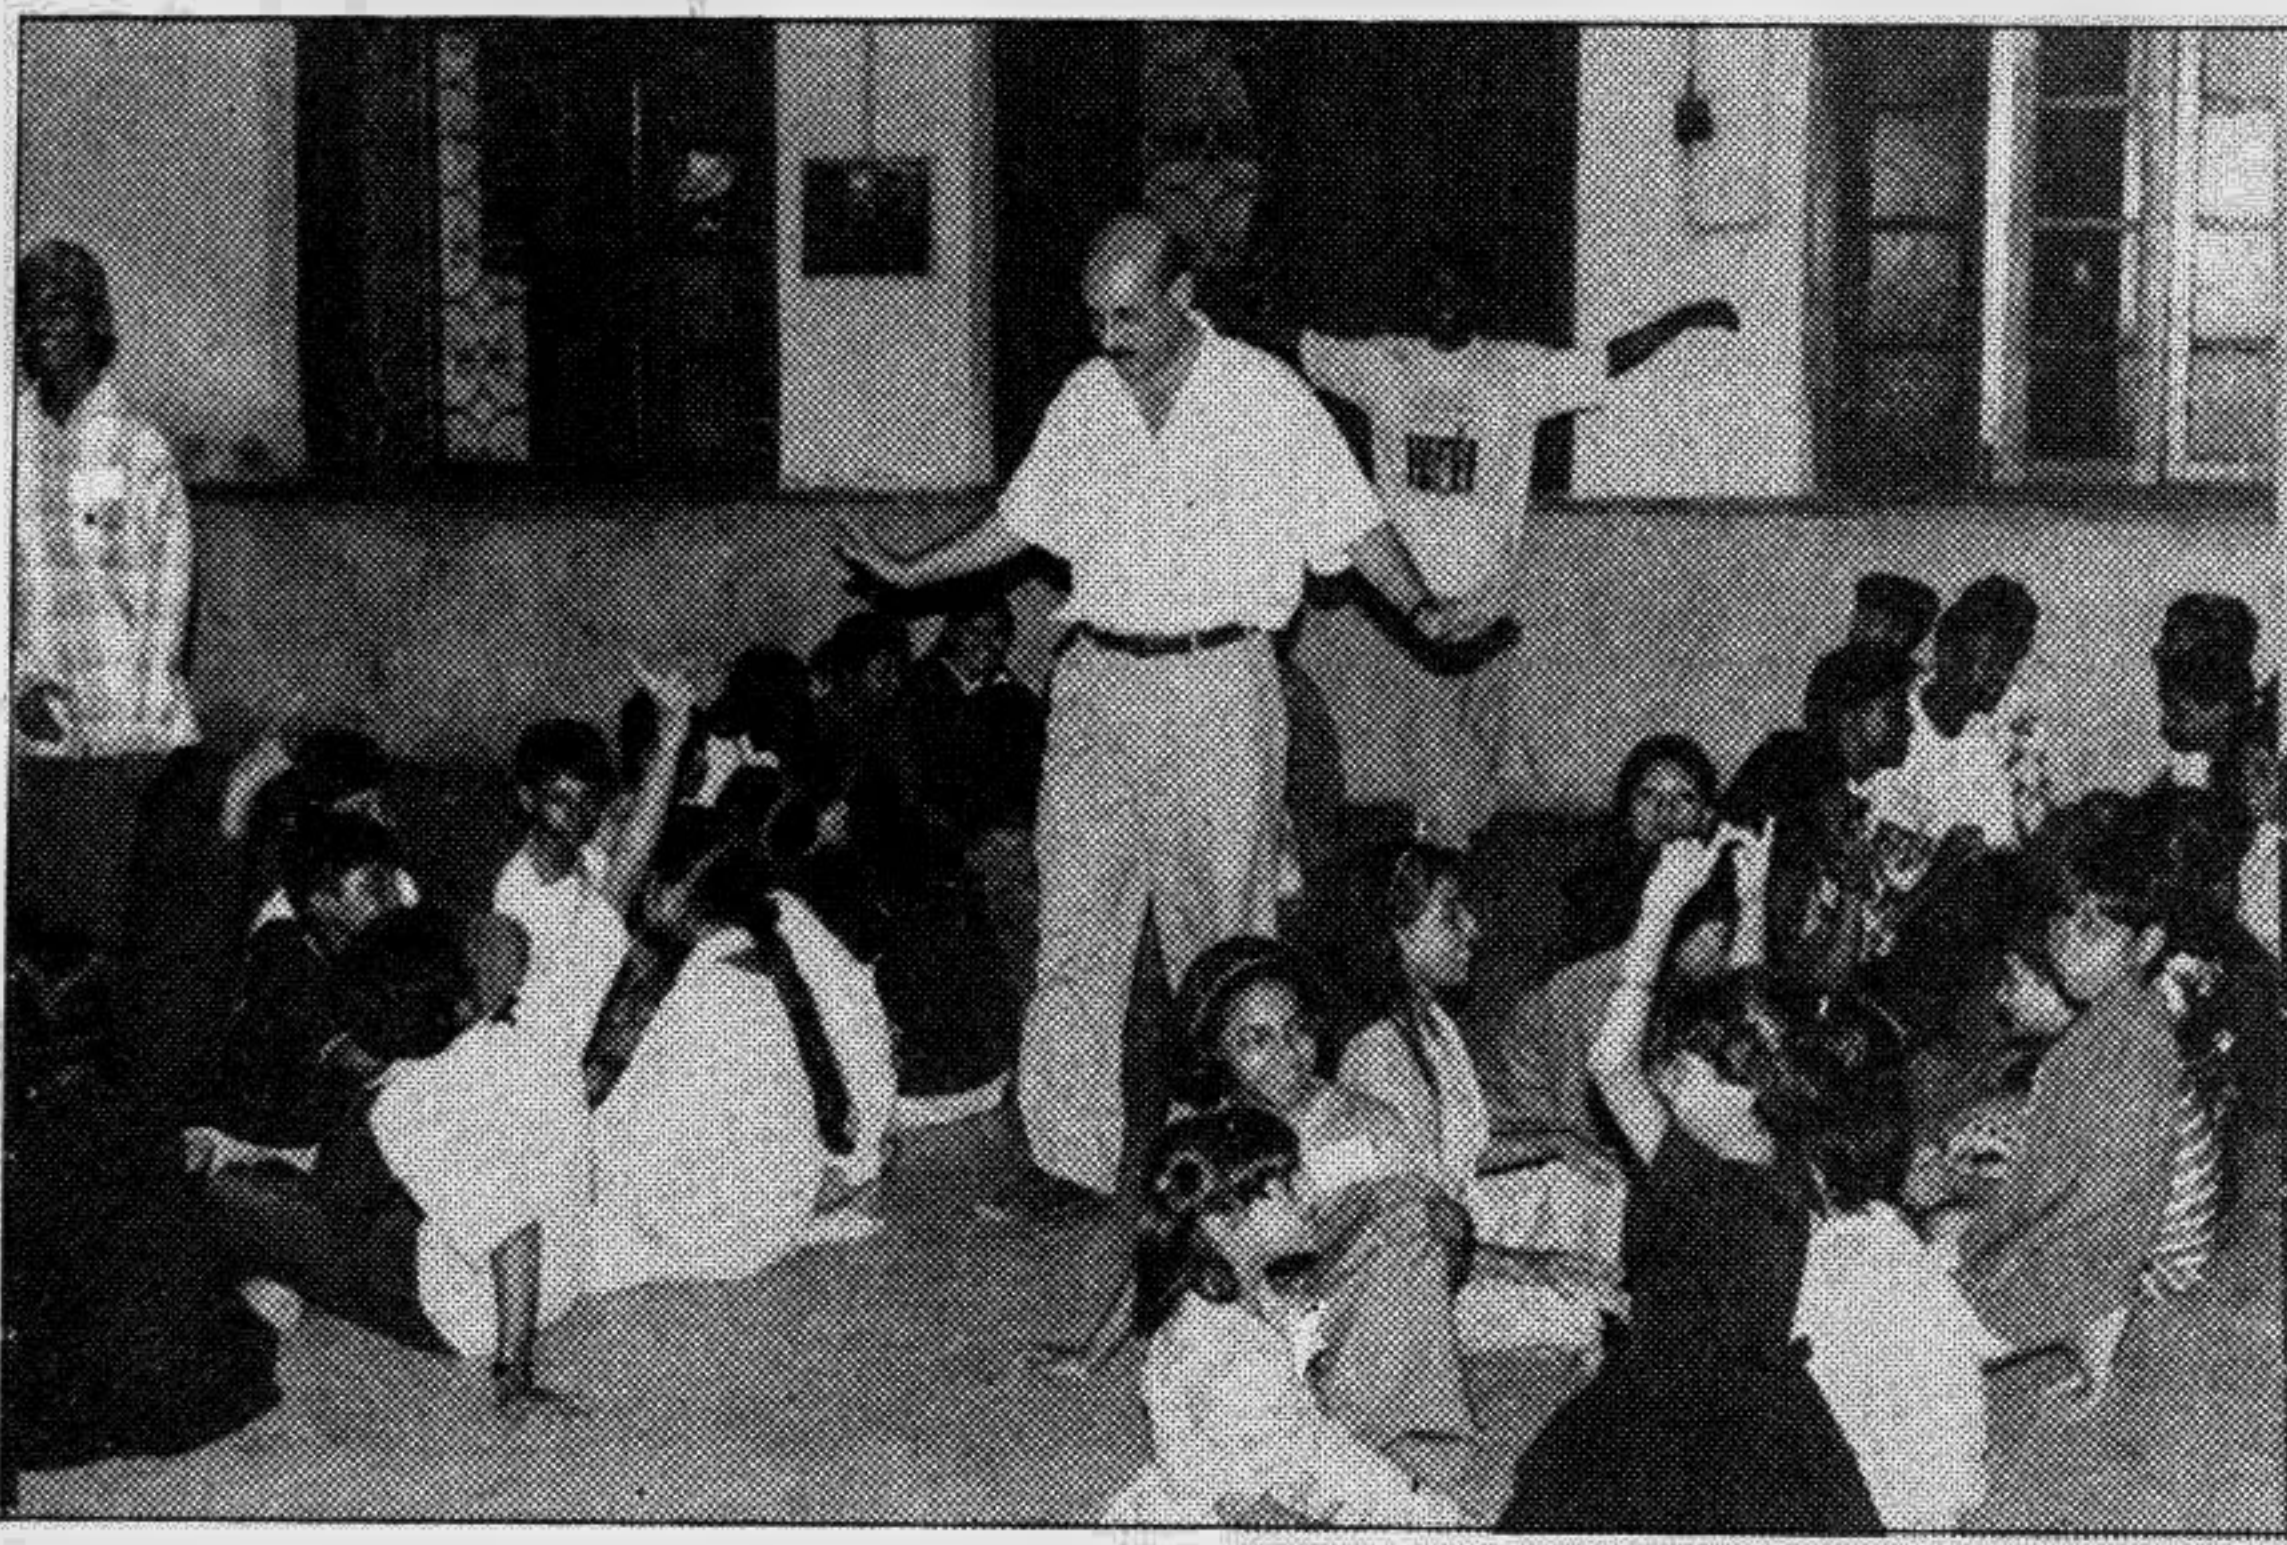

250 children labour for their love of theatre activities

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

THE fifteen day long 4th National Children Theatre Workshop 1999 came to an end on Sunday. The concluding ceremony of the workshop was held at the Teacher Students Council (TSC) auditorium, University of Dhaka. Minister for children and female affairs Professor Zinatun Nesa Talukdar was present as chief guest at the occasion. The ceremony was presided over by the Secretary General of the association Liyakat Ali Lucky.

The scheduled programme which started two and a half-hours late, begun with a lottery draw where the general secretary of the association Liyakat Ali Lucky gave away some old toys and gifts which had been given to him by a French friend. The part of the programme was very interesting. The prizes were kept on two different tables and the participants came up in different groups and had to take whatever came up in the lottery! This made some children not get the toys they wanted to choose. Their disappointment and anger amused the audience.

In his speech Liyakat Ali Lucky said, "We all know children come first but today in reality we see that this does not happen. We can learn a lot from the children." He promised that he would try his best to organise an international children drama festival in our country. And asked the Prime Minister's help for that.

In her speech chief guest Zinatun Nesa said, "Creativity does not come out in itself. Workshops are a way of creating artists. We are all acting in our daily life, playing individual roles in our life which is like a drama itself."

Around 250 children and teenagers aged between 8 to 14 years of age from different districts of the country took part in the workshop. The participants were divided into nine groups. Secretary General of Peoples Theatre Association Liyakat Ali Lucky was the head instructor. Other instructors included famous theatre personalities like Abul Hayat, M. S. Mohosin, Sara Zaker, Manan Hira, Afroza Banu, Khalrud Alam Shabuj and others including the instructors of Peoples Theatre.

The main motive of the workshop was to establish Children Theatre Media like the Group Theatres to bring out talented youngsters from the new generation. Drama for Capability is the principle and for this, lessons on special techniques for recitation, dancing, singing and especially acting was provided at the workshop.

The closing ceremony saw the TSC premises filled with hundreds of children along with their parents. They appeared to be having fun playing around, chatting, singing and dancing. In the second part of the programme participants children performed a group song 'Mukto Jibon Gore Tolar Moncho Moder Toroni'.

Certificates were handed out to the two hundred and fifty participants who laboured in the workshop with love for the fifteen days.

The association was formed in 1998. People's Theatre Association, it organised the first National Children Theatre Workshop in 1990. As part of their children theatre campaigns for reforming the few vanishing children theaters of Bangladesh, the association has successfully organised three workshops in 1993, 1995 and 1997, where hundreds of children and teenagers from all around Bangladesh took part.

PAYING tribute to Baishe Srajan, marking the death anniversary of poet Rabindranath Tagore, Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Shangsta organised a two day long music and recitation programme beginning last Friday at the 'Shishu Academy Auditorium'.

Representing the extraordinary unity between melody and words of the great composer Tagore, the function was enlivened by some of the exceptional and renowned Tagore exponents of the country.

The inaugural day commenced with the Chittagong division performers of Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Shangsta, performing some extraordinary creations of the great litterateur. The general secretary of Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Shangsta and one of the leading singers of the country, Tapan Mahmud opened the event with his introductory speech.

Dhukher Timire Jodi Jole Tobo Mongol Alok, Tobe Jole Hok was the first chorus song of the day, marking the launch of the programme. It was followed by another musical composition Tomar Oshime Pran Mone by Jodi Dure Ami Jai. Shahidur Rahman, general secretary of Bangladesh Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Shangsta Chittagong division, recited Jodi Shandha Ashichey Monda Monthore. The rich voice of Shahidur Rahman enthralled the house full audience. Nasreen Islam performed Akash Aaj Kon Chorone Asha Jawa.

Alamgir Kabir's performance on Jibone Amar Joto Ananda was also exceptional.

The Tagore songs expressed the philosophy of life of one of the world's greatest philosophers. Rabindranath Tagore, verbalising his own search for a meaning of life. Songs had a central place in Rabindranath Tagore's works. His conception of the Creation, and of Man's own relation with the Creator led him to experience something beyond material, an illustration of all existence which is very prominent in all his works. Tagore composed many songs on different themes, varying from prayers, love, pain, nature to patriotism and about the human species itself. The unparalleled creation of Tagore still reigns in the heart of his admirers. As the literary works of Tagore including the songs and poetry made him as one of the exceptional poet and musician of the world, earning him the title of universal poet.

The programme by Rabindra Sangeet Shilpi Sangsta was a glowing tribute to the poet on his death anniversary.

In Cop Killer — When an LAPD motorcycle cop is short to death during a routine pull-over, Chase and August must find the killer. The killer's car was identified as belonging to James Burkett, an attorney in town. Burkett had reported the car stolen earlier that day and was shocked to find that it was used in a cop slaying. Another motorcycle cop is killed and we soon learn that Burkett is responsible for both of the murders. His secretary, Angela, agreed to help him with the cover-up but she didn't know that Burkett's plans involved murder. The cops that Burkett killed were involved a year before in a high speed chase that killed his wife, an innocent victim of the pursuit.
