Iqbal Hassan's Four Quartet

Publication ceremony of three new titles by one of the most cerebral poets of the 70s tomorrow

By Ziaul Karim

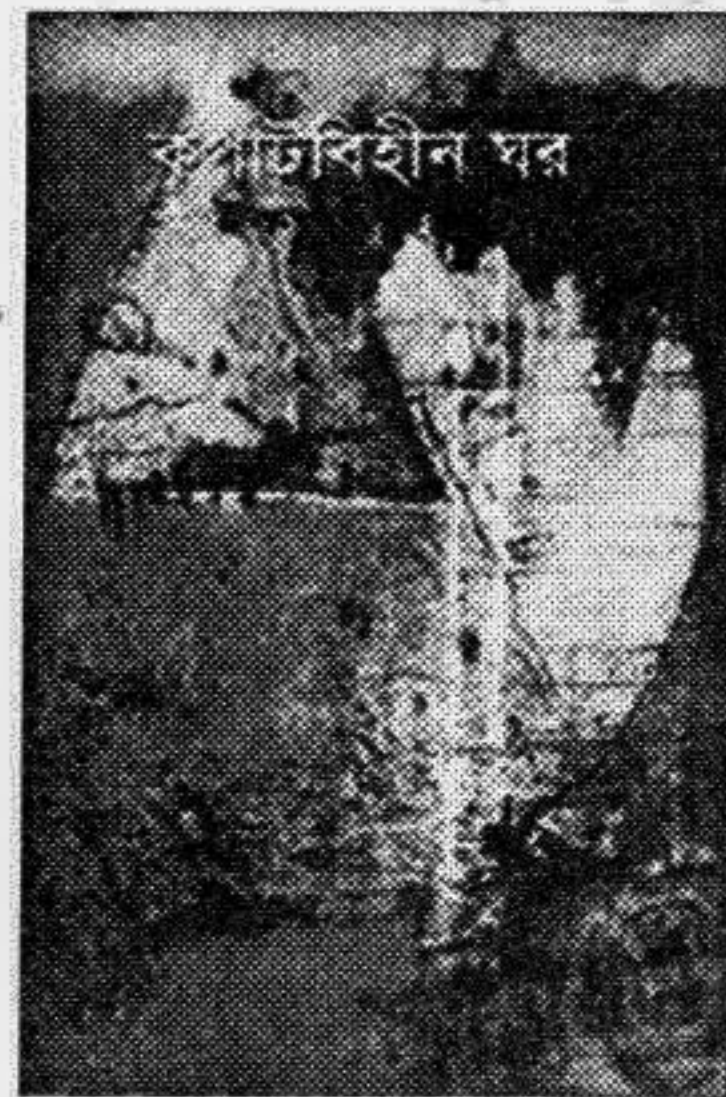

SOMEONE living in a foreign land for over fifteen years and still remaining actively creative in one's own tongue is rare: Iqbal Hassan belongs to that rare breed of creative souls whose pen hasn't dried over the years rather increasingly gaining fluency and pace.

Settled in Canada since 1988, after wandering through two continents, namely Europe and America, Iqbal now pays a visit to his homeland whenever he has his bag full of manuscripts. He has last been to Dhaka one and a half years ago. The past 18 months has proved a wonderful and productive period of gestation for this prolific writer who traverses different genres of creative writing with profound ease.

The publication ceremony will be on his three new titles — Durer Manush Kachher Manush, Dur Kono Nakshatrer Dike, Mritu Edur O Manusher Galpa — and the reprint of Kapat Behehen Ghar.

Bekalpa Media has organised the publication ceremony of the four book to be held at Bangladesh Writers Club at 6 pm tomorrow. Poet Shamsur Rahman will attend the programme as chief guest while Belal Choudhury will be the main discussant. Writer Rahat Khan will chair the programme.

Joytiprakash Dutt, Bazlur Rahman and Golam Sarwar

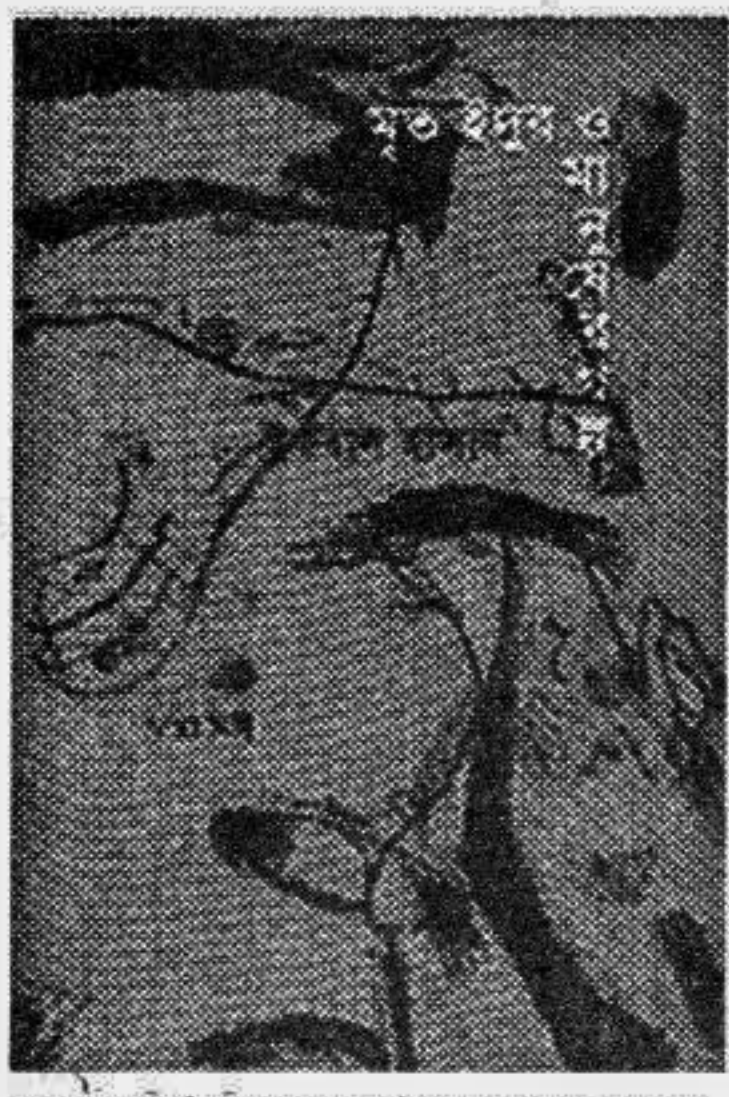

Iqbal Hassan

will discuss on Durer Manush Kachher Manush. The discussants for the Mritu Edur O Manusher Galpa are Selina

Hossain, Sajjad Kadir, Purabi Dutt, Imdadul Haq Milan, Mainul Ahsan Saber and Nishat Khan will speak on Kapat Behehen Ghar and Mohampersonal essays about the poets and writers Iqbal has encountered at different periods of time. The volume is rich with anecdotes about personalities such as Sunil Gangopadhyaya, Shamsur Rahman, Rahat Khan etc. His prose is intimate and a celebration of colloquialism.

His poetic self is altogether different from the describing voice of his prose. The book of poems Dur Kono Nakshatrer Dike reveals a frail person who suffers from existential crisis.

The book of fiction Mritu Edur O Manusher Galpa deals with the crisis of modern man and focuses deep into the psyche of persons suffering from neurosis, illusion and hysteria.

This episode of 3-2-1 is an episode with a cause, because playing today are 3 teams from Non Governmental Organisations — CRY, Helpage India and CARE.

Each team had a special message to give out, like helpage who aim to "... bring a smile on every face." The show races through the first round where we go from 9 to 3, leaving just one contender going from Indian sweets to light bulbs to Aishwarya Rai to Masayasu Awardees. More thrills and chills as each player turns to their team for support in the second round, and all the team members get a chance to exercise their lungs, shouting out right answers to their team members. The themes the players ran for covered a wide range — in the 10 most populated Countries, Child Stars and Types of Grass.

Juboraj: All Set to Create Waves

Imdadul Haque Milon makes his debut as a producer

By Muneera Parbeen

A new serial written by popular writer Imdadul Haque Milon goes on air on BTB on September 5. The serial Juboraj is set to be very different from all other stories written by the author and also promises to be different from all other stories that have gone air on BTB.

For starters the serial will see the presence of TV star Shomi Kaiser in three different roles. This is, of course, not the first time that Shomi is appearing in more than one role in a drama. Earlier she appeared in Kothay Shay Jon, which incidentally was also penned by Milon, in a double role. Though that was the role of twin sisters, Shomi shone in her portrayal of the dual characters and many critics dubbed the drama as the best production of the year. In Juboraj again, Milon chooses one of his favourite heroines to portray the difficult symmetry of three different characters.

Toukir Ahmed portrays the title character of Juboraj in the serial. His is an extremely interesting character. Although Juboraj is a perfectly normal type of person, the story will gradually proceed to reveal him in an anti-hero role. His confrontation with the three different Shomis in the pace of the storyline is all set to unfold a story that will prove very popular with regular TV viewers.

The cast is further strengthened by the support of such actors as Golam Mostafa, Sharmili Ahmed, Chitralekha

A sequence of sentimental encounter from Juboraj

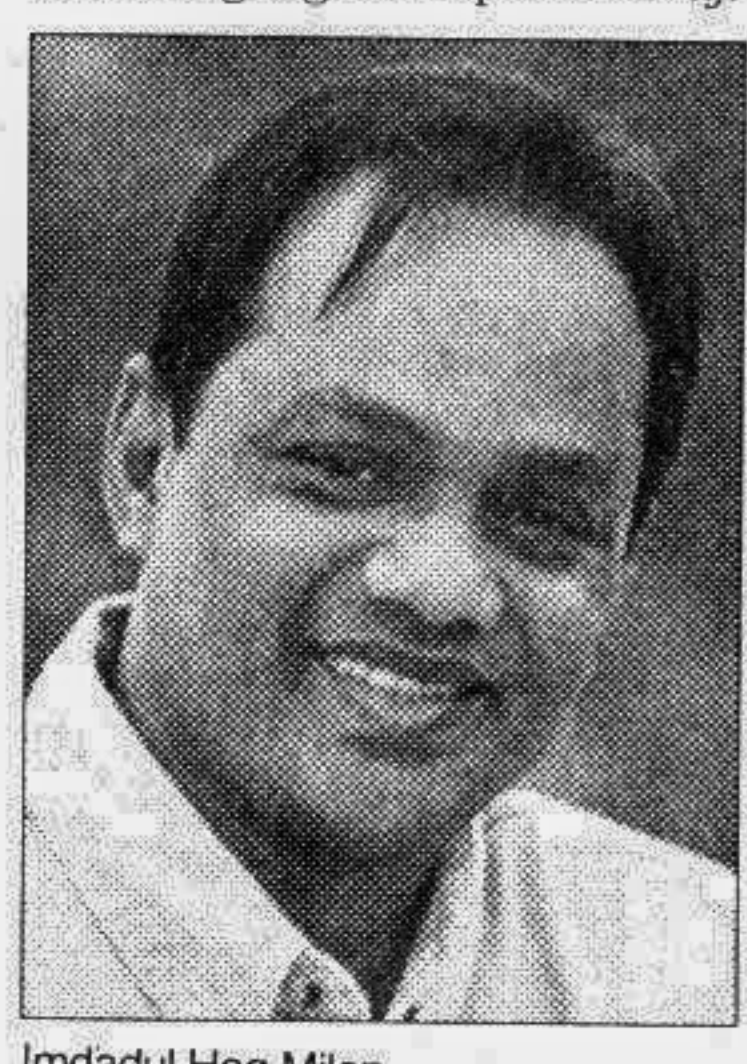

Guha, Nader Chowdhury, Nima Ahmed, Abdul Kader, Giasuddin Pintu etc.

The Storyline:

Maya (Shomi) is the daughter of an influential man in the village. Her father arranges for her to be married to a businessman. Maya however is in love with Juboraj (Toukir) who is unemployed and comes from a very poor family. He however is very scared of Maya's father and refuses her when she runs away from home to him. A shocked Maya is forced to return home.

Juboraj is also heartbroken and heads for the city to look for a job. He sets himself up in a distant relative Farid's house. Farid's younger sister Babi (Shomi in her 2nd role) incidentally looks exactly like Maya. Local mastaan Selim loves Babi and is angered when he learns that Babi is about to be married off to Juboraj. He and his gang kidnap's Juboraj.

Imdadul Haq Milon

They beat him up mercilessly and ditch him in a farmhouse. When Juboraj comes to his senses he comes face to face with Maya. The girl however insists that she is Shanti (Shomi in her 3rd role) and not Maya. The story takes a turn here and a devastated Juboraj gradually turns into a person very unlike what he was before.

The 13 episode Juboraj also sees the debut of Imdadul Haque Milon as a producer. This is a pet project from his own production house 'Nirbachita'.

Milon has been successful by casting either Shomi Kaiser or Toukir Ahmed who have shone in their previous associations with him. The Toukir-Shomi starrer Joto Duray Jato was a big hit with the viewers. Now Juboraj will test the luck of the triad once more.
