Music in Etching

Japanese artist Chizu Takahashi's week-long etching show opens at Zainul Gallery

By Ziaul Karim

If one wants to have a feel of visual music one should visit Chizu Takahashi's one-man show which is being held at Zainul Gallery.

"As one keeps a personal diary, my pictures are the records of my personal feelings. You may call them as personal feelings for public consumption," says visibly inspired Chizu.

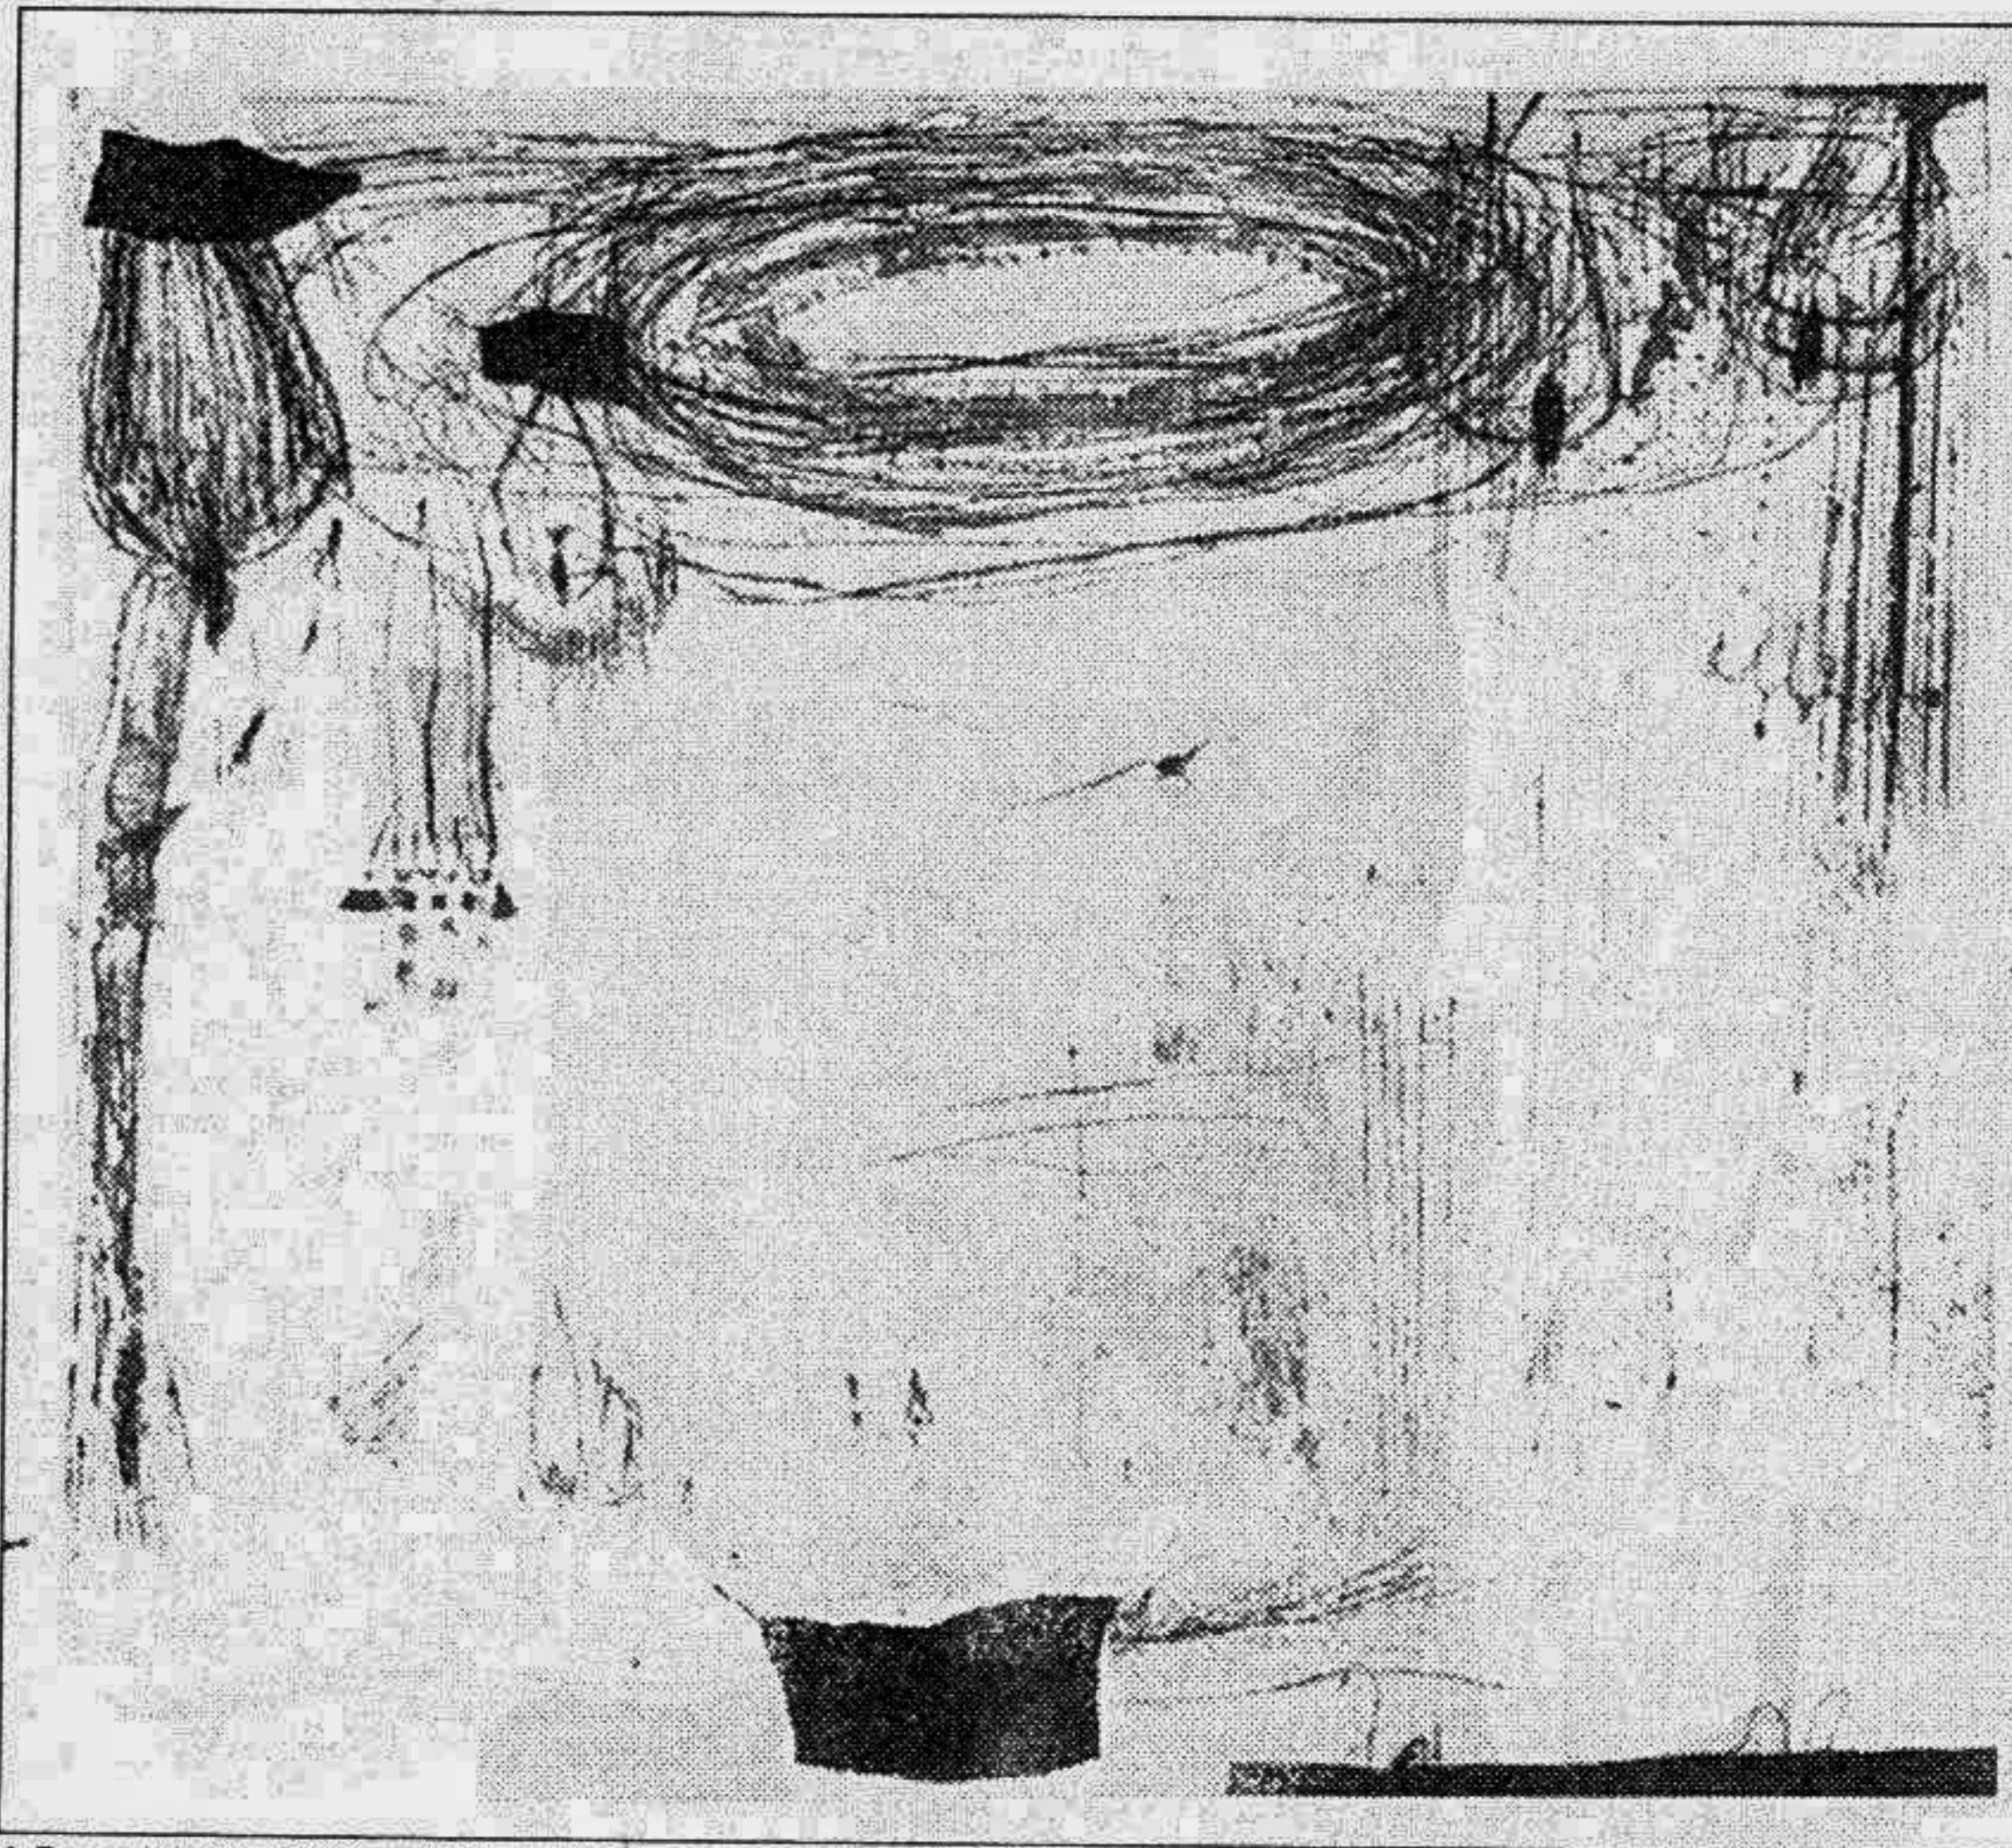

The emotion that radiates from the pictures is joyous and one can immediately feel the presence of a careless and playful mind of an artist at work.

Chizu Takahashi

The recurrent colours of the works are yellow, blue and red but the artistic spaces of pictures are predominantly yellow suggesting at the artist's celebration of life.

Her etchings are basically a fine balance between line and doodle like lines

A Poem It Is 64.5X73cm 1998

which faintly suggest at fingers, bosoms and buttocks are indicative of Chizu's narcissistic temperament. "As a woman I'm conscious of my body. What want to capture in my work is the sensory feelings like the sense of touch. The sense of small etc," says Chizu in a confident voice.

Her works are not representative of traditional Japanese style, they are more European. "We who were born in the 70s have grown up in a more global atmosphere which is being reflected in our artistic effort," explains she.

Born in Tokyo in 1973, Chizu did her BFA in oil painting from Tama Art University. She has till date to her credit 5 solo exhibitions, including the solo at Zainul Gallery.

A free-lance artist Chizu doesn't feel any difference between oil painting and etching.

A Story to Touch the Heart

Tanvir Mokammel proves that a good story always wins

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

TANVIR Mokammel's Chitra Nadir Pare - a two-hour feature film was screened at the Showkat Osman Memorial Auditorium of the Central Public Library yesterday again.

The feature film stars Af-sana Mimi, Toukir Ahmed, Momtajuddin Ahmed, Shumita Debi, Rowshan Jamil, Ramendu Majumdar, Amirul Haq Chowdhury, Najmul Huda, Pratiba, Moushumi, Ira, Onnie, Topu and Babu among others. The partition of India and Pakistan in 1947 is the backdrop of the film.

Momtajuddin plays the role of an erratic lawyer who refuses to leave East Bengal after the partition. Af-sana Mimi is his daughter and Toukir portrays the role of a visionary who goes to Dhaka to attend university. Rowshan Jamil plays their compassionate aunt, who comforts them in times of hardship.

The film starts with children of both Hindu and Muslim origin by the river on a wintry day of 1947. They are playing a traditional game by singing Sultana Bibiana Shaheb Babur Boithok Khana. "Najma, Salma, Badal Minoti, and Bidut are some of the characters here. These children and their parents are the central characters of the story. Minoti (Af-sana Mimi) is the daughter of Shashikanta Sen Gupta (Momtajuddin Ahmed), who is a lawyer. With them lives their aunt, Anuprabha Dashi. They all live beside the Chitra River in a single store house named Panthaneer. At that time many Hindu people were leaving for Calcutta or any other part of India. Many local people thus had their eyes on the beautiful ancient house of Shashikanta Sen Gupta as well. But he was not one to want to leave his homeland so easily.

While Minoti goes to Narail College, Badal (Toukir Ahmed) goes to Dhaka University. Even though they are from different religions, they fell in love, proving yet again that love knows no bound. During the 60's period student politics and demand for democracy was at its peak and Badal too joined in with them. Then one day during a fight with police he gets shot by a policeman, and dies an unnatural death.

The brother of Shashikanta Sen Gupta, Nidhukanta Babu is a homeopathic doctor. His daughter Bhashanti Chitra gets raped one day and she commits suicide by jumping into the river Chitra. Nidhukanta Babu and his family leaves their home after this incident.

All these tragedies around him make Shashikanta Sen Gupta even more ill he dies one day. Minoti and her aunt are thus compelled to leave behind their homeland and seek security and sanctity in a foreign land. They leave for Calcutta with broken hearts leaving Chitra Nadir Pare as a witness of all that has happened.

The film which has been screened several times in the past has already proved a huge success with the viewers, proving again that a good story is never rejected by the viewers despite their lack of the contemporary mirch-masala.

The performance of all actors and actresses specially Af-sana Mimi was remarkable. There is little doubt that Chitra Nadir Pare is another rich feather in the cap for Tanvir Mokammel.
