'Collective efforts needed to check misrepresentation of Islam'

Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Abdul Matin Khasru yesterday called for collective wisdom to check misrepresentation of Islam, reports BSS.

"Islam stands exclusively for truth and there should not be any sweeping comment on this religion, which is not for any particular party or community but for mankind as a whole," he said addressing as the chief guest a seminar on "Western Media and its Dilemma" at the Jatiya Press Club yesterday.

State Minister for Foreign Affairs Abul Hasan Choudhury was the special guest. It was also addressed by eminent educationist Prof M Shamsher Ali. Prof Aftab Ahmed of Dhaka University, John Kincannon of the USIS, former foreign secretary MR Osmany and journalist Sadek Khan, who presented the keynote paper on the topic.

The minister was critical of those, who were branding pious Muslims as fundamentalists without knowing the proper meaning of this word. "Believing in some basic principles does not mean that a pious man is a fundamentalist," he said.
