An Evening of Classical Delight

Ustad Alauddin Khan and Ustad Ayet Ali Khan sung

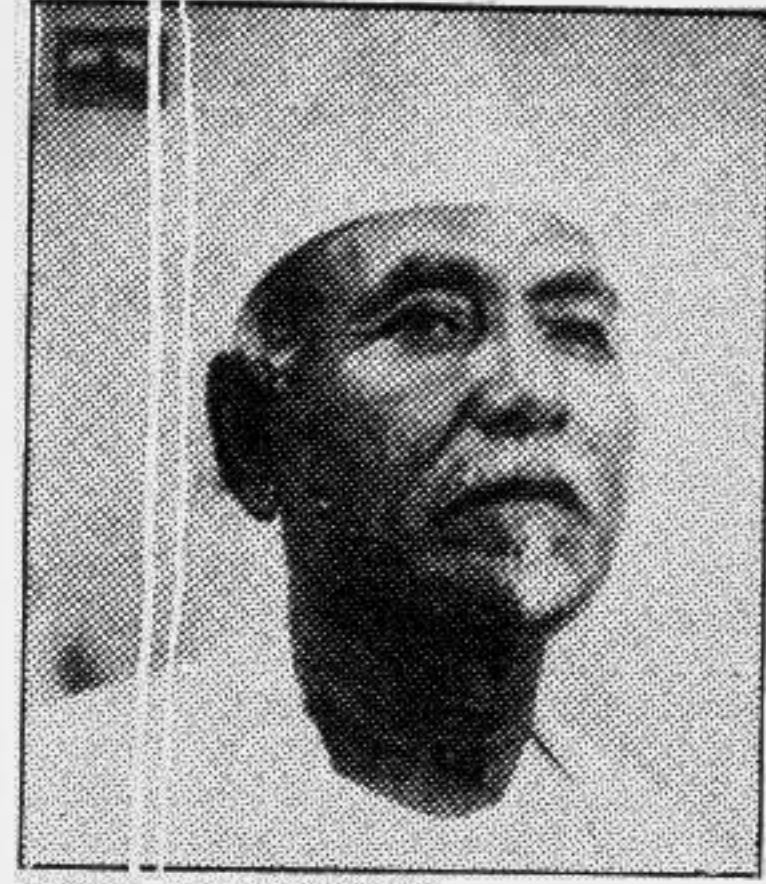

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

AT a time when our country (like many other nations of the world) is being bombarded with satellite culture, Ustad Ayet Ali Khan Shangeet Niketan is an organisation that has been devotedly carrying forward the heritage of classical instrumental music. The family members of Ustad Alauddin Khan and Ustad Ayet Ali Khan along with some early students of the late gurus have set up the Ustad Ayet Ali Khan Shangeet Niketan, a center for learning classical instrumental music, in 1973.

Ustad Ayet Ali Khan Shangeet Niketan organised a discussion followed by an evening of classical instrumental music at the Goethe Institut on August 4 to commemorate the 27th death anniversary of Ustad Alauddin Khan and the 32nd death anniversary of Ustad Ayet Ali Khan. The programme also covered the presentation of Ustad Ayet Ali Khan Gold Medal '99 to an extraordinary student of the guru, the famous blind classical instrumental artist Afzalur Rahman.

Justice Abdur Rauf was present as the chief guest at the evening while the programme was presided over by Mobarak Hossain Khan, Secretary General of Ustad Ayet Ali Khan Shangeet Niketan. Habibul Islam and Dr. Shawpan Adnan were present as special guests.

The three part programme started with a discussion on the music legends by the invited guests. In his speech Habibul Islam said, "When I met the ustad's (Ustad Ayet Ali Khan) family, i.e. his disciples, I was only in class seven. For the 51 years that I have been with this institute, I have known and watched the family from a very close angle. Today we honour one of that family and one of the Ustad's most brilliant students."

Talking about the lives and works of the musical gurus Dr. Shawpan Adnan said, "In those days classical instrumental music ran in the rich families, and the tradition was handed over from one generation to another. But that did not stop Ustad Alauddin Khan and Ustad Ayet Ali Khan from seeking the light of music although they came from farmers' family. They devoted themselves totally to the music and taught other poor music loving children to play as well."

In his speech chief guest Justice Abdur Rauf said, "The musical emperors took us to another world altogether while playing. They used music as a way of praying to God." He also regretted the fact that nowadays few classical musicians get the chance to play internationally. He requested the proper authority concerned to take up necessary steps to help keep this heritage of ours alive.

Justice Abdur Rauf handed out the Ustad Ayet Ali Khan Gold Medal '99 to instrumental artist Afzalur Rahman in the 2nd half of the programme. The old blind artist burst out into tears when he received the award. He said, "I cannot speak properly, I feel like crying and just crying on. I have won many awards, but today I received the best award of my life, the award in the name of my Ustad, who taught me all that I play today."

In Legacy of a Buffalo Soldier, when a western memorabilia collector is found murdered, Chase and August must put the pieces together to find the killer. Among the victim's belongings was a pocket organizer with August's name in it. When asked how he was connected to the victim, August figures out that his name was listed among descendants of Buffalo Soldiers. Buffalo... Soldiers were African-American troops that fought against the Indians during the Indian wars. This brings up a part of August's past that he is reluctant to discuss. His Great-Grandfather, Augustus Brooks, was given a dishonorable discharge from the army when he allegedly deserted his troop with three other soldiers who all claimed to have been given a map leading to a gold mine that was never proven to exist.
