345 Times Happy

Loknatyadal's Kanjush continues to charm its audiences

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

THE 345th presentation of Kanjush , a drama by Loknatyadal took place at the Guide House Auditorium on September 3 last. Lokonatya Dal has earned quite a reoputation for itself over the years for staging such comedies as Kanjush. This particular drama has entertained thousands of viewers around the country and seems all set to continue to do so. This is the only theatrical presentation which has been presented 345 times. Lokonatya Dal has so far earned oround taka sixteen lakhs from staging the play.

Kanjush is translated from a French masterpiece by playwright Moliere. The musical comedy Kanjush , (which means a miser) was directed by Liakat Ali Lucky.

Tareque Anam Khan translated the play on the contemporary basis of the sub continent's culture, with some delicate touch of course.

Similar to the other comedies of Moliere, this drama is also influenced by the French patrimony and the Italian Comedia Delarte, in which the cleverness and the fierceness of each of the characters predominate. Moliere's talent lay in his play with melody and words, interesting script, humorous dialogues and a happy ending .

Living upto the quality of Moliere's authentic drama by the famous Persi theater, was not an easy task for the performers. The character's created by the famous French playwright had quick movements with dialogues and songs. The expression of face and body were also important parts of the performance. Only the devoted practice of the performers carried them through with flying colours and the play became a hit with the local audience.

A hilarious scene from 'Kanjush' directed by Liakat Ali Lucky.

The story is based on the egoistic and selfish character of Haider Ali, representing the greed and vulgar among the society in this delicate comedy. In one of the scenes of the drama Haider Ali and his son get into a sword fight --- this was dramatised with such ease of flow and movement and stands out almost as an example of the quality of performance by the actors.

The main character of the play Haider Ali, was played by Emdadul Karim Emdad. Among the other performers Sabina Bari Lucky, Ugine Gomes, Reja Mahmud Lenin and over all Liakat Ali Lucky's performance were also outstanding. The stage design further highlighted the representation the actual meaning of title "Kanjush" through the use of cheap materials! The live musical performance with traditional instruments in the background and singing and dancing with the music made the play more interesting.

The drama once again gave a houmorus ride to the audience-who were reduced to tears of laughter every now and then and seemd to be really enjoying their time. For the 345th time Kanjush proved that it reigned in the hearts of the audience.

A Silent Cry for Justice

Theater's 30th production Meherjaan Arekbar staged

By Mishu M Chowdhury

THEATER'S 30th production Abdullah Al-Mamun's epic drama 'Meherjaan Arekbar' was performed again for the audience at the Guide House Stage on Tuesday, September 07, 1999.

'Theater' first staged 'Meherjaan Arekbar' at the Public Library Auditorium on December 1, 1997. Since then the group has been staging the play through out the city on several occasions, which includes the performance at the drama festival, 'Shanka Joyer Nattya Utshab', couple of months back.

The play, directed by Ferdousi Majumdar, is a story of a homeless unfortunate woman representing the marginalised class of the society, but the message expressed through the play is universal.

The leading character of the play, Meherjaan, is deprived of her rights and possessions. The drama set in the liberation war in 1971, Meherjaan uprooted from her home because of the war drifts from one place to another with her husband and her only daughter. She is so unfortunate that even after the independence, she is deprived of her freedom and rights.

Before she could even feel what freedom is, she falls into the hands of the fundamentalists. The excruciating behavior of the Mullahs towards her forces her to flee again. Arriving at the Dhaka city she takes shelter as a cook at a roadside restaurant, where her wondering life comes to an end. She begins to feel the essence of a steady life. But the fundamentalists darkens her life again. Eventually she becomes a victim of the Mullahs worth and pushed into a corner. But she decides to stand up and fight back with what she got.

The story of brave women made perceptible through some excellent and talented performances of the Theater's entertainers including Abdullah Al-Mamun, Ferdousi Majumdar, Ramendu Majumdar, Tanvin Sweaty, Samiya Mohsin, Tropa Majumdar, etc.

The impressive stage was design by Hasan Ahmed. The background music composed by Jaglul Alam added an extra flavour to the play. The light acoustics directed by Jillur Rahman and dress design of Mohammed Dulal was an essential part in staging an outstanding drama.
