Indefinite strike

JU students hamper academic activities

By JU Correspondent

The indefinite student strike demanding withdrawal of increased admission fees at Jahangirnagar University (JU) enters the second consecutive day today.

Students under the banner of 'Admission Fee Hike Protesting Committee' (AFHPC), yesterday obstructed both classes and the on-going admission process which created a stalemate in academic activities.

AFHPC activists also brought out separate processions from different student halls and locked up classrooms. They then went to the Agrani Bank, JU branch and stopped distribution of admission forms. Agitating students also locked up all gates of the Administrative Building to halt admission procedures.

Later, AFHPC held a rally in front of the Vice Chancellor's office. Addressing the rally,

BCU to lay siege to Home Ministry Sept 25

By DU Correspondent
Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) yesterday announced that they would lay siege to Home Ministry on September 25 in protest of proposed Public Security Act '99, what they said, violation of fundamental rights and freedom of press.

They will also observe the same programme simultaneously at all the Deputy Commissioner's (DC) offices and TPO offices throughout the country, to press home its demand.

The announcement came from a rally, held in front of Madhu's canteen on the Dhaka University campus at noon.

Addressing the rally, BCU leaders also demanded a non-discriminatory and secular national education policy.

"We along with student community will resist the proposed National Education Policy anyhow", they said.

Presided over by Monjur-e-Khoda Torik, the rally was addressed, among others, by Hasan Tariq Chowdhury Sohail, Sharifuzzaman Sharif, Nadir Sultana Nodi, Mahbubur Rahman Shipon and Mahmud Hosain Khokon.

JCD protests attack on its leaders

By DU Correspondent

Jatibatbadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), student wing of main opposition BNP, yesterday brought out a procession on the Dhaka University campus condemning the attack on its leaders on the campus during the three-day hartal.

Following the procession, JCD held a rally in front of the DUCSU building on the campus at noon.

Addressing the rally, JCD leaders blamed pro-Awami League student organisation Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) for the attack on its leaders including its vice president Tariqul Islam Boni, DU unit president Manir Hossain, Abdul Halim Khokon and Saiful Islam Firoz.

They also demanded immediate release of all arrested JCD leaders and activists.

Presided over by Monjur Elahi, the rally was addressed, among others, by Rafiq Sikder, AKM Mojammeel Haq, Azizul Bari Helal, ABM Mosharaf Hossain, Bajlul Basit Anjur, Manir Hossain, Rehana Akhter Ranu and Asaduzzaman Asad.
