Discussion on compilation style of Banglapedia held

Academics, experts and members of the board of editors of 'Banglapedia' or the National Encyclopedia of Bangladesh project at a workshop yesterday discussed the compilation style and use of photography and multimedia in the project, reports UNB.

While inaugurating the workshop, the chairman of the University Grants Commission Prof. ATM Zahurul Haque lauded the initiative and hoped that Banglapedia would help trace the roots of the nation in a comprehensive way.

He viewed that the encyclopedia would be an inventory of history, heritage and culture of Bangladesh.

President of the Asiatic Society Prof. M. Harunur Rashid highlighted the background and justification of the project, the first such initiative in the country.

He claimed that scholars and academics of all shades of opinion had assembled to produce a showpiece for the nation.

Overall flood situation improves

The overall flood situation is improving with continued fall in water levels in most rivers of the country's four river systems, a press release of the flood information centre said yesterday, reports BSS.

Rivers in the Brahmaputra-Jamuna and the Ganges-Padma systems were falling fast while those in the Meghna and the South-eastern hill basins were both rising and falling, it said.

Out of the 46 water level monitoring stations, 5 points have been flowing above danger marks, 12 points have recorded rise, 25 points have registered fall and 3 points are remaining steady.

Monsoon is fairly active over the country with light to moderately heavy rainfall at many places over the Brahmaputra and the Meghna basins during the last 24 hours till 9.00 am today.

Very light to moderate fall at a few places with heavy fall at one or two places have also been recorded over the Ganges and the South Eastern hill basins during the period, the press release said.

Significant rainfall was recorded at Lama with 54.0 mm, Habiganj with 51.0 mm, Kurigram with 50.0 mm, Bhairab Bazar with 34.0 mm, Dinajpur with 30.2 mm and Durgapur with 25.8 mm.

Indian eye specialist to arrive soon

Leading Indian eye specialist Dr. K. Sivkumar will come to Bangladesh soon to conduct complicated operations at Dhaka Progressive Lions Eye Hospital at Basayel in Narsingdi, a press release of the hospital said, reports BSS.

Sivkumar, who is stationed in Madras, will operate patients suffering from IOL and Phako and other complications.

Interested persons have been requested to register their names with the hospital in Narsingdi or Shatorupa Department Store 122 Kakrail, Shantinagar to see the specialist.
