Study of Shade and Shadow

The solo exhibition highlights the city in a different perspective

By Mishu M Chowdhury

A solo exhibition of paintings by A. F. M. Monir-uz-Zaman commenced at Zainul Gallery of the Institute of Fine Arts, Dhaka University on September 17, 1999 at 5p.m.

The exhibition, titled 'Shadows of the Dhaka City', focuses on Rickshaw, a trademark of the city we live in.

Through his drawings, the artist has studied the shades and shadows of this mode of transport. One might feel at the very first impression that the painter is obsessed with the form of the lower back part of the rickshaw. But a closer look at the paintings reveal that the vehicle is a symbol for a city life the artist lives in. The rickshaw-wala is, one will notice, mysteriously absent from the pictures, which suggests that there is no compassion for human being in this concrete jungle.

Monir-uz-Zaman has used different media for his paintings. But he loves to work in watercolour and mostly in black and white. He successfully adapted the means and techniques used on the press colours, lithograph and etching.

Among the exhibits only few paintings highlight subjects other than rickshaws. The silhouette drawings of the vehicle close to abstraction.
