Audri Quasim debuts formally in the world of arts

By Shahana Parbeen

FOR some people, any limitation they might possess acts as a challenge rather than an obstacle. Those who take their limitations in stride and overcome it with their sheer hardwork alone are both element of admiration and of wonder to the other lesser mortals.

The first solo art exhibition of Audri Quasim, a young man of small frame, opened at Alliance Francaise de Dhaka on Monday. The interesting feature about this artist is that he has not had a disability of hearing effect his life or love for the finer arts.

The exhibition was formerly inaugurated by senior artist, Professor Abu Taher, Professor Hashim Khan and Professor Abdur Shakur Shah were also present at the inauguration ceremony.

There are thirty-three items on display. These include paintings, pencil sketches, collages and models. Audri has proved deal with nature. There are some paintings which show the shrubs, bushes and trees one might find around one's own house. All these paintings have a section of the house overlooking a garden. Audri has made a lovely sketch of Madhabukunjo. His pencil sketches and ink sketches are very detailed. He seems to have a special talent at sketching detailed human figures. There is also an eye catching collage on display. It shows a man languidly listening to a lady on Tanpura. The collage was very detailed and beautifully coordinated. There is another young piece, a painting of a young lady with a Kalshi (pitcher) standing in the water. The dark black clouds overhanging in the sky in the background of the painting give it a melancholy look -- it is a picture with which many can identify very easily for it is one of the most common sights of rural Bengal.

Two wire models are also on display at the exhibition. Model making is the latest medium that Audri is working on. One of the models is of a dinosaur.

The items on display at the exhibition represents two months hard work by the artist.

In fact some of the sketches were done in a single day's time. One section of the display shows the sketches and cartoons drawn by Audri in his childhood -- These were very beautifully done as well and showed that the artist had a burning talent on him from his childhood.

Audri Kashem was born in Chittagong on the May 5, 1974 and has pursued his studies in UK. He completed his A-levels and obtained his final-diploma in Arts and Design from Doncaster College for the Deaf, Yorkshire and Honours from University of Herfordshire St Albans School of Arts where he studied Arts and Model making. He has worked with noted children's illustrator Quintine Blake, Prof of Royal College of Arts.

The young and promising artist already has many prizes to his credit including the Elizabeth Humphrey Cup for overcoming difficulties. Audri has also painted animation cartoon for the children's ward at London Hospital, UK.

The exhibition on the second floor of Alliance Francaise de Dhaka will continue till tomorrow and is open from 10 am till 8 pm.

An Artist With a Style of His Own

The 12th solo exhibition of artist Mansur-ul-Karim will be held at the Divine Art Gallery

By Mishu M Chowdhury

THE twelfth solo art exhibition of the contemporary artist Mansur-ul-Karim opens at the Divine Art Gallery of the Pan Pacific Sonargaon Hotel on Friday, September 24.

Mansur-ul-Karim, in recent times, has emerged as a talented painter of the local art culture with a characteristic of his own. He has personalised his own style of arranging the picture and space with resemblance of figures, animals, birds and landscape in a very distinctive manner. Mansur has won both national and international recognition for his work. Over the last few years he has won awards in such reputed exhibitions as Delhi Triennial in India and Asian Art Biennial in Bangladesh. He has also participated in many exhibitions of the Bangladeshi paintings held at different countries.

The artist creates his canvases using unusual kinds of elements - textured surfaces, engraved lines, dots, dabs and so on. He produces a surface which cradles geometric forms, cool and warm colours and interestingly balances out conjuncted and empty spaces.

Practicing his own style of combining opposing elements, he successfully creates a spectacle which demands the attention of any spectator. His paintings reflect his sensitivity in his creation. His painting are a remembrance of faded-out memories, but at the same time they also seem to reflect a distressed soul tortured by the realities of the world around. He responds to time and space with his imaginary ideas and language which relates tradition and at the same time remains contemporary as well.

Mansur's solo exhibit will remain open till September 30.

Alpha Bangla Goes on Air

Another Bangla channel enters the rat race of satellite channels performed a touching duet with Himika Mukherjee which is the title song from the forthcoming daily soap -- Shyala that will be aired by the channel.

Alpha Bangla is the first satellite channel being launched under the Alpha brand, which has opened a new avenue on the horizon of the satellite television industry. It will fill the long awaited niche and demand of viewers to entertainment and infotainment in Bengali.

The channel was formally inaugurated at a function at the Taj Bengal in Calcutta, India. Shyamal Kumar Sen, Governor of West Bengal opened the channel at a function, says a message received in the city yesterday.

Alpha Bangla has been dedicated to the Bengali diaspora across the globe in general and West Bengal in particular.
