AL working to change lot of common people: Zillur

CHITTAGONG, Sept 24: Minister for LGRD and Cooperatives Zillur Rahman has said Bangladesh Awami League is working relentlessly to change the lot of common people since its inception about fifty years back, reports BSS.

The politics of Awami League is to serve the people and society as it believes that social and humanitarian services are great virtues, the minister said this while addressing the gold medal awarding ceremony-98 at a city hotel here last night.

Organised by Chittagong Social Welfare Council, the function was presided over by Council Chairman Engineer Rashid Ahmed Chowdhury and addressed, among others, by State Minister for Social Welfare Dr Moazzam Hossain, Chittagong City Mayor Alhaj A B M Mahiuddin Chowdhury and President of Bangladesh Women Awami League Begum Ivy Rahman, Vice-Chancellor of the Chittagong University Prof Abdul Mannan, Editor of the Daily Azadi Prof Mohammad Khaled, President of Chittagong Chamber of Commerce and Industry Kamaluddin Ahmed and Convener of the awarding ceremony Mohammad Serajul Kabir.

The LGRD minister referred to the long attachment of Awami League with the toiling masses of the country and gave a brief resume of the various welfare activities for the society undertaken by the present government during the last three years of its tenure.

The minister, who is also a General Secretary of the Awami League, said the poorer section of the country live on agriculture thus present government has so far distributed Taka 3,271 crore as agriculture loan in addition to providing seeds, fertilisers and other agricultural inputs among the farmers.

Speaking on the occasion, State Minister for Social Welfare Dr Moazzam Haq listed massive pro-people programmes of the present government and said it is first of its type that Awami League government has introduced gold medal award to the best social workers of the country.

Dr Haq said one vagabond centre will be constructed in the city at a cost of Taka one crore while a recreational centre for the well-to-do-section of society will be built at Foy's Lake with an approximated cost of Taka twelve crore.

Speaking on the occasion, City Mayor Mahiuddin Chowdhury said the introduction of the gold medal award will help encourage to new generations to come forward in the social service with new zeal and enthusiasm.

Maya pleads for removing gender discrimination

State Minister for Shipping Moazzam Hussain Choudhury Maya yesterday strongly pleaded for removing the age-old discrimination between boy and girl to help establish the rights of women in society, reports BSS.

Addressing as the chief guest a function on "SAARC Meena Day" here, he urged all at every sphere of national life to work unitedly towards establishing equal rights of both male and female for a happy and prosperous Bangladesh dreamt by Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

The function was organised by DCC.

Urban Basic Supply Delivery Project (UBSDP) with Chief Executive Officer of DCC Md Rashidul Alam in the chair. It was also addressed by UNICEF and Project officials, among others.

Maya described "Meena" as the symbolic name of the deprived girls in our societies here and said UNICEF had discovered her while she had long been left carelessly in most families in the region.

The UBSDP has launched a total of 206 town development centres in four city corporations including 100 centres in Dhaka.
