Cassettes & CDs

To my wife Subhalakshmi
Amjad Ali Khan
CD Price: Tk 550/-
The universal maxim that there is a woman behind every successful man is all the more accentuated in the world of creative pursuits. Classical music and dance as we know it today is, undoubtedly, an amalgam of the collective wisdom of our glorious past. But it is also, in part, a living testimony of the contribution of hundreds and thousands of creative women through the ages, many of whom have had to sacrifice personal ambition due to some compulsion or the other. But, I must hasten to add, this does not suggest that their is ruly the purest creative genius, unmindful as it has been of personal fame and reward.

New Books

THE PRESENT HISTORY OF WEST BENGAL
Author: Partha Chatterjee
Publisher: Oxford University Press
Price: Tk 245/-
This is a collection of academic writings, lectures, reportage, and editorial comments on the politics and history of Bengal, a subject both historical and irreducibly contemporary, by one of the most perceptive observers of our time. Is it possible to write history alongside historical events? This is the question the author tries to grapple with in these essays.

Employment, Technology and Development
Author: Amartya Sen
Publisher: Oxford University Press
Price: Tk 350/-
This volume explores the interrelationships between institutions, technology and employment. It provides a conceptual framework for the use of existing technological knowledge as an employment strategy in developing countries. In this context, Professor Sen stresses the importance of adequate institutional and incentives structures and pricing policies.
