Qatar keen to set up
joint-venture hospitals

Qatari businessmen expressed their eagerness to set up hospitals in the Gulf country in joint venture with Bangladesh, reports UNB.

They will provide key funds while doctors and experts will be appointed from Bangladesh.

Officials sources said Qatari businessmen expressed their willingness for healthcare projects while Labour and Employment Minister M A Mannan had been there on his just-ended visit to Doha.

The leading chamber leaders in Qatar at a meeting with me in Doha have proposed joint-venture projects with Bangladesh in health sector, the minister told the agency.

He informed that he would inform the business community as well as leading physicians in the country about the eagerness of the Qatari Chamber leaders for joint-venture hospitals.

"We will have to elaborately examine the prospects of such joint ventures," Mannan said. He, however, viewed it could be a unique opportunity for our businessmen and physicians.

Sources at Federation of Bangladesh Chambers of Commerce and Industry said it would bring the proposal to the knowledge of all concerned after knowing the detail from the ministry.

Detailing his tour to Doha after visiting Oman, the minister informed that he also proposed to Qatar to employ more doctors, nurses and engineers from Bangladesh.

Their response is good about appointing the professionals on priority basis. They also assured continuing recruitment of more workers in other fields," the Labour and Employment Minister said.

A total of 3,327 workers were employed in Qatar during January to June this year.

During the period it was the fifth-largest country to recruit Bangladeshi workers.
