Students' strike in all universities Oct 18

By DU Correspondent

Ganotantrik Chhatra Oikya (GCO), a conglomeration of some left leaning student organisations at the Dhaka University on Thursday announced a series of fresh programme in protest of police attack on the agitating students of Jahangirnagar University and to press home its several demands.

The programme includes staging demonstration and procession at the DU campus on October 2, demonstration, rallies in all the districts on October 4 and submission of memorandum to the Education Minister on October 9 and a students strike in all universities on October 13.

The demands include resumption of the JU, cancellation of increased admission fee at JU, resumption of bus service at Chittagong University, making the residential hall of Rajshahi University free from 'Shibir activists,' disclosure of identity of 60 enlisted terrorists on DU campus, formation of a complaint cell to handle and resist harassment of female students, more government allocation in the university sector and stoppage of "anti-students and education conspiracy
