Myanmar trade delegation calls on PM

The visiting Myanmar delegation for bilateral trade led by Minister of Commerce Major-General Kyaw Than called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her office yesterday, reports BSS.

The Prime Minister told the delegation that Bangladesh and Myanmar enjoy very cordial relations. "Our bilateral relations particularly in the field of trade and investment should further be expanded," she added. Kyaw Than lauded the leadership of the Prime Minister and warmly felicitated her for signing the Ganges Water Sharing Treaty with India and peace accord on Chittagong Hill Tracts.

The Myanmar minister also stressed further expansion of trade relations between the two friendly countries.
