Death anniversary of Justice Ibrahim today

The 33rd death anniversary of Justice Mohammad Ibrahim will be observed today with due solemnity, says a press release.

The day's programme will start with placing wreaths at the graveyard. Khatme Quran, milad mahfil will be held to seek divine blessing.

Justice Mohammad Ibrahim was the Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University. He was Central Law Minister of the then Pakistan in Ayub Khan's cabinet. He resigned from Ayub's cabinet for differences of opinion on constitutional issues before the imposition of Basic Democracy in Pakistan.

Later, he played a pioneering role to pave way for establishing democratic rights of people of this region and fought relentlessly till his death to achieve this goal.

He was also associated with many socio-cultural organisations and was a true exponent of Bengali nationalism.

Roundtable on women's seat in JS held

The Law Minister Abdul Matin Khasru yesterday said that the question of increasing women's reserved seats in parliament or a provision for direct elections in these seats as demanded by women's organisations could be made by amending the Constitution, reports UNB.

While speaking at a roundtable on women's seats in parliament at National Press Club, Khasru said that the government wants to settle the question of increasing the women seats on the basis of a consensus.

President of Bangladesh Mahila Parishad Ayesha Khanam, chaired the roundtable. Whip Khaleda Khanom MP, Meher Afroz Chumki MP and CPB general secretary Mujahidul Islam Selim took part in the discussion.

Blood donation programme to mark 'DU Mourning Day'

A voluntary blood donation programme was held at Battala on the Dhaka University campus yesterday on the occasion of 'DU Mourning Day' on October 15.

Vice-Chancellor of the university Prof. A K Azad Chowdhury inaugurated the programme as chief guest organised by Vivekananda Shiksha O Sangskriti Parishad (VSSP). President of VSSP and Provost of Jagannath Hall Prof. Durga Das Bhattacharyya was also present on the occasion.

Several hundred students of the university donated their blood which was later handed over to the Sandhani, a voluntary organisation.

Meanwhile, the DU authorities have taken up elaborate programmes to mark the DU Mourning Day on October 15 with due respect.

Amartya Sen to attend DU convocation

By DU Correspondent

Nobel laureate and economist Prof Amartya Sen has consented to attend the 40th convocation of Dhaka University, its first after the independence of Bangladesh, on December 18.

In a letter to the DU Vice-Chancellor, Amartya Sen said that he had accepted the formal letter of invitation to attend the 40th convocation of DU. He is also to receive the Degree of Doctorate of Science (Honoris Causa) to be conferred on him for his outstanding contribution to human knowledge in general and to the discipline of economics in particular, said a DU press release yesterday.

In the letter, Prof Sen informed that he would arrive in Dhaka on December 17 from Bangkok to attend the convocation and leave on December 19.
