Coming Soon: Ivy Zaman's First Solo Exhibition

By Nafid Inran Ahmed and Nadine Murshid

Ivy Zaman

THE first solo sculpture and painting exhibition by Ivy Zaman will be inaugurated on October 22, 1999 at 5:30pm at Gallery 21. The Minister of Finance, Shah A.M.S. Kibria will inaugurate the exhibition as Chief Guest and Professor Mahmudul Haq, Director, Institute of Fine Arts, will be present as Special Guest. Professor Rafiqun Nabi will preside over the inaugural ceremony.

Ivy is one of the few female sculptors in the country and though this is her first solo, she already has quite a reputation as a good artist. Her husband, Hamiduzzaman Khan, who himself is a reputed sculptor, is a constant source of support and encouragement for her.

Ivy had passed out from the Sculpture Department of the Institute of Fine Arts after doing her BFA there, way back in 1980 and then went to Shantiniketan's Bishwa Bharati Kala Bhaban to pursue higher studies in 1988. When she left the Institute, she was more of a realistic painter - she painted what she saw. The Shantiniketan experience taught her to move towards modernism. It is there that she learnt how to perceive things her way and depict ordinary objects more creatively, which reflects her thoughts, and not what her eyes see. She remembers her gurus Ojit Babu and Sharbari Ray, who had taught her to be the artist that she is.

The upcoming exhibition will consist of twenty-five sculptures in bronze, seven in cement and thirty-eight water-colour paintings and drawings. Her paintings are the delination of her childhood when she used to play tag and wear pretty dresses. She calls her sculptures 'my dream'. She finds mud houses, the shapes of roots and seeds very fascinating and intriguing and her statuettes represent these objects in a very interesting manner. These trite objects look stunningly beautiful when recreated by Ivy and that in itself speaks a lot for her talents.

Ivy has had the honour of being one of the participants of the 'First National Sculpture Exhibition' in the country. Her participation in most of the Asian Art Biennials and the Biennials of Shilpakala Academy, where art pieces are chosen on the basis of quality, is remarkable.

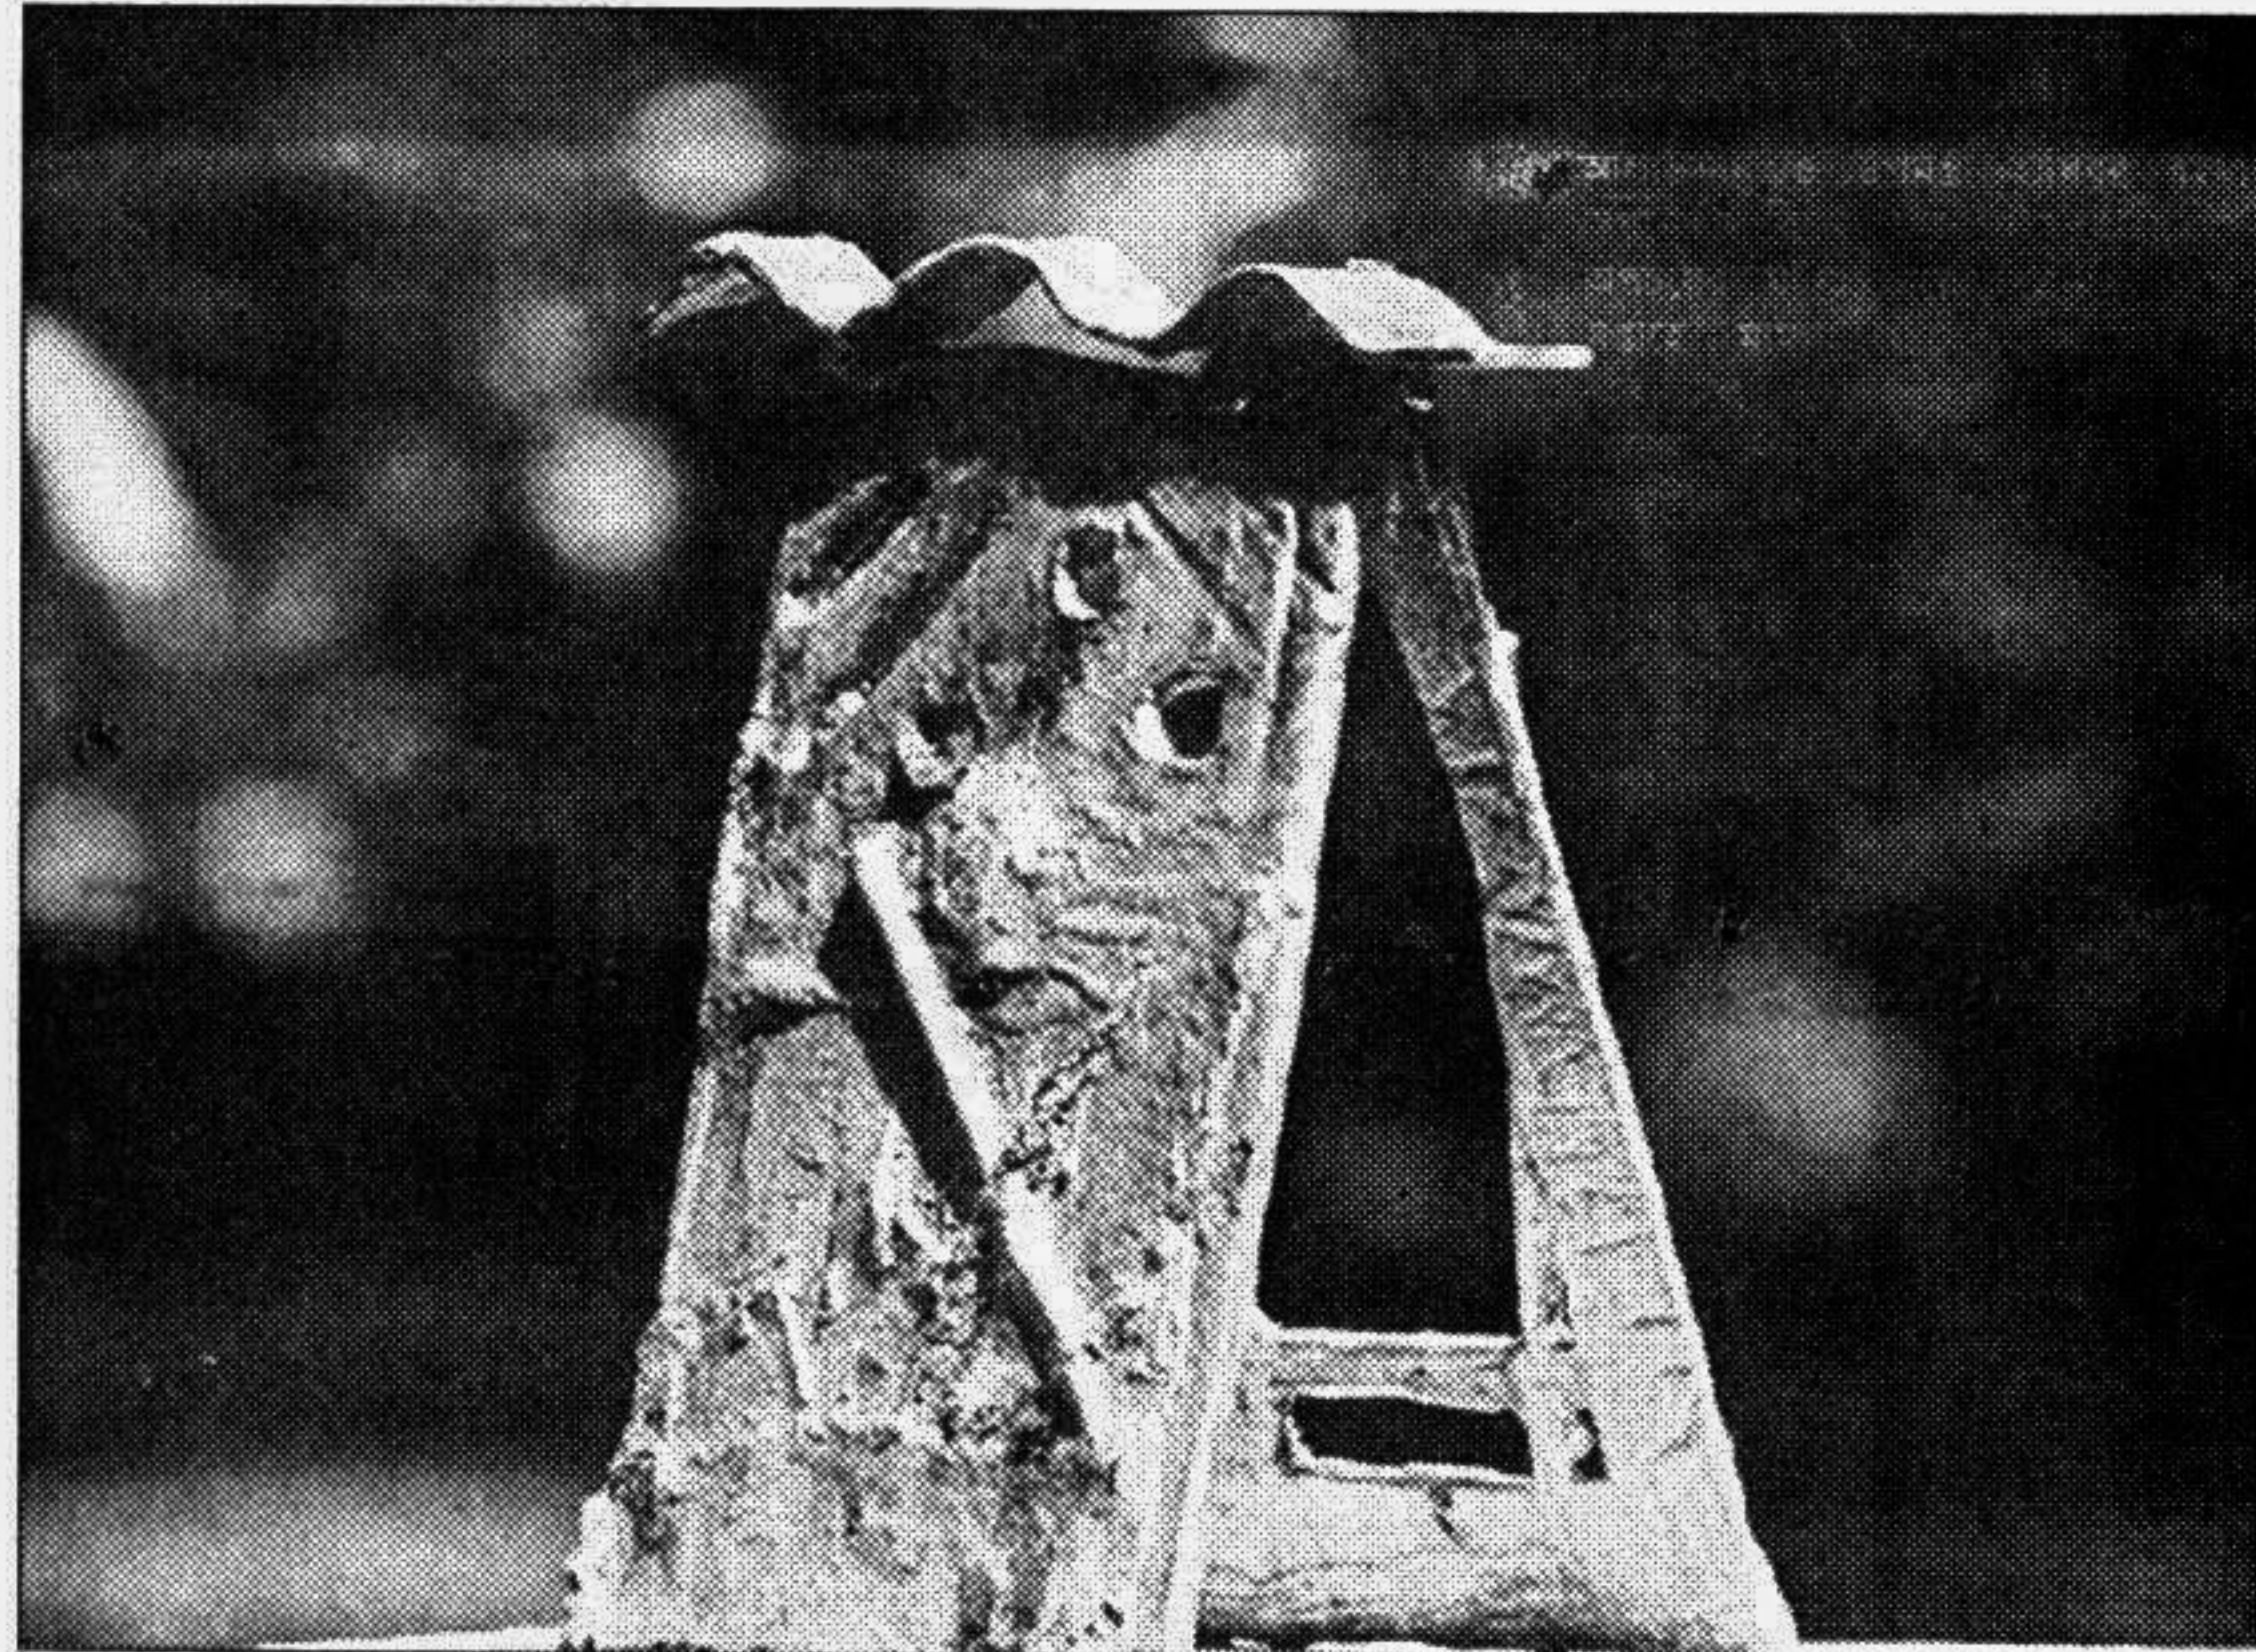

This exhibition will be quite a treat for all art-lovers and art enthusiasts, which will remain open for all till November 8, 1999.

Ups And Down
ABDUR Nur Tushar will present the Game show 'Ups and Downs' at 10pm. This show is about questions and answers. While Tushar will ask the questions and give several answers to it, three participants will have to choose the correct answer, and the guest star will say whether a participant is right or wrong. The person who will get the highest number of points will be the lucky winner of a Dhaka-Coxs Bazaar-Dhaka plane ticket and the money to cover the expenses which will be incurred during the stayover at Coxs Bazaar. There are other prizes like the Dhaka-Calcutta-Dhaka bus tickets to be won as well. Other sections of the show include jumping into a tub full of water, talking on the telephone and so on. The guest star for tonight is Film Actor Ahmed Sharif.

Jodi Amon Hoto
The second episode of educational children's program, 'Jodi Amon Hoto', will be aired today, 21 October, at 8.30pm. The main subject of the program is the relationship between children and their parents. The first episode of the series was 'Baba Ma R Bokchey Na'. Rubana Haq is the presenter of the program while Nima Rahman is the director.
