Of Light, Nature and Reality

3rd solo drawing and painting exhibition by Bipul Shah begins at Zainul Art Gallery

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

THE sky is overcast: the ray of the hidden sun slants in through the clouds creating a play between light and darkness. Bipul Shah's art works are like that; they invoke a mysterious feeling in the minds of the viewers. A five-day long third solo drawing and painting exhibition of this promising young artist started October 22 at the Zainul Art Gallery, Institute of Fine Arts.

As his previous exhibitions Bipul Shah did not invite anyone as chief guest or guest of honor to inaugurate his exhibition. According to him, the famed artists of the country do not attend the exhibitions of the younger artists if not invited, all that the young artists want is a little bit of encouragement from them.

Bipul, who works with the daily 'Prothom Alo' as a cartoonist is at home in different media, though he uses oil and water colour mostly. With his recent works, he has proved that he is maturing as an artist. Turquoise Blue and Black are used with a vast verity of shades, some paintings are in simple black and white. Using a different pattern of colours, Bipul surely and successfully developing his own style. All his paintings are titled Life Nature and Reality. He tries to portray the symbiosis that exists between life and nature.

Bipul play with colours to give expression to light. The best way to play with light is to highlight darkness and most of Bipul's works are dark. Graphical touch, having light and dark Green marble texture is used in some of the works. In one of the drawings, a man standing with a displaced eye.

The painting has a bluish background, a feel of water in which the man's shadow can be seen perfectly. Bipul used light yellow and blue as the base colour in quite a number of his works.

The works by our new generation really proves the love these young artist have for arts. They want everyone to experience their thoughts and feelings through their works.

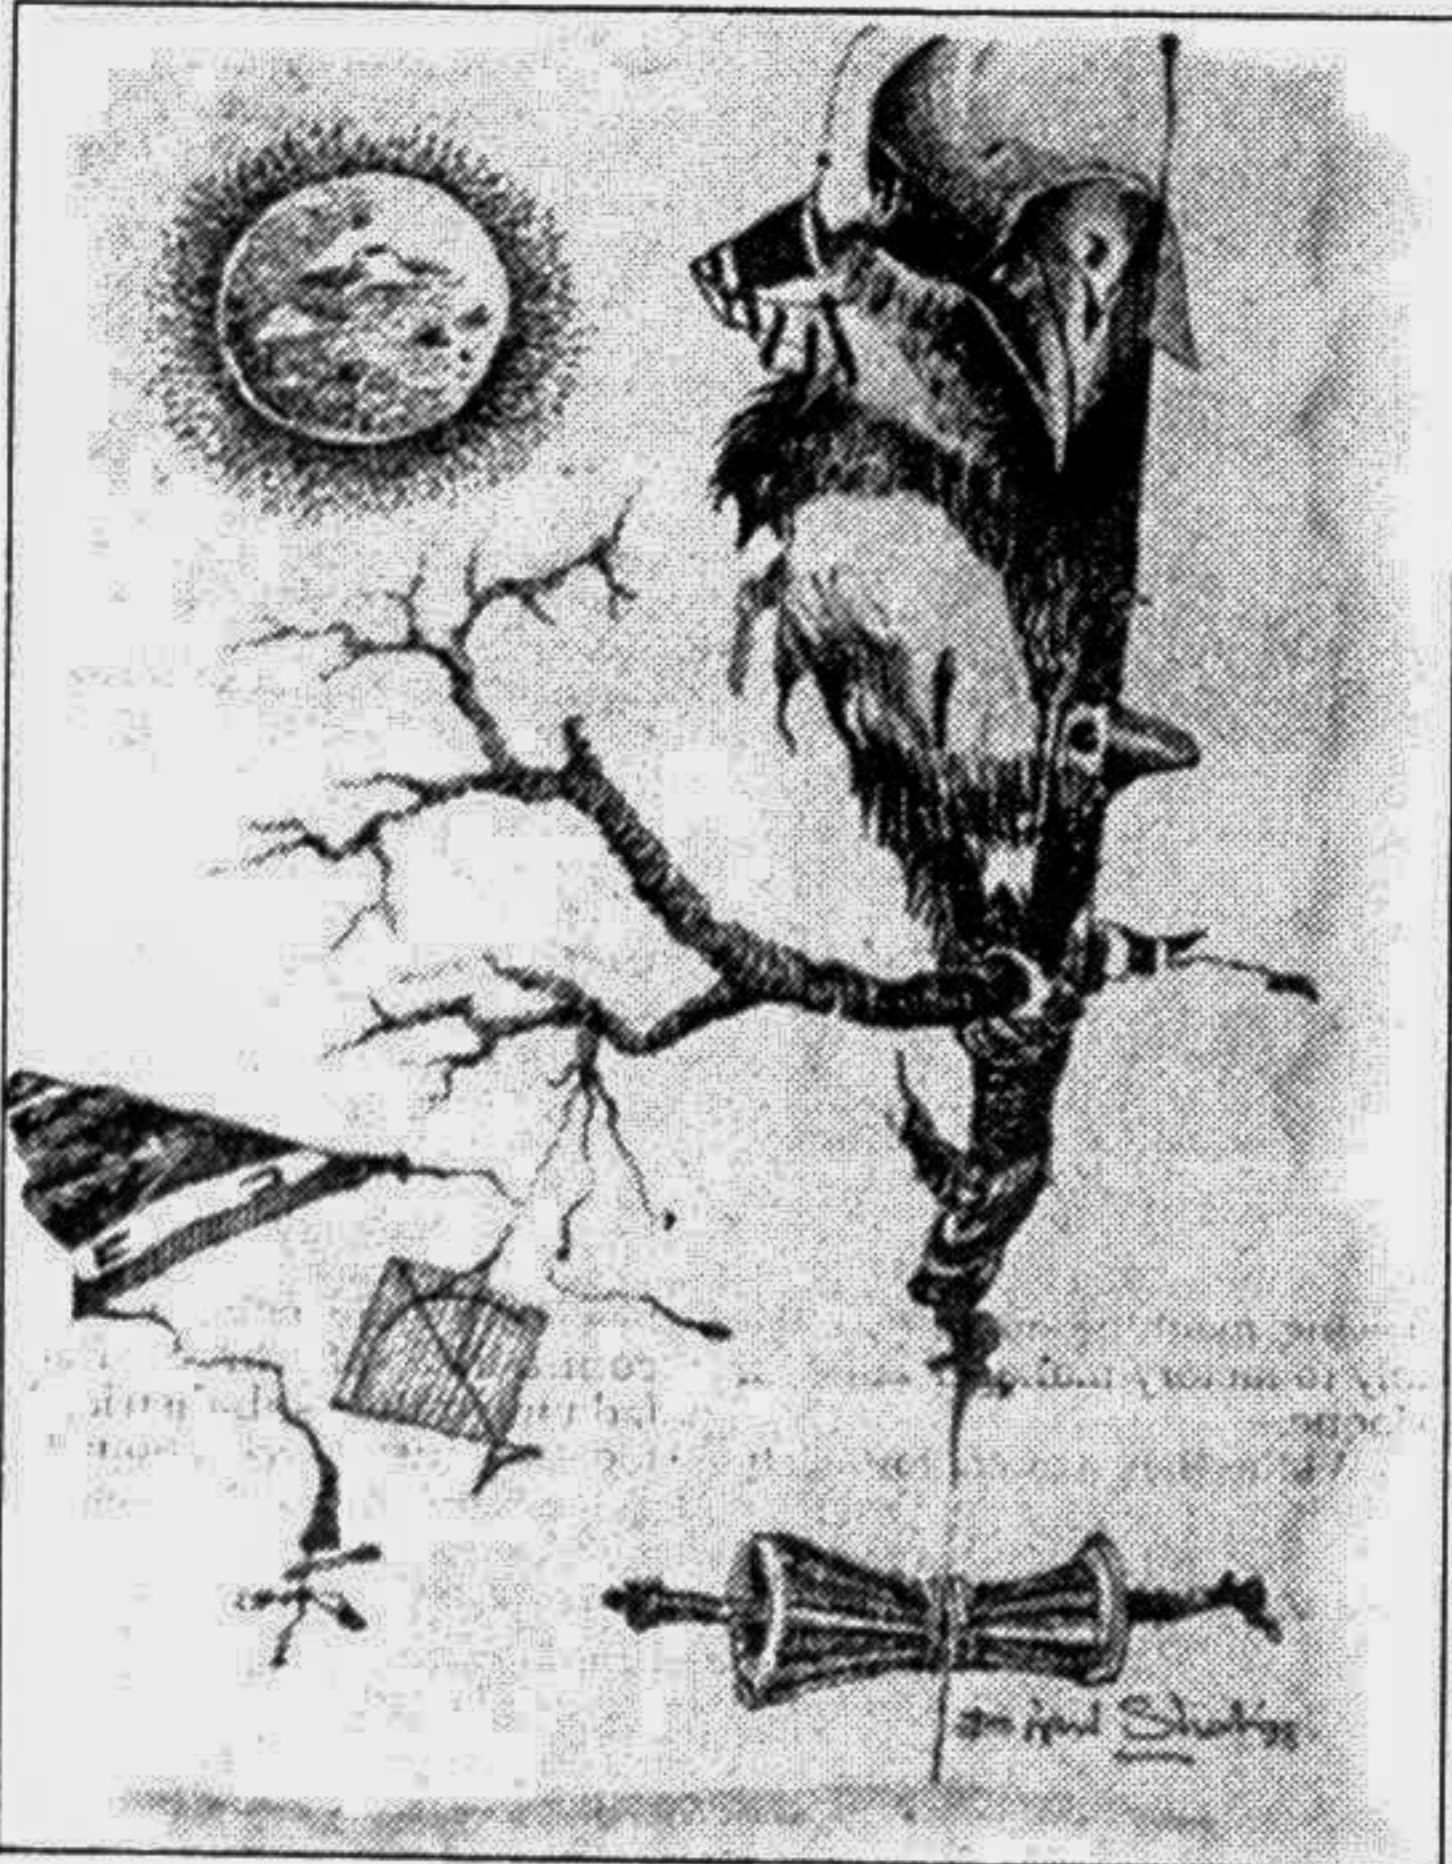

The exhibition will remain open everyday from 2.00pm - 8.00pm till October 27.
