The publication ceremony of 'Pushpapatre Nilkhantha' by Mustafa Majid held at the Liberation War Museum

By Mishu M Chowdhury

WITH the deep understanding of life and the world around us, poet Mustafa Majid launches his latest publication Pushpapatre Nilkhantha, a poetry book featuring fifty-four verses, concerning mainly about women in life. The publication ceremony was held on Saturday, October 23/1999 at the auditorium of the Liberation War Museum with eminent author Prof. Serajul Islam Chowdhury as chief guest.

Among others present at the occasion and who took part in the discussion were Bashir Al-

Poet Mustafa Majid

Helal and poets Asad Chowdhury, Sajjad Kadir, Samudra Gupta and Mohon Raihan. Poet Belal Chowdhury presided over the function.

Prof. Sirajul Islam Chowdhury stated that among all his talents, Majid's greatest asset is his relentless inspiration. As a writer, a researcher and an editor, he has shown his extra-ordinary talents in every aspect of literature.

Belal Chowdhury said that even though Mustafa Majid is recognized as an eminent researcher, he has proven his fluency in composing poetry through the fifty-four verses which were published recently.

Pushpapatre Nilkhantha is Mustafa Majid's fifth poetry book, consisting of compositions written during '93 to '99. As a follower of late Ahmed Sharif, Majid relayed the facts of life and romanticism through his poetry.

Poet Mustafa Majid started his writing career in 1969 through a inter school poetry competition organized by the Bangla Academy, in which he won the second prize. But his greatest break through was his long political essay Eklon Kishore Chokhe Oshir Unnoshottur (agitated '69 from a child's point of view), which was published in the Daily Azad on January 24, 1970. Since then, Majid has published around nineteen books.

According to Mustafa Majid, he inherited the quality of composing poetry from his grand father, who was a prominent folk singer. His grandfather's belongings, especially his song book and the instruments have greatly influenced him to take up a creative career like this. Poet Samudra Gupta has immensely influenced his poetry writings as well.

Mustafa Majid was born in April 14, 1955 in Patuakhali. From his early days of school, he was very enthusiastic about the state politics. In 1970, he joined the student union of East Bengal. After graduating from Dhaka University in Public Administration, he joined the 'Daily Bangla Barta' in 1974 and worked for the weekly magazine for children, 'Kishore Bangla', from 1976 to 1984. In 1984, he joined Bangladesh Bank and currently works as the director of public relations and publication in the same institution.

Majid mainly likes to work for the children, as they are the future generation of the country. In 1974, he established the children drama group, Abhijatrik Kishore Natya Ghosh, and was among the organizers of the 1st and 2nd National Children Drama Festival in 1980 and 1981. He has directed many successful dramas for the children.

His first publication in poetry was Shathir Kache Chithi (A Letter to a Friend), a poetry book for children in 1985. He has scripted two children's story book, and wrote a drama Chotoder Shatti Mancha Natak (Seven Dramas) for the Children in 1998. He also composed two biographies: the life story of the famous fable writer Hans Christian Andersen and the other about the famous war hero Osman. Among his research publications, his research work on the Rakhayen tribe is much noted.

The 9th Asian Art Biennale begins November 6

By Nadine Murshid

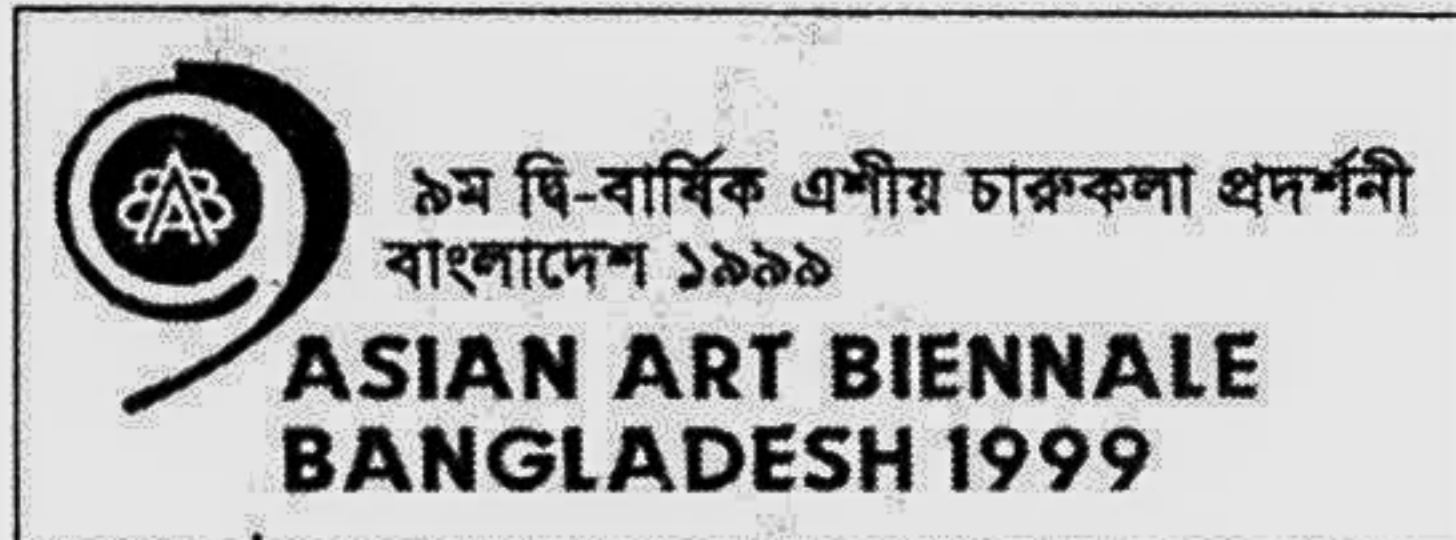

THE 9th Asian Art Biennale 1999 organised by Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy, will be inaugurated on October 6, 1999, by the Prime Minister, Sheikh Hasina, at the Osmani Memorial hall at 3pm, said the Deputy Director of Channakala Academy at a meeting yesterday.

About 205 paintings and sculptures have been selected from around 1500 entries from Bangladesh alone. They have been selected on the basis of quality and style by a panel of judges which included the likes of Professor Rafiqun Nabi. Foreign artists are yet to hand in their works and Shilpakala Academy expects approximately 500 pieces of art from the participating countries.

Laos, Oman, Pakistan, Russia and Myanmar, among others. The response from the foreign as well as the local artists and the countries they represent. Even the last Biennale featured 33 countries. The exhibition will be undoubtedly a major event and the success of each of these exhibitions show the general increase in the interest of Bangladeshis in this field. Once upon a time, art meant nothing to most people - they did not understand the value of a painting - they did not know who Picasso was, and did not bother to find out, even. But now, times have changed, and so has the scenario of the 'art market'. People now, understand paintings, know them and appreciates them; and Shilpakala Academy is playing a key role to promote art and artists.

The countries which will participate in the exhibition are Australia, Bahrain, China, Egypt, India, Iran Singapore, Thailand, Sudan, Vietnam, is remarkable. The 1st Art Biennale had 14 participatory countries and this one, 34 - a major increase, which shows a growing interest among the
