DUJ condoles deaths of five journalists

Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) yesterday held a meeting to condole the deaths of five senior journalists — Ahmed Humayun, A. K. M. Mohiuddin, Hassan Sayeed, Mir Nurul Islam and M. Sadekin, reports BSS.

Presided over by DUJ President Altaf Mahmud, the meeting demanded one year's regular salary after the death of a working journalist and payment of all his lawful dues.

The speakers at the meeting demanded of the authorities of the Muktakantha and the Banglar Bani that all dues of Mir Nurul Islam be paid immediately.

The journalist leaders urged the health minister to take immediate action against the doctors and authorities of the Dhaka Medical College and Cardiac Institute, who are allegedly responsible for the negligence in treatment of Mir Nurul Islam.

They also protested the recent police action on the photo-journalists and urged the government to stop such actions immediately.

The leaders urged the prime minister to take necessary steps for better treatment of ailing senior journalist Abdul Awal Khan abroad.
