Cassettes & CDs

Sitar recital
Raga: Deshkar, Dhani, Yaman
Price: Tk 85/-

An undisputed virtuoso amongst the sitarists of the younger generation, Shahid Parvez hails from a traditional family of sitar and surbahar players. The Etawah gharana, to which he belongs, has given us masters of the order of Ustad Imdad Khan, Ustad Inayat Khan and his brother, Ustad Wahid Khan, Shahid's grandfather.

THE MALHARS

Meera Malhar S. Malhar
Kishori Amonkar
CD Price: Tk 550/-

The Malharas are an ancient group of Ragas associated with the life-giving monsoons of India. In this ancient tropical sun-baked land the rains have for millennia triggered creation, life and romance. The Malharas thus evoke the myriad joys of rain. Each of the individual Malharas was created in a different period-sometimes by design and sometimes by abstraction from folk music or from other ragas.

Postcolonial Developments

Author: Akhil Gupta
Publisher: Oxford India
Price: Tk 818/-

This definitive study brings together recent critiques of development and work in postcolonial studies to explore what the postcolonial condition has meant to rural people in the Third World. Focusing on local-level agricultural practices in India since the 'green revolution' of the 1960s, Akhil Gupta challenges the dichotomy of 'developed' and 'undeveloped,' as well as the notion of a monolithic postcolonial condition.

Monograph

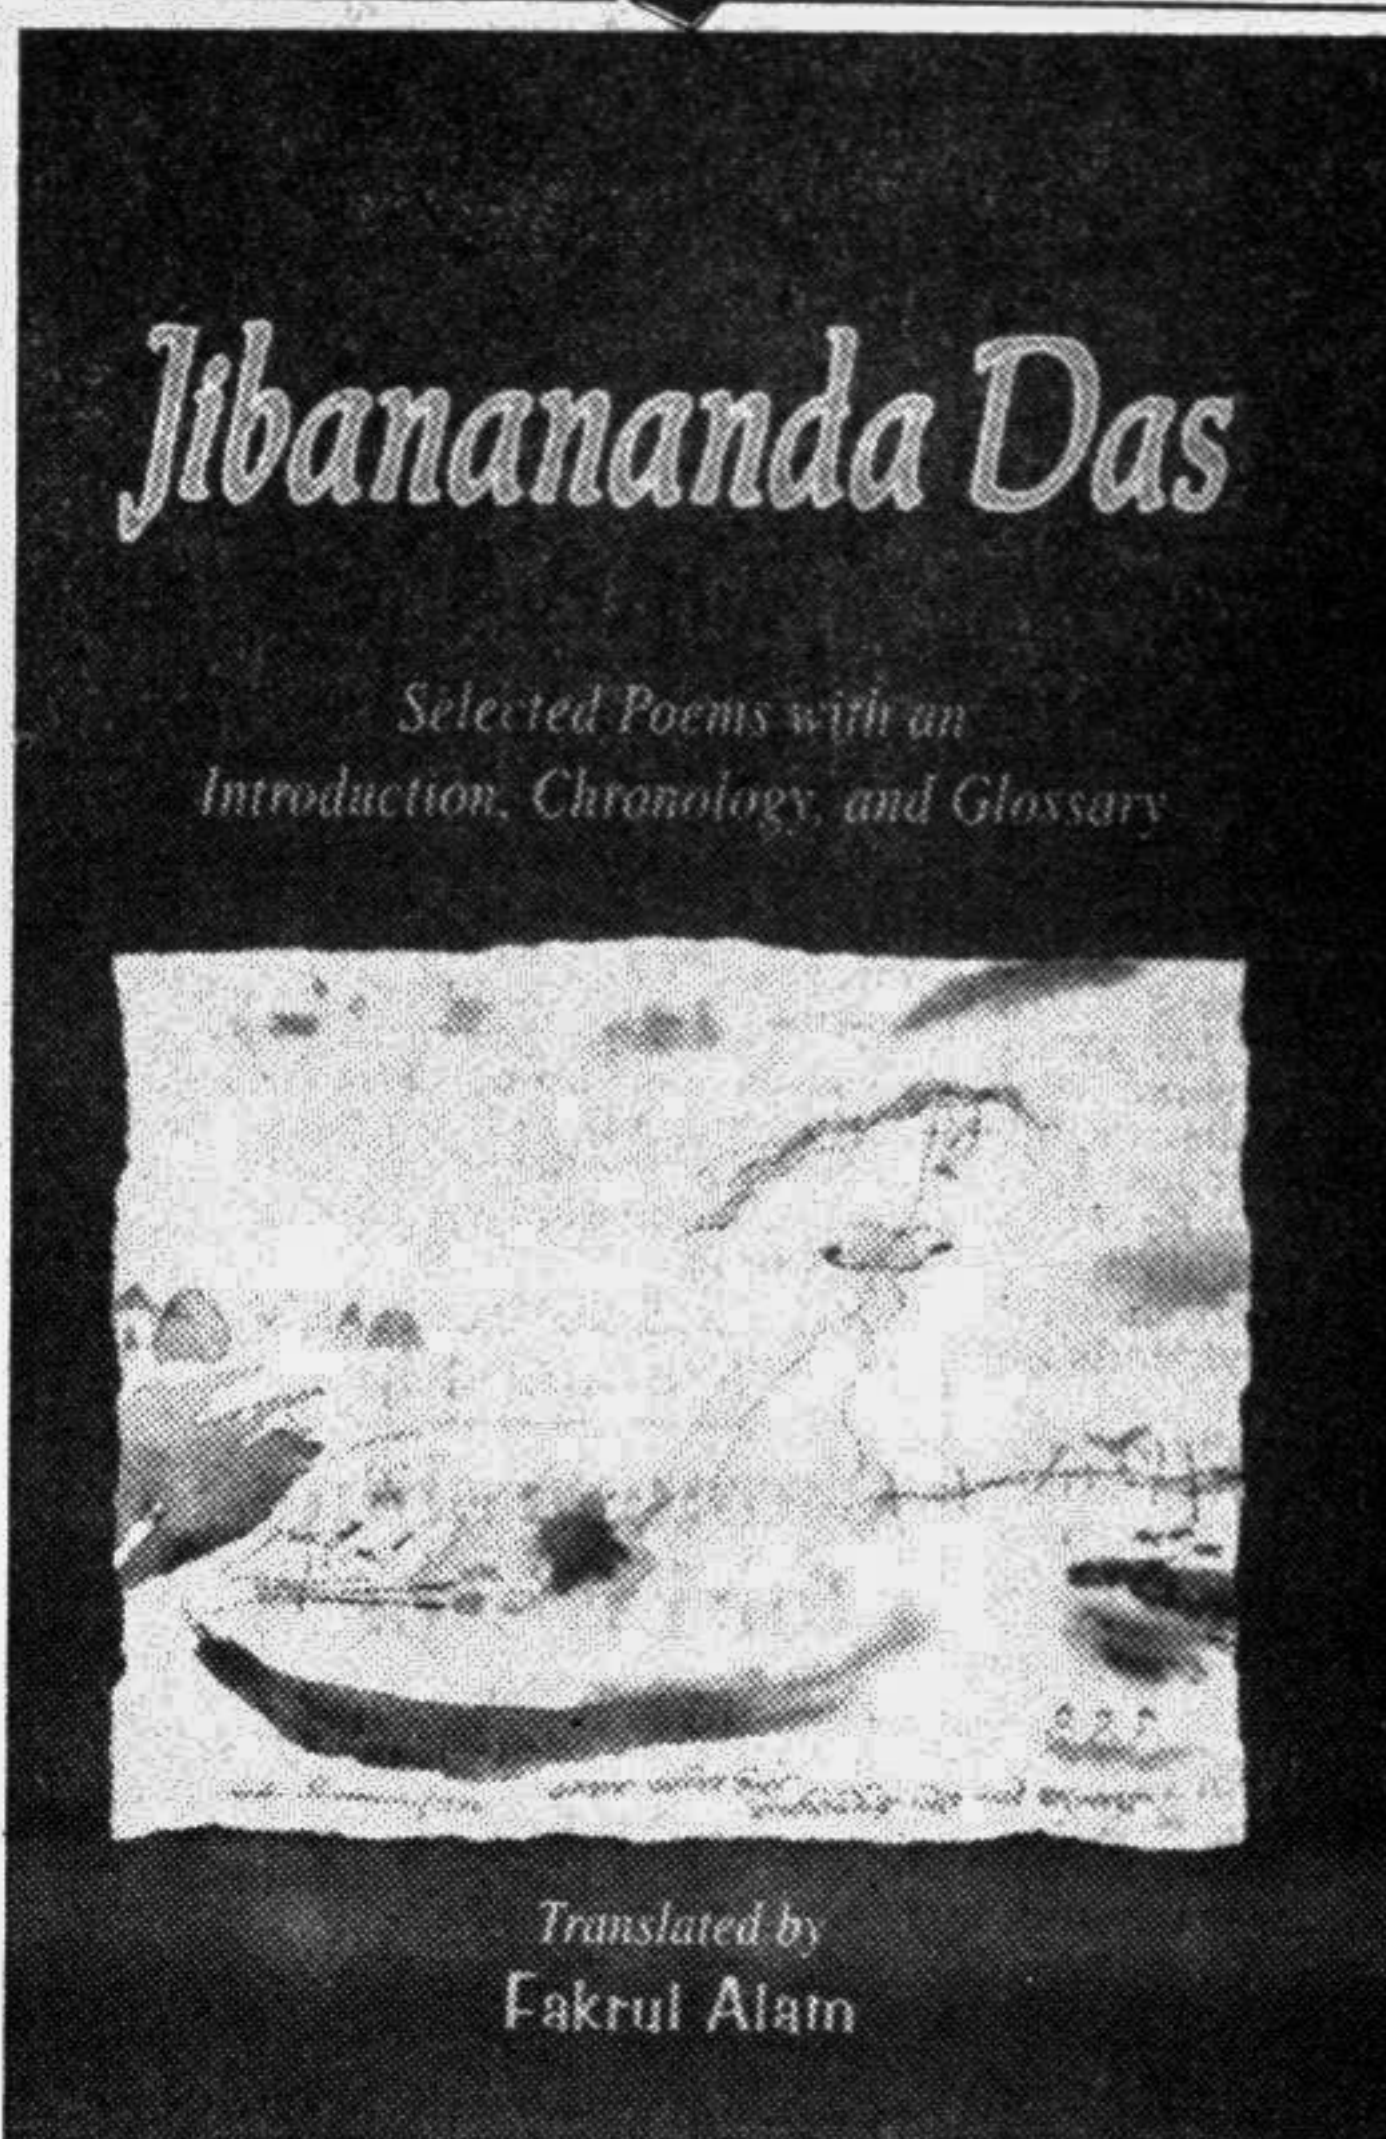

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT OF SMALL METAL WORKSHOPS

Publisher: Intermediate Technology Development Group
Price: Tk

This study report on Environmental Impact Assessment of the Small Scale Metal Sector Workshops in Bangladesh has made a pioneering attempt to analyse the damaging effect of the small roadside metal workshops on the environment and the locality in which they are situated. These workshops are widely prevalent in Bangladesh, particularly in the urban and semi-urban areas. Economically, the workshops provide informal income and employment to thousands of unemployed people, particularly the poor.

New Books

JIBANANANDA DAS

Selected Poems with an Introduction, Chronology, and Glossary
Translated by Fakrul Alam

Jibanananda Das (1899-1954) is one of the most important poets of Bengal. Nevertheless, he remains a poet little known outside West Bengal and Bangladesh. This selection of poems is designed to emphasize how Das's poems are great treasures of our literature through the medium of translation. Fakrul Alam's uniquely competent English translations also mark the birth centenary celebrations of Jibanananda Das this year (1999).

THE SAFFRON WAVE

Author: Thomas Blom Hansen
Publisher: Oxford India
Price: Tk 743/-

In The Saffron Wave, Thomas Hansen analyses Indian receptivity to the right-wing Hindu nationalist party and its political wing, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), which claims to create a polity based on 'ancient' Hindu culture.

THE PARTHA CHATTERJEE OMNIBUS

This omnibus comprises three of Partha Chatterjee's finest works (Nationalist Thought and the Colonial World, The Nation and Its Fragments, A Possible India) and marks a significant phase in the intellectual journey of one of India's foremost political scientists. The common thread that unites the three books is the principal object of study which is the existing nation-state.
