JU students to submit memo to Chancellor
By JU Correspondent
Students of Jahangirnagar University (JU) brought out a procession and held a rally on the Dhaka University (DU) campus yesterday demanding immediate re-opening of JU and full withdrawal of increased admission fees.
'Admission Fee Hike Resistance Committee' (AFHRC), a body of the agitating JU students, has also announced that it will submit a memorandum to the Chancellor of universities on November 9.

AFHRC procession started from Madhu's Canteen marched through the campus and concluded in front of the DUCSU building. They later held a rally there.
Addressing the rally, AFHRC leaders reiterated their six-point demands including immediate re-opening of the university, withdrawal of increased admission fees, punishment to the persons involved in police action on JU students and resignation of JU Vice-Chancellor, Pro-VC, Treasurer and Proctor.
They also alleged that some university officials are engaged in propaganda against the agitating AFHRC students and the on-going movement.
Aniruddha Das Anjan and Afsana Ayub Anney addressed the rally.
Meanwhile, when asked about re-opening of JU, VC Prof Alauddin Ahmed told journalists that he has called a meeting of provosts, deans, chairman and proctor to discuss the matter.
'Teachers' recommendations will be forwarded to the next Syndicate session,' he said, adding that no specific date for the Syndicate meeting has been fixed yet.
