

Dhaka International Film Festival Greet New Millennium

Week long festival opens January 20, 2000

By Ziaul Karim

DHAKA leaps culturally into the 3rd millennium as 6th International Film Festival opens January 20, 2000.

Organized by the Rainbow Film Society, the festival has a rich menu at its disposal as has been disclosed by the festival director Ahmed Muztaba Zamal at a Press Conference on November 1, 1999 at Top of the Park, Hotel Sheraton.

The conference was told that for the first time there would be a competition section under which maiden films by directors from Asia and Australia would feature fiction films with minimum 70 minutes running time made in past eighteen months. Films from India, Sri Lanka and Australia have already been submitted their entries for the competition. More participation are expected in this category from China, Iran, and Nepal.

The panel of international juries will be made up of film personalities like Buddha Dev Dasgupta from India, Peter Cargin from Britain, Enely Vargas Knaebel from Switzerland, Shao-Ji Sun from U S A, Reena Owen from New Zealand and Kabir Anwar and Moshuddin from host Bangladesh.

There will be a separate board of juries from Network for the Promotion of Asian Cinema (NETPAC). Films from as many as 16 countries—Australia, China, France, Germany, Russia, Sweden, Sri Lanka, Thailand including Bangladesh—will feature in the festival.

The retrospective section will be a constellation of great movies by Japanese master film-makers like Ozu, Kurosawa and Oshima. The trinity has earned international acclaim and put Japanese cinema into mainstream.

There will be four retrospectives in all involving Ozu from Japan, Margarette Von Trotta from Germany, Girish Kasaravalli from India and Prasanna Vithanage from Sri Lanka.

Ahmed Muztaba Zamal said that efforts were also being made to hold a retrospective of leading Iranian film-maker Abbas Kiarostami.

Parallel to the festival, there will be a sub-festival with focus on children films. The festival menu that is rich and varied contains a section entitled Cinema of the World, focusing mainly on movies from South East Asia such as, Myanmar, Thailand, Laos and a number of films from East European countries.

Film critics as well as viewers will have the opportunity to watch movies from countries about which we hardly have any idea. This festival will certainly widen the film perspective of the viewers.

The press conference also condemned the ailing mainstream cinema world and demanded immediate withdrawal of all black laws vitiating the growth of healthy film environment.

A seminar on Rivthick Ghatak will also be held concurrently with the festival. Tanvir Mokammel will read the key-note paper at the seminar to be held on January 22 at 4 p.m. at the National Museum.

National Museum is also the venue of the inauguration of the festival scheduled to open January 20 at 4:00 p.m.

A Fresh Look at Fashion

Young designers of the millennium programme

By Saima Islam

ON November 3, Kay Kraft, a Fashion Boutique house organized a unique competition in fashion designing at Alliance Francaise de Dhaka. In the preliminary round they had short-listed seventeen participants. The invited judges would do the final judgment. Among the judges were, Shishir Bhattacharya—assistant professor Bangladesh Fine Arts Institution, Sharukh Shahid of Henries Heritage, Tanim Aziz Khan—Textile Expert of Beximco, Painter Gautam Chakravarty, Cricketer Atahar Ali Khan, Photographer Iqbal Ahmed, Fashion writer Tazin Ahmed, Arif Rahman from Jana Khantha and a few other distinguished personalities. The deciding factors in the judgment would be, the choice of fabrics, choice of colours, cutting and patterning, finishing, style concept, innovativeness, and overall effect. On November 11, Kay Kraft will distribute prizes among the winners and display the participant's creations.

Kay Kraft provided the participants with all the necessary help regarding materials, helping hands, finance, etc. The husband-wife team Khalid Mahmud Khan and Shahnaz Khan, who runs Kay Kraft came up with this ingenious idea of holding such a competition which is the first of its kind in Bangladesh.

Asked about the objective of the competition, Khalid said, "Young Designers of the Millennium Programme is initiated to search for individuals interested in fashion designing and to help them develop products of their designs and concepts."

Shahnaz started Kay Kraft in 1993 as part of her hobby. She said that her dream had come true but there were a lot of people with potential out there who needed a little help and she hoped this programme would be the stepping stone of such initiatives.

The participants seemed full of hope and enthusiasm and most of them are of the opinion that this type of programme would definitely be inspiring. They added since there was no institution for fashion studies, people were still afraid of taking up fashion as their career and this type of programme would give them opportunity to evaluate the standard of their works.

Fashion has come a long way since the Emperor's new clothes and the knowledge of man's quest for variety tells us it definitely has a long way to go. We can hope that Bangladeshi fashion would make a bright beginning in the coming millennium and achieve an international outlook.
