'Projects to be taken to control floods in Maulavibazar, Jamalpur'

Water Resources Minister Abdul Razzak yesterday told the Jatiya Sangsad (Parliament) that the government would take up with all seriousness the project relating to the controlling of floods in the right plank of the "Dholai" river in the Kamalganj thana in the Maulavibazar district, reports BSS.

Replying to a call-attention motion of public importance by Whip of the Parliament Vice-Principal Abdus Shahid, the Minister said that all efforts are being made so that the project can be launched during the current financial year.

Shahid said that fate of the project appears to be uncertain since necessary financial allocations have not been made despite public announcement by the Prime Minister about the implementation of the project.

He said the flooding of river "Dholai" every year leaves colossal devastations as fury of water affects houses, land and crops of more than two and a half lakh people.

Razzak mentioned the progress about the project and said it is very much under process. He said PCB has been finalised and this would now be placed to the Planning Commission before going to the EC-NEC. Efforts are being made so that the work of the project can begin during the current financial year, he said.

Answering to another notice of urgent public importance, the Water Resources Minister said that a project to save Jamalpur town and several villages near the town has been included in the cluster project and the government is sparing no effort to start the work as early as possible.

Rezaul Karim Hira (Awami League-Jamalpur) moved the notice urging the Minister to allocate necessary fund for the project in the current financial year.

The Minister said the project will be taken up after completing necessary study and other formalities which are important.

BCL, JCD hold rallies on DU campus

2nd day of hartal

By DU Correspondent

Classes and academic activities of Dhaka University could not be held for the second consecutive day yesterday due to countrywide dawn to dusk shutdown sponsored by BNP-led opposition alliance.

Campus sources said that the administrative work at the Registrar's building was carried out partially.

The central library of the university also remained closed on the second day of the hartal. Police were seen deployed at the entrance of the library.

Meanwhile, both the student organisations of ruling and opposition brought out separate processions and held rallies on the campus during the hartal hours in protest and favour of the hartal respectively.

Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL), the student wing ruling Awami League brought their procession from the Madhu's Canteen and held a rally at Aparajeyo Bangla.

Presided over by BCL DU unit of president Sajjad Hossain, the rally was also addressed by AKM Ajim, Syed Abu Toha, Delwar Hossain, Akhteruzzaman Jewel, Talukdar Ahsanul Kabir Palash and Pangkaj Shah.

The BCL leaders at the rally urged the opposition parties not to call such destructive political programmes frequently for the sake of the country's economy.

BNP's student front Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) brought out its procession also from the Madhu's Canteen and held a rally at TSC crossing after parading the campus.

The JCD leaders vowed to continue their ongoing movement until the fall of the government of Sheikh Hasina.

Among others Monjur Elahi, Mozaffar Hossain Zakir, AKM Mosharraf Hossain, Manir Hossain and Mostafizul Islam Mamun addressed the rally.

Two young men were arrested with pensidyl in their possession at English Road in the city yesterday.
