Int'l confce on environment on Jan 14
By Staff Correspondent
 The country's environmentalists joined their hands yesterday to hold an International Conference on Bangladesh Environment in mid-January. The two-day international conference will begin on January 14, 2000. A high powered committee was formed comprising environment conscious non-government organisations (NGO), Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET), Coalition of Bangladesh Environmental NGOs (CEN), Bangladesh Environmental Network (BEN) and Porebesh Rokkha Sopoth (POROSH) as the main coordinating organisations along with other universities as associate members.

Norwegian envoy presents credentials
 The newly appointed Ambassador of Norway to Bangladesh Mrs. Gerb Wahstorn presented her credentials to President Shahabuddin Ahmed at Bangabhaban yesterday, reports BSS. Welcoming the ambassador President Shahabuddin expressed great satisfaction that relation between Bangladesh and Norway has developed steadily and satisfactorily over the years to the mutual benefit of the two countries. He hoped that her tour of duty would further cement the existing friendly relation between Bangladesh and Norway. Ambassador Mrs. Gerb Wahstorn said Norway and Bangladesh have a long tradition of friendly relation, especially in the field of development co-operation. "My government is observing with keen interest the endeavours of the government of Bangladesh to strengthen democratic rule, economic progress, social justice and development," she added.

Kuwaiti envoy calls on Hasina
 The newly appointed Ambassador of Kuwait to Bangladesh Ali H Al-Sammakh yesterday called on Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina at her office and conveyed an invitation from the Emir of Kuwait to visit his country, reports BSS. The prime minister accepted the invitation. The date of the visit will be worked out in due course, officials said. During the meeting the envoy referred to the excellent bilateral relations between the two countries and mentioned the Kuwait has a number of development projects in Bangladesh. Welcoming the new envoy, the prime minister said during his stay in the country the government will extend its all out cooperations to help him perform his duty smoothly.

Shato Nagorik Committee slates govt action
By Staff Correspondent
 Shato Nagorik Committee (committee of hundred citizens) in a statement yesterday condemned the police attack on the leaders of opposition political parties including BNP central leaders Sadek Hossain Khoka, Abdullah Al-Noman and Jonyal Abedeen Farouq. Referring to the volatile political situation prevailing in the country and governments action against ongoing democratic movement the president of the committee Prof Emajuddin Ahmed said the "present government has lost morality to rule the country." He also blamed the government for making the parliament ineffective, destroying financial institutions and for closing all windows of the democracy. "The educational institutions has become den of terrorists, dignity of the judicial institutions has been lowered and newspapers have become the target of government's propaganda," the statement alleged. "The government is pushing the country towards a dark age through its various anti-democratic steps," it added. Emajuddin Ahmed urged the government to resign, showing respect to people's demand and hand over power to a neutral caretaker government, for the sake of national interest.
