Fun, Music and Fun

Benson and Hedges Live and Acoustic musical evening

Shahed performs in the B&H, Live and Acoustic musical evening.

By Saima Islam

BANGLADESHI band music has come a long way since it's emergence in the musical arena. Band music has created its own place along side mainstream music trend.

Benson and Hedges, organized a fun filled musical evening on November 12, at Sonargaon Hotel Ballroom. The show was a part of the marketing scheme of B & H. The company has taken up a world wide campaign to promote music. It's the company's 5th big musical event in Bangladesh.

The purpose of such programme is to promote new, promising artists along side the popular artists. This programme featured Ferdouse and Kallol, two up and coming new artists, discovered through the star search competition also organized by B & H, and Shahed a well known singer with two records to his credit. These three solo artists were featured beside two popular bands, Renaissance and L.R.B.

The concert started in a cozy manner with Ferdous' performance, "No love songs today", said he after his first song -Bhujai nai kane Koshto thaka, tells the story of the post Mukti Jhudo generation and their failure to understand the plight of those hard times. His second song Ki Muslim ki Hindu projected secular idealism.

Next came Syed Kallol. "The kind of music I do requires a concentrated listening," he stated. His is a one man band with his harmonica and a guitar. He surely made his mark with meaningful lyrics and interesting way of presenting his thoughts in the form of songs. Day to day problems, common people like garment worker Pushpa, universal vice, pride, hartal find expression in his songs.

Shahed came next with his catchy music. His love songs introduced a new flavor in the whole scenario. He sang two songs dedicated to his beloved Roksana in request of the audience as well.

Renaissance and L.R.B performed with their usual flare enjoying enormous support and cheers from the audience. The show seemed to gather swing at their performances.

Unlike the usual band shows the three solo artists, sang their own songs and did not borrow songs from popular Bangladeshi or international artists. They tried to make their individual mark on the vast panorama of the band music. Though the audience did not respond to their songs as they did to Renaissance or L.R.B but the performers opened up a new style of simple presentation.

Juboraj on BTV tomorrow

IMDADUL Haque Milon's Juboraj will be aired on BTV tomorrow night. The story of this serial is a little different from other TV serials so far and involves the popular TV artists Shomi Kaiser and Toukir Ahmed as the starring couple. Shomi appears in three different roles in this serial which adds to the mystery. This is of course not the first time that Shomi has appeared in more than one role in a drama. Earlier she appeared in Kothay Shay Jon, also by Milon, in a double role.

Toukir Ahmed portrays the title character of Juboraj in the serial. His is an extremely interesting character. Although Juboraj is a perfectly normal type of person, the story gradually proceeds to reveal him in an anti-hero role. His confrontation with the three different Shomis in the pace of the storyline is also reveals different sides of his character.

The cast is further strengthened by the support of actors as Golam Mostafa, Sharmili Ahmed, Chitralekha Guha, Nader Chowdhury, Nima Ahmed, Abdul Kader, Giasuddin Pintu etc.

The storyline of this week's episode: Selim tells his friends how broken hearted he is to have lost Babli. In the meantime, Juboraj gets better acquainted with the mysterious Shanti at the farmhouse he finds himself in. He shares his misfortunes with her and even tells her about the Maya he loved. Shanti's father is not happy with the growing relationship between Shanti and Juboraj. He tries to make her see that it will do no good to her. But Shanti is not willing to see his point of view. So he calls in Juboraj and asks him to leave. Just as Juboraj is about to leave, Habib Shahib arrives there. Shanti begs Juboraj to hide away from this evil man. In the dark of the night, Juboraj, more animated by his desire to take revenge, steals Five lakh Taka from Habib and disappears into the darkness.
