Suit against Bacher stalled

JOHANNESBURG, Nov 18: Former Pakistan batsman Younis Ahmed's multi-million rand (dollar) law suit against South African cricket boss Ali Bacher was on Wednesday indefinitely postponed by the Jo-hannesburg High Court, a report said, reports AFP.

Ahmed, who filed against Bacher for warning cricket bodies that the retired cricketer was wanted for fraud and assault, told the court that he was not ready to proceed with the case, independent E-TV television reported.

Ahmed, who lives in Johannesburg, is demanding 7.6 million rand (1.26 million dollars) from Bacher and the country's United Cricket Board for defamation and damages.

McGrath's milestone

HOBART, Nov 18: Strike bowler Glenn McGrath leapfrogged Richie Benaud to become the fourth most successful Australian Test bowler of all time, but his teammates forgot to congratulate him, reports AFP.

His teammates were too occupied taking catches and skittling Pakistan for 222 off 72.5 overs and knocking 29 runs off without loss by stumps on the opening day of the second Test

McGrath's immaculate opening spell of 2-6 from nine overs had Pakistan in trouble at 18 for two but just when a fightback was emerging at 120 for three, Mark Waugh took a low one-handed diving catch at second slip to get rid of the dangerous Yousuf Youhana for

"We just found out a little while ago," Waugh said of Mc-Grath's milestone after stumps. "We forgot to congratulate him. It's a tremendous effort, he's been a great bowler for Australia at a good strike rate of about four or five wickets a game. "I still don't think he's bowling as well as he can but he still doesn't let you down, he's always there at 100 percent and

I'm glad we've got him." With 250 Test wickets only Dennis Lillee (355), Warne (337) and Craig McDermott (291) are above McGrath as leading Australian wicket-takers. "To pass Richie (Benaud) is quite a big buzz because he is such a big name in the sport," McGrath said.

"I've been getting close to the 250 and it's good to finally reach it."

Victoria could create record

MELBOURNE, Nov 18: Openers Matthew Elliott and lason Arnberger batted through the opening day to have Victoria in a formidable position in their Sheffield Shield cricket match against South Australia here Thursday, reports AFP.

At the close of a great day for the Victorians, Arnberger was unconquered on 196 and former Test opener Elliott unbeaten on 121 with the Victorians at 320 for no wicket.

The pair ended the day just 55 runs short of the record for Victoria for the first wicket in a Shield match of 375 set by Bill Woodfull and Bill Ponsford more than 70 years ago.

Wednesday night, reports AP.

Bhupathi and Paes, finalists at the 1997 World Doubles event, already surpassed their performance at the 1998 World Doubles when they lost their first two matches and then withdrew because of injuries. This is the first World Doubles appearance as a team for Norval and Ullyett, ranked No 9.

The No 2 team in the world, Australians Todd Woodbridge and Mark Woodforde, won their opening match 6-4, 6-2 over American Jared Palmer and Paul Haarhuis of the Netherlands, the No 7 seeds.

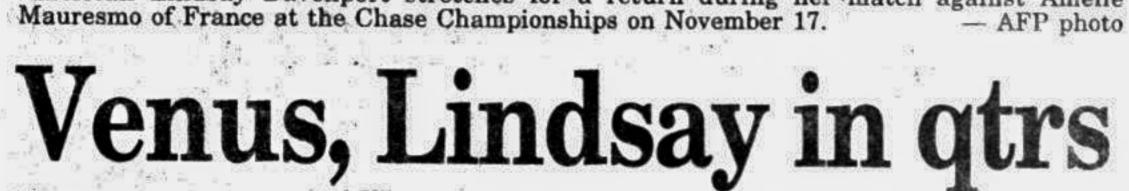

Haarhuis teamed with fellow countryman Jacco Eltingh to win the 1998 World Doubles. American Rick Leach and South African Ellis Ferreira beat Australian Sandon Stolle and Zimbabwe's Wayne Black 6-3, 6-2.

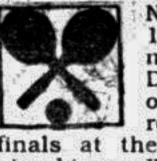

Ferreira and Leach, the No 3 ranked doubles team in the world, won the last five games of the second set to coast to victory.
