A Traveller's Canvas

A solo painting exhibition of Niladri Paul is being held at Alliance Francaise gallery

UNTITLED, media: water colour

By Saima Islam

A beautiful young girl, eyes full of dreams, standing inside a shanty, sunlight slanting through the cracked walls to create an interesting play of light and shade on her innocent face is a painting typical of Niladri Paul. In applying colour the artist is measured but one would see the canvas is vibrating with colour. This points at the painter's ability to handle his medium, primarily acrylic and watercolour.

Alliance Francaise de Dhaka organized the solo painting exhibition of this Indian artist, Niladri Paul. Tasmima Hossain M.P inaugurated the exhibition on November 19. The show will remain open till December 2, everyday from 9am to 12 noon and 5pm to 8pm.

Settled in Delhi, the Calcutta born artist has a deep attachment to Bengal. Niladri graduated from the Govt. College of Arts and Crafts, Calcutta in 1986. The talented artist held over a dozen of exhibitions in India, Nigeria and Singapore. This is his first show in Bangladesh. The show exhibits 24 paintings of the artist.

"This is my third visit to Bangladesh and from my first visit I have been nurturing a desire to hold an exhibition in Bangladesh," said the soft-spoken artist who bears a great liking for the people of Bangladesh. "I wanted to give expression of my impressions on Bangladesh, as a tourist would like to," said Niladri while describing his theme and added, "My paintings of Bangladesh are a spontaneous reaction to people I have met and places I have seen."

This proves true when one encounters his works. Image after image, caught in his creations, portraying different aspects of life in Bangladesh. Vast paddy fields, wide rivers, Bauls, boatmen, the front yard of a village hut, a Shepard boy, a village wife taking water in an earthen vessel all are familiar scenes of Bangladesh.

He likes to experiment with colour and form. He loves to work with primary colours like red, green, and yellow in ample amount to create his bright canvas. All his works are realistic but his use of colour is inspired by folk art. He has created different dimensions in his work by avoiding brush strokes in some places and using thumps and nails instead.

His works do not carry any individual title they are part of the general title, 'Impression on Bangladesh'. Indeed, when the paintings are seen collectively one discovers Bangladesh in a new way.

Niladri hopes to organize more exhibitions like this in future. He said, "Human visages interest me immensely. Faces are not merely portraits but reflections of individual personalities and emotions. It is my endeavor to capture that particular inner vitality and mood of the characters through various mediums and forms."

No doubt, Niladri is successful in presenting the traveller's impression through his works.
