Documentary on Buriganga encroachment

By Staff Correspondent
The Buriganga river under the grip of encroachers had been the theme of a documentary screened in the city on Wednesday along with two other short films on the Santals and Child Labour.
Steps Towards Development, an NGO produced the documentaries and screened those at Planning and Development Academy, Nilkhet.
Swedish Ambassador in Bangladesh Anders Johnson was the chief guest and Matur Rahman, Editor, Prothom Alo was the special guest at a function marking the premiere the films.
The documentary on Buriganga detailed how the city's river is being systematically encroached upon, reducing its flow and the industries on its banks are polluting it.
