'Mass leave' threatens key power plants

Govt warns of punishment

Star Report

The government has warned that stern action would be taken if the officials at Ashuganj power plant go on strike.

But the officials reiterated yesterday that they would begin a three-day abstention from work on Tuesday by going on "mass leave" as per an earlier announcement by the "Bidut Utpadan Karmakarta Samity", an organisation of power sector officials in the country.

They are pressing their five-point demand including cancellation of a government decision to set up Ahuganj Power Company.

The government's warning followed failure of talks between the PBD authorities and Samity leaders last night.

Ashuganj plant generates about 750 MW of power. The total power generated in the country is around 2500 MW.

Talking to The Daily Star last night, a top official of PDB said, "The demands of the officials are not justified. They will violate law if they go on strike". The government had earlier declared services in the power sector "essential", making strike illegal.

A press release of the Samity last night said all the officers at Ashuganj power units submitted their leave applications and other employees also joined their move. The employees said they will not take the risk of running the power plant without the guidance of officers and engineers.

The press release claimed that top executives at some other power plants also submitted their leave applications.

A leader of the Samity requesting anonymity told to The Daily Star, "We are aware that public reaction to this programme would not be in our favour. But we have no alternative but to go for this programme."

Their other demands are cancellation of Electricity Reforms Act, steps to stop power pilferage, 100 per cent insurance coverage of power plants, supervision allowance and accountability of the Power Division.

During the work abstention programme, the power units will continue to operate. But if any of these trips or develops problem, the officials and engineers will not resolve those.

The Samity and the Karmachari-Karmakarta Oikyo Parishad raised the five point demand a couple of months ago.

As their movements intensified, the State Minister for Energy Prof Rafiqul Islam met the Oikyo Parishad leaders last month. The State Minister asked the leaders to give him a one-month time to resolve their problems. Accordingly, the Oikyo Parishad decided to refrain from agitation throughout December.

The officers association was "enraged" by some comments made by a mission of the Asian Development Bank (ADB) regarding the Ashuganj Power Company, sources said.

ADB was pressing the government to form the Ashuganj Power Company and go for power sector reforms.

Mayoral arrogance

Hawkers' market at Osmany Udyan will go ahead

By Staff Correspondent

The Mayor of Dhaka City Corporation is going ahead with his plan to build a hawker market at the Osmany Udyan, ignoring strong opposition from top officials in his office and criticism from different quarters, sources concerned said.

DCC's Engineering Department recently demarcated one acre of land in the park at a cost of about Tk 1.5 lakh for the proposed market to rehabilitate hawkers to fulfill the mayor's election pledge, they said.

As per plan, hawkers would be allowed to do business there from dawn to dusk, officials in DCC's Estate Department said.

The top officials opposing the mayoral plan are in favour of immediate steps to beautify the only green open space between the oil and new parts of the city and bring back a healthy environment in the area, the sources said.

The mayoral onslaught on the public park came just after a public outcry compelled the government to change its decision and shift the proposed venue of the NAM convention centre from there.

The Mayor in his election campaign had pledged that hawkers on city's footpaths would be rehabilitated to ease traffic jam on streets.

A DCC official requesting anonymity said a section of officials revived the rehabilitation project to "please the mayor for their vested interest". Many quarters criticised the decision and appealed to the Mayor to change it, he said.

Meanwhile, an office of Jubo League, youth front of the ruling Awami League, was set up in the Osmany Udyan area last week. DCC officials said they saw the construction work of the office but did not have any idea who were doing it. Asked whether they informed police about it, the officials replied in the negative.

BSF kills 5 Shooting on alleged Indo-Bangla smugglers

From Sakyasen Mittra

CALCUTTA, Dec 5: Five people were shot dead by Border Security Force jawans at a village along Bangladesh-West Bengal border on Friday. The incident took place about 560 kilometres at village Dhaparhat in the Dinakhat Block of Coochbehar.

Among the five is a student who had just passed his class 12 examination. Trouble started when three BSF jawans beat up a cycle van puller Subhas Burman and broke his vehicle, West Bengal police said.

Villagers then surrounded the three BSF men and demanded compensation. At the intervention of some senior villagers the BSF jawans were taken to the local panchayat office at Sukarukothi, two kilometres from the Bangladesh border. Villagers said that they would not be released till a settlement was made.

Meanwhile, after getting information 12 other BSF jawans rushed to the spot and started firing indiscriminately killing Habibur Rahman, 37, Samsul Haq, 27, Bakul Chandra Sen, 19, Rafiqul Islam, 21, and Alif Shaikh, 13, on the spot.

Of the injured condition of Ghulam Mostafa is stated to be serious. Villagers alleged that three BSF jawans also fired on the crowd from the panchayat office.

Rafiqul Islam was shot while he was returning home on his bicycle after attending a tuition session. He was shot in his head and died on the spot.

A BSF spokesman at Calcutta yesterday said, that all those killed were involved in smuggling items across the border. "That village is famous for the entrance of computer software into India from Bangladesh. The smuggled items are then taken to Murshidabad from where they are distributed to different parts of the country. When the BSF jawans challenged a carrier, locals attacked the three. They had no option but to fire."

The state government, however, has ordered a high level enquiry into the matter.

Unocal Bangladesh's chief Terry Budden presented a paper in the seminar.

BNP 'forgets' Democracy Day

By Nazmul Ashraf

December 6, the day general Ershad was forced to quit power, is back again today with yet another major political party that propelled his ouster now allied with the fallen dictator.

This time, Ershad has found a trusted partner in BNP chief Khaleda Zia—who once enjoyed the reputation of being the uncompromising leader in the struggle against his regime—in the fight against the Awami League government of Sheikh Hasina.

In a span of nine years, the nation saw the country's two top political leaders compromising with Ershad who they forced to step aside this day nine years ago and hand over power to a caretaker administration led by the then Chief Justice Shahabuddin Ahmed, now the President.

AL and BNP in alliance with other smaller parties brought an end to the nine-year-long autocracy of Ershad on December 6, 1990.

Ramadan prices for beef, mutton

By Staff Correspondent

Residents will pay between Tk 70 and Tk 80 per kilogram for beef and Tk 120 per kilogram for mutton during Ramadan, a Dhaka City Corporation official announced yesterday.

The decision followed a meeting between Mayor Hanif and the butcher's association. The city fixes the prices during the Holy month to curb profit taking and to crack down on illegal butcher shops.

DCC health officials warned butchers a mobile court will hit the streets shortly, prowling for illegal meat. The court consists of health officials, a veterinarian and a magistrate who has the power to confiscate unauthorised meat.

Under the Municipality Meat Control Act, butchers are forbidden from slaughtering an animal until a veterinarian certifies that it is healthy. A sick animal's meat could cause serious illnesses.

Officials said they believe there are over 300 illegal butchers selling meat that might be contaminated. In the last six months alone, over 500 cases have been filed with the DCC court against illegal butchers.

DCC officials said there are a lot of illegal butchers because there hasn't been an initiative to meet the demand created by the city's growing population.

"Now it's the duty of the teachers, students, politicians and responsible and educated personalities to save the country from further ruin and spreading education and maintaining honest and simple life with high morals," Hasina said.

"If we cannot save the society from such moral degradation, then it will go astray," she said suggesting all to live an honest life.

The PM urged the teachers to show the way and resolve the problems in education sector. And the government, which is very sincere for improving standard of education, will take all possible steps for the development of education.
