Demolition of shaheed minar protested

Members of the New Colony Welfare Association at a rally held in the city yesterday protested the step to build flats for government officials by demolishing a shaheed minar and disrupting the environment for sports and games of the children in the open space in New Colony at Lalmatia, reports BSS.

They urged the Prime Minister to take necessary action against such a step in the greater interest of the residents of the New Colony as well as their children. After the rally, the association president Shafiqul Karim (Sabu) and general secretary Masudul Haq led a procession towards Prime Minister's official residence. Being intercepted by police, the marchers later went to the residence of Alhaj Moqbul Hussain MP who assured them that the government would do nothing against the people's interest.

He also told the association leaders that he would take the issue up to the higher level of the government.
