Hill students protest kidnapping of their leaders
By Staff Correspondent
Pahari Chhatra Parishad and Hill Women's Federation yesterday staged a demonstration on the Dhaka University campus to protest kidnapping of their two leaders.
PCP Central Committee Assistant General Secretary Milton Chakma and his associate Pantu Chakma were kidnapped allegedly by Shantu Larma backed faction on December 9 from Ghagra Bazar at Kawkhali thana in Rangamati Hill District.
To protest this kidnapping, leaders and activists of the PCP and HWF jointly brought out a procession on the campus and later held a rally which was addressed by Kabita Chakma, Benzin Chakma and Milton Chakma. Chhatra Federation president Zonaid Saki also spoke at the rally and expressed solidarity with the PCP and HWF protest.
Addressing the rally, they alleged that Shantu Larma and his associates have betrayed with the Jammu people through signing a 'compromise' agreement with the government.
Leaders further alleged that government planned to destroy the Jammu people by promoting inner conflict among the Jammu people and Shantu Larma clique is cooperating with the government to implement that 'dangerous blueprint'.
They said terrorists belonging to Shantu Larma faction have started killing, kidnapping and repression on agitating Jammu people, who have long been struggling for autonomy in CHT. Kidnapping of Milton and Pantu is part of that conspiracy, they added.
The speakers warned of dire consequences and threatened belittling reply if their kidnapped leaders are not freed immediately. They also blamed the government administration for cooperating with terrorists.
Leaders urged the government and local administration to take immediate step to rescue the kidnapped leaders, otherwise, warned that the administration would have to bear the consequences.
