Wild, Colourful Yet Decent

Tamjid's designer wear show begins

Eminent fashion designer Bibi Russel and Gazi Tamjidul Huda on the inaugural of the exhibition of Tamjids

By Abdus Saboor

AN orange panjabi with sleeves designed in bright blue and the collar embroidered in golden threads: one might think this is a description of a fashion wear from dreams but a visit to Tamjid's fashion wear collection would convince one that it is from reality.

Gazi Tamjidul Huda, the man behind the exhilarating men's wear, has put his designer wears on display at his resident-cum-sales centre, namely Tamjid's, at Monjori, House 2, Road 7, Dhanmondi, Dhaka. Bibi Russel, internationally reputed model and special envoy of UNESCO, inaugurated the exhibition on December 17, 1999. The exhibition will continue throughout the Ramadan.

Supply creates its own demand and Tamjid has been working on this theory for the last five years. At the beginning, his wild and colourful Punjabis and Kurtas were not received well. But Tamjid stuck with its typical style. Today Tamjid's clientele is growing steadily.

"Fashion traditionally is women's preserve. Men should be more conscious about their looks", says an emphatic Tamjid at the inaugural of his exhibition. And truly so, there are many shops and boutiques in the city exclusively for ladies but rarely for men. All these worked at the back of his mind to venture into men's fashion.

Initially for three years, Tamjid concentrated in men's wear only and very recently he has given his creative expression in women's wears also. Behind every man there is a woman. Behind Tamjid is his wife Nurun Nahar Papa, who did her B.F.A. from Institute of Fine Arts, Dhaka University and M.F.A. from Maharaja Baroda University, India in Mural designing. It is Papa who inspired him to venture into this arena.

For the trendy Dhakaites, the prices of the dresses are reasonable. The price range for men's wear is between Tk 500 and Tk 3000 while women's wear the price is between Tk 1800 and 3500.
