Colours Have Their Own Identities History in Black and White

Solo painting exhibition of Maruf Ahmed begins at the Shilpangan

By Abdus Saboor

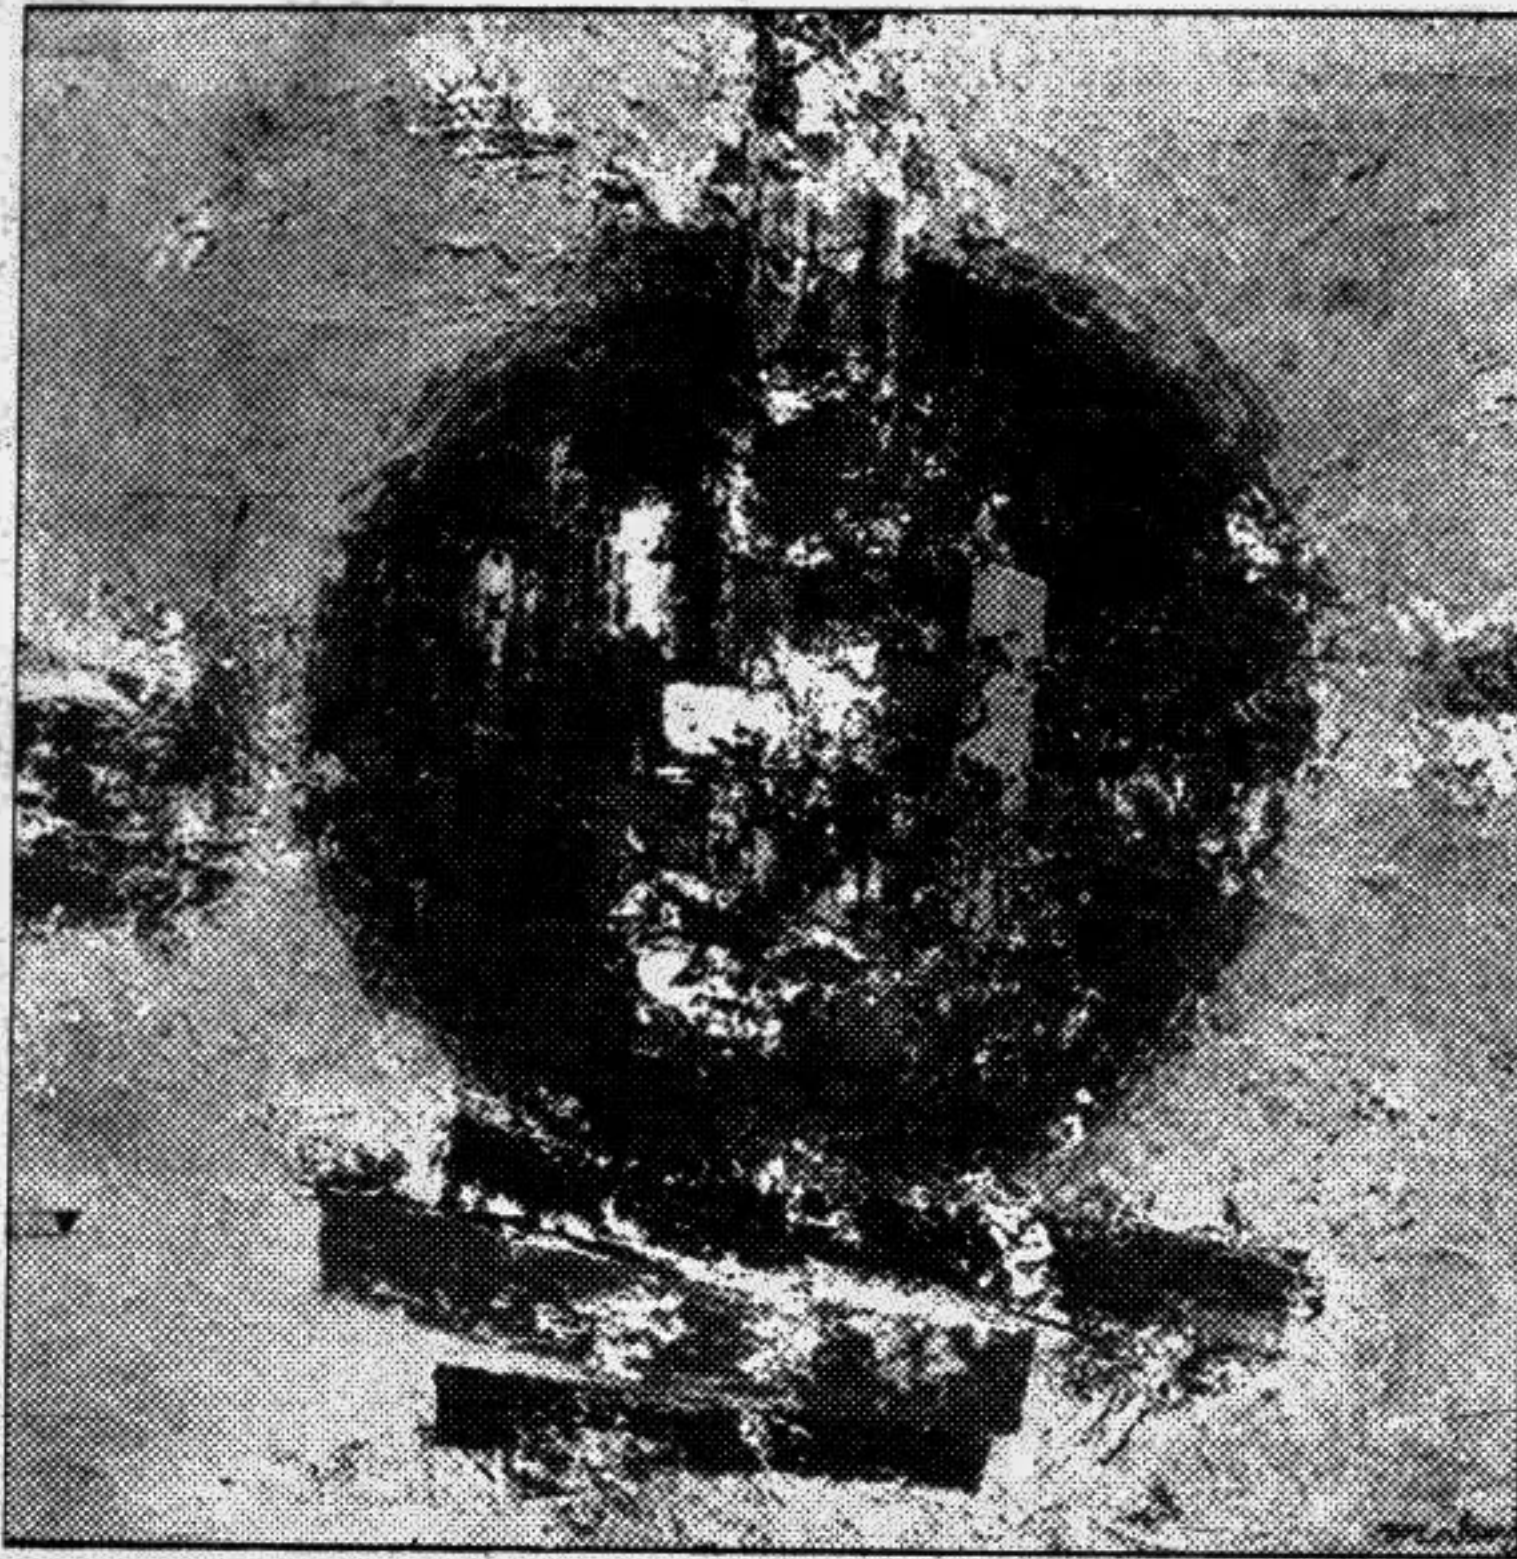

Maruf Ahmed

December 17.

The eight-day long exhibition was inaugurated by Professor Zillur Rahman Siddique. Eminent art critic Mostafa Monwar was present as the chief guest on the occasion.

For the last 23 years Maruf has been living and working in Bonn and Cologne, Germany. A natural adaptation to his European surroundings is vivid in his painting but at the same time he draws his inspiration from his homeland particularly from the scenic beauty of Bangladesh provides the colours of his palette.

All of Maruf's paintings, displayed in the exhibition, are untitled but an absolute mingling of colours makes each canvas different and typical of its own. For example, white is not a mere absence of colours in Maruf's paintings, rather it is a shining and affirmative thing, as fierce as red, as soothing as blue. At the same time, black is not only a fusion of all colours; it is cheerless, depressing, gloomy and marked by anger or sullenness.

In one of Maruf's work blue and black dominate the canvas while a glimpse of red is thriving to penetrate the black circle, as if the time is being eaten up by the darkness of the black-hole. In another painting, there are the few slashes of white, surrounded by deep blue colours. The blue here symbolizes deep pain while the white speaks of sheer optimism.

Born in Mymensingh in 1951, Maruf Ahmed did his B.F.A. from Bangladesh College of Arts and Crafts, Dhaka in 73. In 1976, he was awarded a scholarship from German Academic Exchange Service. Maruf became a member of German Artist's Association in 1985 and after three years he received the highest degree in painting 'Meisterschuler' from Cologne School of art and Design.

Of the previous 37 solo exhibitions of Maruf Ahmed, only few took place at Bangladesh. His major solo exhibitions include Oldenburg in 1976, at Goethe-institute, Boppard in 1978, at Euro-art Gallery, Bonn in 1979, at Tuskulum Gallery, Wiesbaden in 1980, at Gallery of Cologne School of Art and Design, Cologne in 1987, at Galaria Atzavara, Barcelona, Spain in 1989, at Gallery Wieland, Sprockhovel in 1996, at 'Staff Gieben' and the cinema Traumstern Kollektion, Lich in 1998, and many more like these. Besides, Maruf also participated in many group exhibitions such as at a combined exhibition of selected artists from Bonn and Oxford, England, at the Artists Forum, Bonn in 1987, at Cult Gallery, Vienna, Austria and at Kilato Galeria, Budapest, Hungary in 1990.

Since 1979 Maruf has been teaching in Wohnstift Augustinum Art Institute in Bonn and for the last two years he has been a lecturer at the VHS (adult education) in Siegburg.

Maruf also works for Radio Deutsche Welle (Voice of Germany) as a free lance journalist. But the biggest recognition that Maruf remembers fondly came at the age of 12 when he received the President award for the best juvenile artist of Radio East Pakistan in 1963. Prolific Maruf was a newscaster for Bangladesh Television and Radio between 1972 and 76.

Werbedruck Wigge, Essen in 1989 published an art calendar 'Impressions' by Maruf and Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy published a book called 'Maruf' in 1998.

The exhibition will continue till December 24, and will remain open from 10.30 am to 8.00 pm everyday.

THE photo exhibition on the War of Independence at the Zainul Gallery, the cultural programmes on December 16, at different places of the city, Mukti Katha in the Shishu Academy and many such endeavors are definitely praiseworthy and the enthusiasm among the people about the programmes shows the urge that exists among them to know all the details about those epic 9-months struggle. In these long lines of exhibitions, in a small corner of the Fine Arts Institute, a different kind of exhibition was held. The show featured some documents and Situation Reports of the wartime.

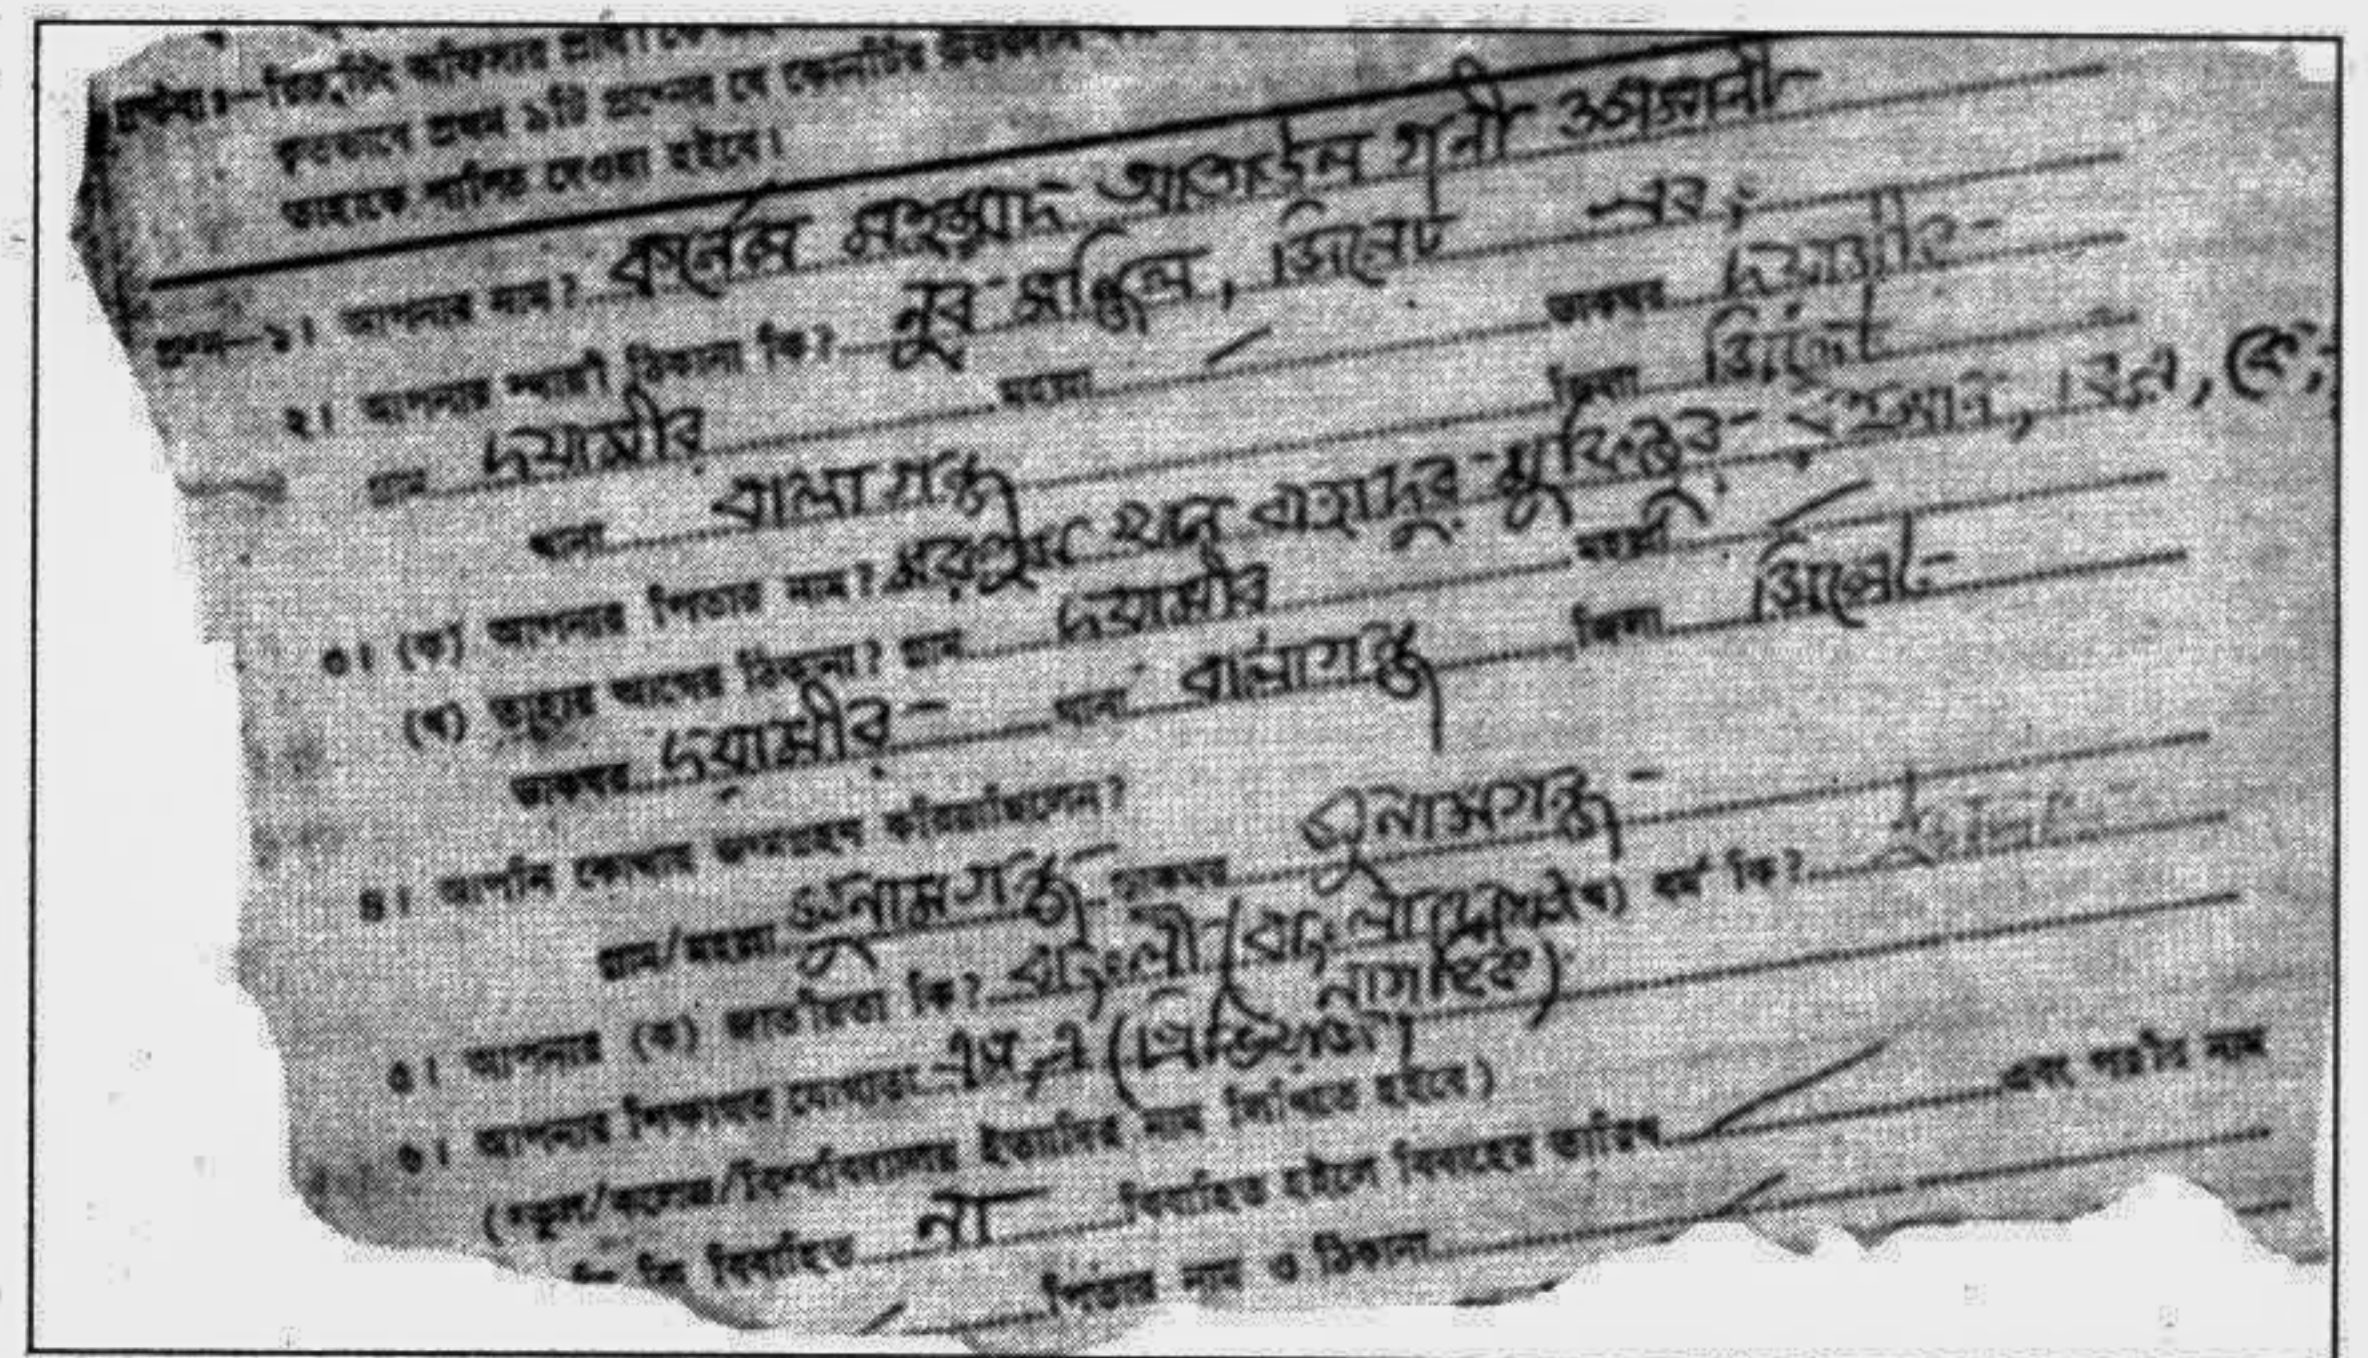

Situation Report or SITREP are the documents, which records the daily activities of Maj (ret) Kamrul Hasan Bhuiyan an army unit during the wartime. The SITREP, which were on display in the exhibition were a collection from a gallant Muktiyoddha of the Sector 2, Major (ret) Kamrul Hasan Bhuiyan.

SITREP records the description of the war and the statistical reports like how much damage has been inflicted on the enemy, the ammunition collected from the enemy and sometimes even the death of a fellow soldier. These reports were sent to different sectors, sub-sectors and of course to the Headquarters on a regular basis.

These SITREP of 1971 had been exhibited for the first time from December 14 to 16. According to the law the SITREP are kept classified for 10 years after the war. These SITREP were theoretically open for the public long time ago but took 27 years to come into focus.

Enrolment document of Col. M A G Osmani

Habibul Alam, another soldier of our Liberation War translated the documents and arranged them for the exhibition with the help of Major (ret) Akhtar Ahmed (Birpratic), Nasiruddin Usuf Bacchu and the members of sector 2.

These SITREPs particularly were made out of the combined reports of the sub-sectors and were sent to the Delta Sector. Delta Sector was made out of the Bangladesh Forces (BDF) or Mukti Bahini in the eastern Bangladesh, namely, sector 1, 2, 3, and 4, which were offi-tor along with a copy to the Echelon Headquarter under the Bangladesh Forces.

Echelon at Agartala controlled administration of all Mukti Bahini units. Lt Col. Abdur Rob the Chief of Staff of Bangladesh Forces headed this HQ.

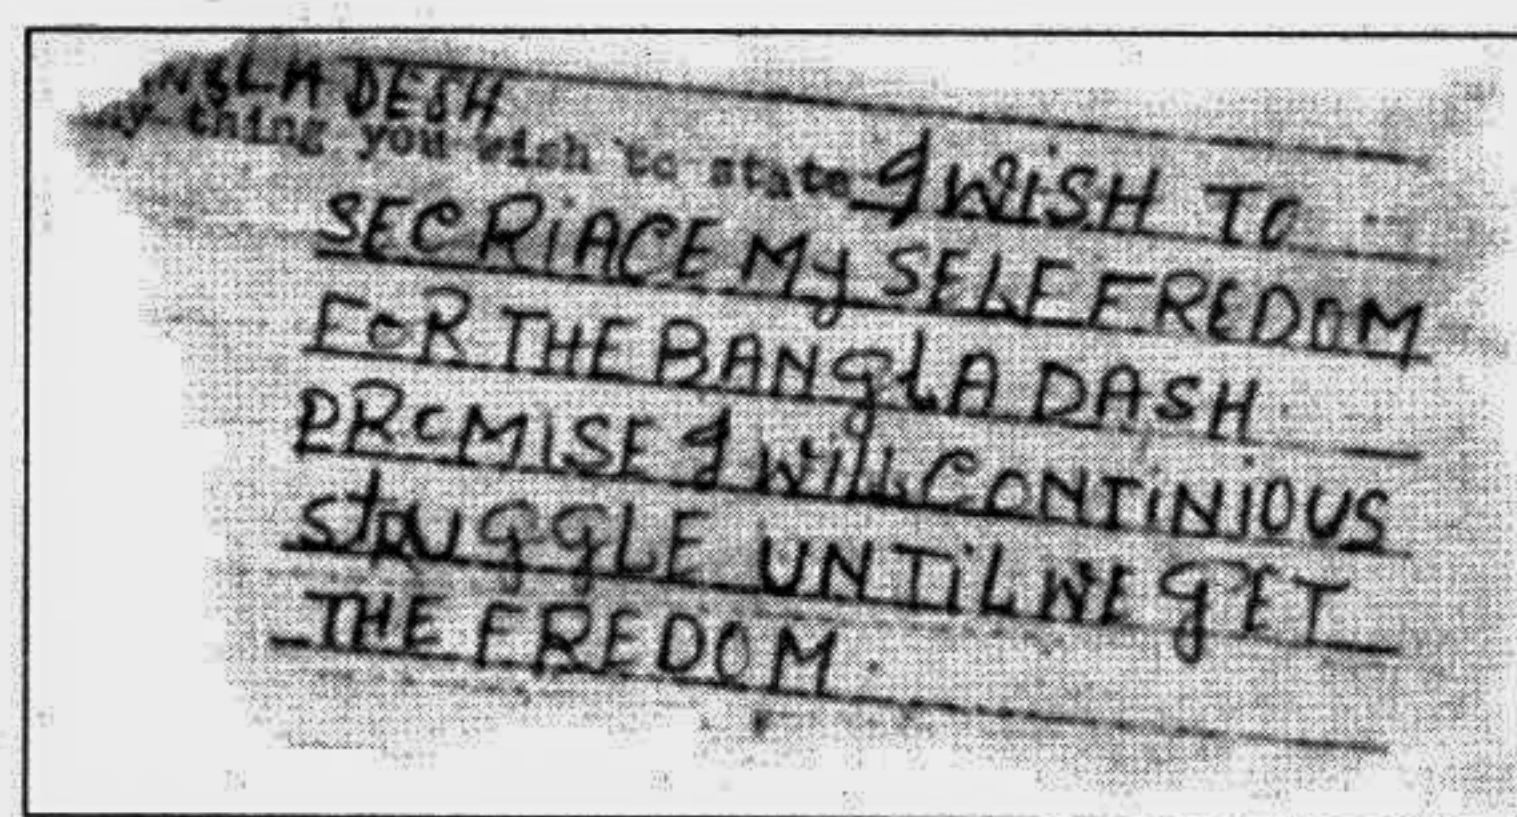

As a soldier of sector 2, Major Kamrul had access to these SITREP but his collection is not only confined to these SITREPs only, his valuable collection also featured letters of the Commander in Chief of the Mukti Juddho, Col. M.A. G. Os-

SELF FREEDOM FOR THE BANGLADESH PROMISE I WILL CONTINUOUS STRUGGLE UNTIL WE GET THE FREEDOM the words were written on an enrolment document of a student of class 9 who was merely a teenage boy from the village. The English is wrong but anyone can feel the spirit of freedom, determination and courage expressed in his writing.

"SITREP will help to avoid many confusions and bring out the facts into light. These SITREPs show the bravery and the endeavor of the Bangladeshi forces that had very little resources but still it brought down the Pakistani Military in a systematic way," said Major Kamrul Hasan Bhuiyan. He added that there had not been much study on the subject and many documents of the liberation war still remain undiscovered, which is a shame and the government must seriously take up steps to do research on the matter.

The SITREPs and the other documents reveal the facts, which do not leave any space for imagination, instead these highlights, the truth about our brave fighters, who fought for our freedom and our country of which we are the proud citizens. As proud Bangladeshis it is our duty to learn and preserve the facts.

Most importantly these documents will tell the truth to the future generations.

cially named, D1, D2, D3, D4 respectively. The Delta Sector Headquarter at Agartala provided logistical and operational support for the different units. Delta Sector was commanded by Brigadier Sabeg Singh of the Indian Army. All SITREPs from the sectors were sent to the control room of the Delta Sec-man, a few enrolment documents, some photographs of the Bishramganj Hospital, where Tulu and Lulu, two daughters of Begum Sufia Kamal worked as voluntary nurses during the war along with a few other brave ladies and many such documents.
