Mugger succumbs to his injuries in city

By Staff Correspondent An alleged mugger, who was caught red-handed and beaten up while robbing rickshaw passengers at Sutrapur in the Old City on Thursday night, succumbed to his injuries at the Orthopaedic Hospital on Friday

The dead was identified as Babu alias Babul, 25, son of Jahan Munsi, a resident of Golapbagh in city's Demra area, police and hospital sources said.

According to sources, brandishing firearms Babu along with his two accomplices intercepted a rickshaw inside an alley near S K Das Lane in city's Sutrapur area at about 9 pm Thursday.

The rickshaw passengers cried for help when the muggers were fleeing the scene after robbing money and valuables. Local residents chased the muggers and caught Babu while his accomplices somehow managed to escape.

A revolver loaded with three rounds of bullet were recovered from Babu's possession. Local residents beat him up mercilessly until police rescued him. Babu was immediately rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH), but he was shifted to Orthopaedic Hospital. He succumbed to his injuries there at about 5 am Friday, sources said.

The body was sent to DMCH morgue for autopsy.

None, however, was arrested in connection with the incident till last night. Three cases, including a murder case and a firearms case were filed with Sutrapur thana in this regard.

Six BCL activists ousted from DU hall

Six activists of ruling party-backed Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) were ousted from the Salimullah Hall of Dhaka University by their rivals in the early hours yesterday over a despute on collection of toll.

The ousted were identified as Iman (room no 131), Sayem (room no 134), Razan (room no 142). Ahsan (room no 128). Mizan (room no 137) and Babla (room no 142).

By DU Correspondent

Sources at the hall said that Dolar and Reza who allegedly extorted money and food from businessmen of Palashi markets to celebrate the new millennium compelled them to leave the hall at about 4 am following a fight over toll collection. Sources also said that the supporters of Dolar and Reza were creating pressure on the businessmen of the market to give a statement taying that money had not been taken from

The ousted students complained to the hall provost who assured them of taking neces-sary steps to take them back to the hall and of action against the culprits.

The ousted had not been able to return until last night, in-
