Writers from Two Bengals Congregate

A Two-day long Bangladesh Writers' Convention ends at the Bangladesh Writers Club

By Abdus Saboor

B Club arranged a two-day long writers' convention at its club premises, so that the writers from two Bengals get involved in an effective dialogue to exchange their

The convention began on December 31, the last day of the second millennium, and ended on January 1, the first day of the third millennium.

The inauguration ceremony began at 9.30 am on December 31 with a rally of the writers starting from the club premises and ending at the Central Shahid Minar. Eminent poet 'Kabishreshtha' Shamsur Rahman inaugurated the ceremony at 10.30 am.

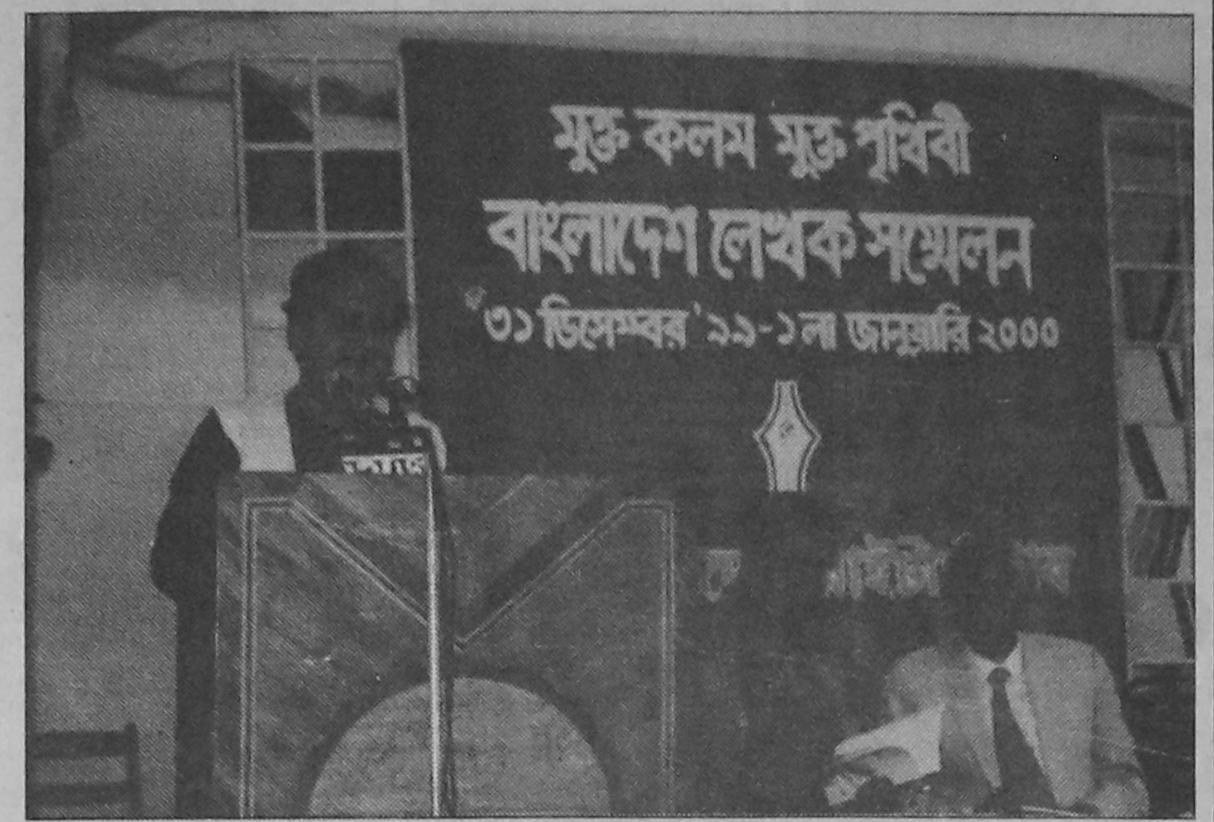

Poet Mohon Raihan delivered the welcome speech while Hayat Saif put forward the proposal of the convention. The main proposal of this year's convention was 'Free pen free world.' The general secretary of the Writers Club and the convener of the meet, Muhammad Nurul Huda, in his speech said that the convention is a moment of glory for all the contemporary writers of Bangladesh. Secretary to the ministry of Cultural Affairs Muhammad Azizur Rahman and the sponsor of the convention Ragib Ali were also present as the special guests on the in-ANGLADESH Writers augural session. Finance Minister Shah M S Kibria was present as the chief guest. The session was presided over by the president of Bangladesh Writers Club, Rahat Khan and was conducted by Asad Mannan.

> From the very beginning Bangladesh Writers Club is trying to establish a communication between creative writers. And also aims to present a platform to the writers to air their ideas and initiate free flow of information between the cul-

> The highlight of this year's convention is surely the participation of eight top-ranking writers and poets from West Bengal, Among them, the most prominent is no doubt Shyamol Gangapdhyaya.
