Lara's appeal to WI supporters

NAPIER, Jan 6: West Indies captain Brian Lara appealed to the cricket fans of the Caribbean to be patient after his team lost the third one-day international .- and the fivematch series - against New Zealand today, reports Reuters. His young side have now lost the Test series 2 0 and the oneday series and Lara said the run of defeats had had a "terrible" effect on the team. "People in the Caribbean have a right to be angry, but they are going to have to be patient because rebuilding West Indian cricket is going to take time." Lara said.

'We've been trying to do all the right things here. We knew it was going to be tough, but the guys in the team have got to believe in themselves and work as individuals on their confidence."

Gillespie set to return

ADELAIDE, Jan 6: Jason Gillespie, who broke his leg in a collision with Australian skipper Steve Waugh during a Test against Sri Lanka last year, is set to make a comeback to grade cricket with club team Adelaide this weekend, reports AP.

The 24-year-old fast bowler underwent surgery for a broken tibia after the sickening collision with Waugh, who required surgery for facial injuries, while both players were fielding against Sri Lanka. The South Australian Cricket Association on Thursday said Gillespie had recovered at a faster rate than expected and was likely to be selected as a batsman for Adelaide.

The former international has not played since September and is not expected to return to bowling for a few weeks.

Lee is clean

SYDNEY, Jan 6: Hosts Australia won a point over India and Pakistan ahead of the oneday series when their pace sensation Brett Lee's bowling action was cleared on Thursday, reports AFP.

Sri Lankan match referee Ranjan Madugalle passed the 23-year-old tearaway's action after watching him in slow motion along with the umpires for the third Test against India which ended on Tuesday.

"There is nothing to report, its okay," Madugalle said as he left for home after supervising the three-Test series against both Pakistan and India this

Madugalle will be replaced by West Indian Cammie Smith for the triangular one-day series starting in Brisbane on Sunday. The decision on Lee came after his main rival for the world's fastest bowler, Pakistani speedster Shoaib Akhtar, was thrown out of the upcoming series because of a suspect ac-

The judgement overruled India's suspicions that Lee, like Shoaib, bent his arm while delivering his faster delivery.

Lewis-Grant bout Apr 29

NEW YORK, Jan 6: Lennox Lewis agreed Wednesday to defend his undisputed heavyweight championship against Michael Grant on April 29, a spokesman for his US promoter Main Events said, reports Reuters.

Although the site for Lewis' first defence of the title he won by beating Evander Holyfield in November has not been set, it likely will be Madison Square Garden, said Donald Tremblay, a spokesman for Main Events.

Ganz guns Lazio down

5: Maurizio Ganz made an unforgettable debut for Venezia here on Wednesday night, scoring one and making the other as his relegation strugglers shocked Italian league leaders Lazio 2-0. reports AFP. Ganz, who joined from reigning champions AC Milan over Christmas, slid the ball home after a centre from his new strike partner Filippo Maniero in the 18th minute. And he returned the favour in the 57th, providing a lob into the middle which Maniero headed home to earn three precious points for a team who had started the match second from bottom in the table. Lazio, beaten only once before in their 14 previous league games this season - a humbling 4-1 derby defeat to AS Roma were unrecognisable from the side who had terrorised the Serie A before the festive fort-Slow moving forward and

The highly-embarassing defeat for Lazio means that title rivals Juventus, currently two points behind, can now overtake them at the top of Italian football when they host midtable Verona on Thursday. Lazio coach Sven Goran Eriksson blamed the icy pitch for the New Year debacle.

Eriksson did a better job of defending his men against the critics after a lacklustre display by his South Americans -striker Marcelo Salas and midfielders Juan Sebastian Veron and Nestor Sensini. "I hope that it's all down to the pitch being frozen," the Swedish coach told reporters. "We were moving the ball around too much and in the second half we were 2-0 down almost straight away. "And after that, there was nothing we could do," he said.

As for his Latin American contingent, he said: "I don't think they played any worse than the others. Salas had a chance to score, but he wasted Goalkeeper Luca Marchegiani blamed the pitch too, but hinted that the festive lay-off may also have caused his team's poor display. "We just couldn't stay on our feet." he said. "But tiredness also set in and that was a factor. We tried everything in the first

She received massage treatment to her lower back and had obvious difficulty in stretching for the ball, but she eventually settled and looked more at ease as the second set progressed.

Leading 3-2 with a break, Tanasugarn resisted three break points as the next game went to deuce eight times, and when she broke again to lead 5-

Because of Nagyova's injury. the Slovak Republic defaulted the mixed doubles, giving Thailand a 3-0 victory. If the Slovak Republic are unable to play their final match of the round-robin on Friday, Australia will instead face Japan, who lost the qualifying round to Thailand.

The round-robin event consists of two groups, and each team plays three times to determine who will contest Saturday's final. Group A contains South Africa, the United States, Belgium and Sweden. Group B is made up of Australia, the Slovak Republic, Austria and Thaiaccolade in the New Year as Italy's busiest club on the transfer market during the festive season, reports AFP. Top of their list was Dutch midfielder Clarence Seedorf, who had been followed by coach Marcello Lippi since the summer and who has now joined from Real Madrid for around 24 million dollars.

Lippi expects him to do the kind of job which Zinedine Zidane performed when the Italian coach was at Juventus -breaking down defences for the two strikers, in this case Christian Vieri and Chilean Ivan Zamorano.

"I'm not interested in rankings, and whether he is the best or one of the best in that role in the world," Lippi said.

"What I know is that he is technically very gifted and he combines that with speed and agility, the ability to push forward and to break through, and to exchange passes. And it's all done with real quality."

Two other new recruits at the northern club are Colombian defender Ivan Cordoba, from Argentina's San Lorenzo Almagro. and Romanian striker Adrian Mutu, previously at Dynamo Bucharest.

Nigerian defender Taribo West has meanwhile crossed town to join AC Milan and French midfielder Ousmanc Dabo has left to team up with compatriots Lilian Thuram and Alain Boghossian at Parma.

However, for many Italian soccer fans the biggest splash is vet to come -- when Roberto Baggio makes a widely-speculated departure from Inter. Reports link him with clubs from all around the world. Neighbours and reigning Se-rie A champions AC Milan have also strengthened their squad for the New Year, signing José Mari from Atletico Madrid for about 21 million dollars.

The Spanish striker is being seen as an alternative to either Brazil's Leonardo or Liberian George Weah, both prone to injury, in an attack led by Germany's Oliver Bierhoff and Andriv Ukrainian Shevchenko.

League leaders Lazio have drafted in former Middlesbrough and Juventus striker Fabrizio Ravanelli frem Olympique Marseille to add more nunch in domestic competition. The Silver Fox is cup-tied in Europe, having already turned out for Marseille in the Champions League this season.

Sergio Cragnotti's club are meanwhile linked with Barcelona's new Golden Ball winner Rivaldo of Brazil, realistically though for next sea-
