Millennium Art Wear

Millennium Eid fashion exhibition by Karuj ends at WVA auditorium

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

To celebrate the new Millennium Karuj presented a new line of clothing at a four-day long exhibition which ended at the WVA auditorium on January 3. The exhibition showcased designer Kawser Mahmud's collection titled Millennium Eid Art Wear.

For men Eid and pajabi are synonymous. Karuj, the fashion house well known for its Pan-jabis, presented something special for this Eid. Traditionally black is never a colour for panjabis but Karuj has almost made it so. Their collection of black panjabis with white and silver block print, hand paint and machine embroidery on them have the air of elegance and touch of care.

There is also a white collection with white and silver thread and blocks on them. The main attraction of the collection is the intricate design on the neck, that give them a glamorous look. Priced between 550 and 750 takas, the panjabis are quite affordable.

The dyed first and then embroidered with jute threads, the cotton and silk panjabis are absolutely fabulous. Some of them also come with mufflers with matching design on them. Known as zhuri panjabi the prices of some of these exclusive items are between 1000 and 2000 takas.

Karuj also presented some gorgeous Kotis at the exhibition. Using some heavy fabrics like Khadder and Makhmal, karuj gave the Kotis a contemporary look. These Kotis will make fantastic winter wears as the white triangular shapes on local Tant makes them very attractive.

A select number of saris and salwa-kameezes were also on display at the exhibition. Rich with block print these women's wears also add to the beauty of this well-organized exhibition. The salwar-kameezes were mostly hand painted.

The exhibition all in all was very attractive and the price ranges were also quite reasonable, within the reach of ordinary people.

For the Eid Karuj is putting up a special exhibition at the Karuj Outlet, which has started on January 5 and will continue till chand raat. Karuj is also exhibiting in Sylhet and Chandpur since January 5.

Dialogue on Islam: An Insight into The Spirit of The Religion

Professor Harunur Rashid's latest book holds the essence of Islam within the two covers

By Cultural Correspondent

PROFESSOR Mohammad Harunur Rashid is one of our most gifted critic and essayist. His columns in the newsweekly Dhaka Courier has been a treat for the readers. His recent book Dialogue on Islam presents in dialogue form some of the excellent expositions of Islam as a faith by the distinguished spiritual leader Syed Rashid Ahmed Jaunpuri. The dialogue form in which his teaching has been recorded dates back to the age of Plato. The Greek philosopher Plato who expounded the philosophy of his master Socrates in his dialogues that are among the finest literature in the world.

The names in the dialogues of the book are fictitious, but the Huzur of the dialogues is Syed Rashid Ahmed Jaunpuri the spiritual leader himself.

Jaunpuri, writes Harunur Rashid, practices what he preaches and he preaches what the Prophet (pbuh) of Islam stood for. He earns his own living and refuses to depend on the charity of his admirers and followers. In our time when spiritual leaders are mostly phoney Jaunpuri is an exception.

Tracing his family background Rashid writes, "he is a grandson of Shah Keramat Ali Jaunpuri (ra) whose lineage is traced back to Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (ra), the first Khalifa of Islam. From his father's side he traces his lineage to Hazrat Ali (ra), the fourth Khalifa of Islam."

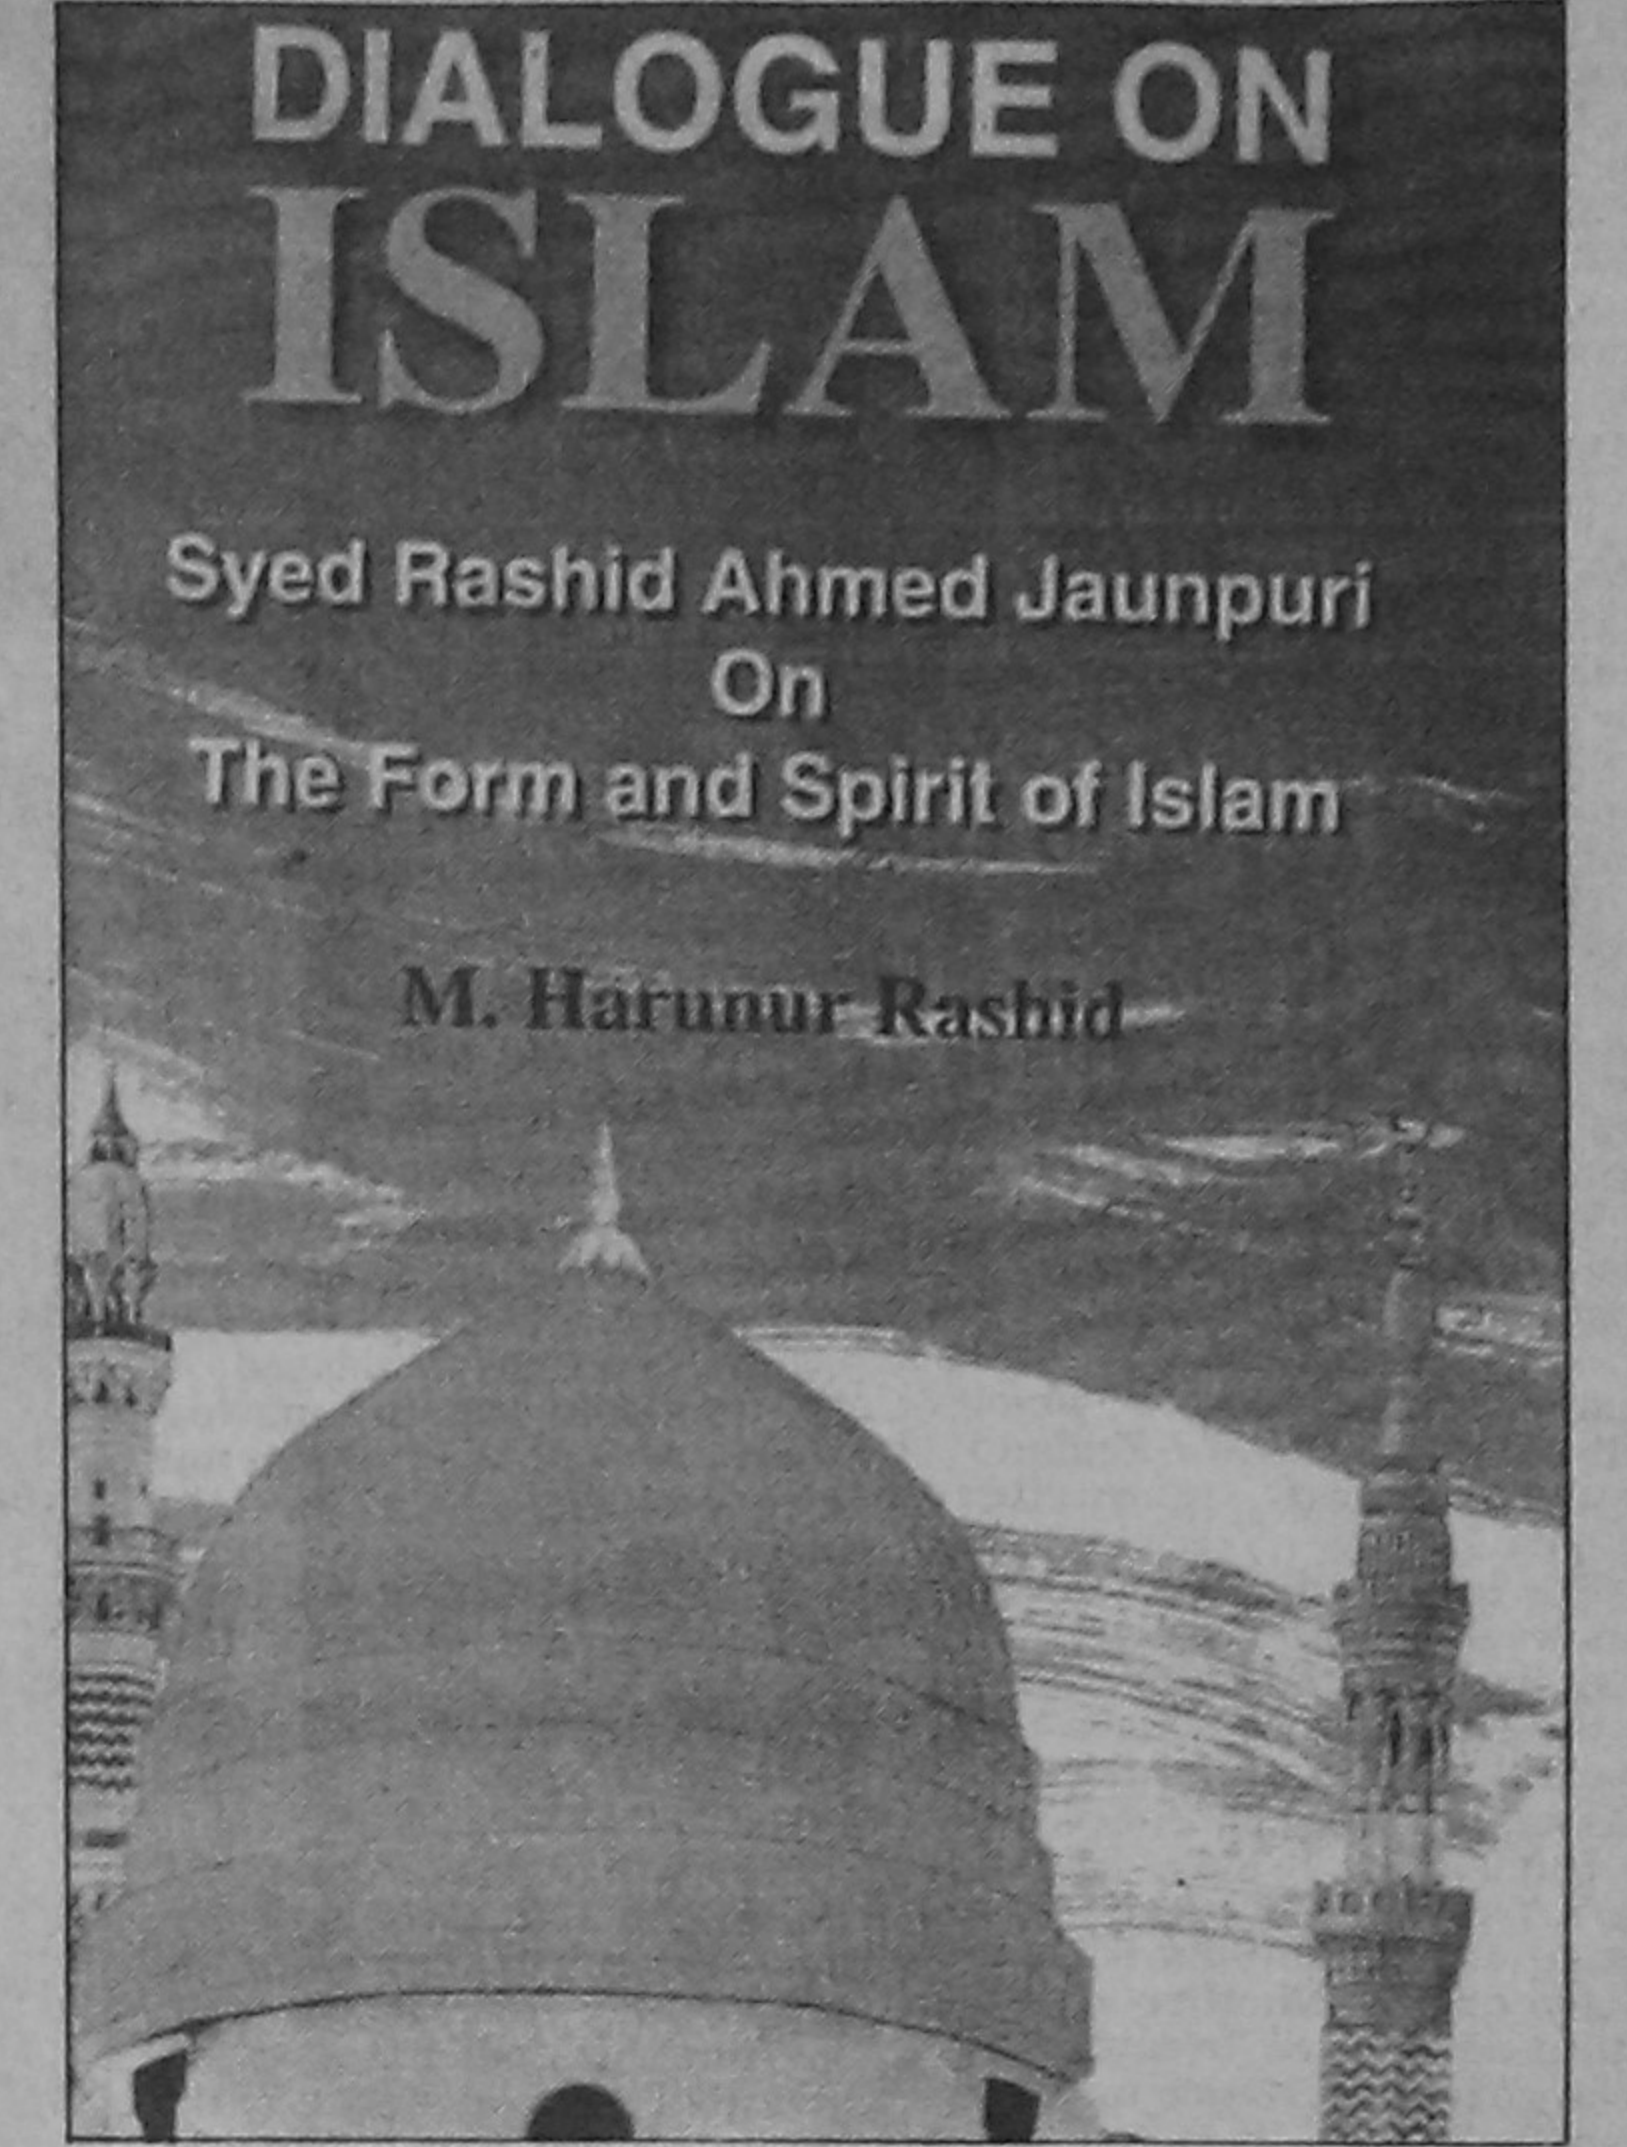

Now 110 Jaunpuri speaks before the Friday congregation at a mosque he has founded at Mirpur, Dhaka. An impressive orator, Jaunpuri brings before his listeners the spirit of Islam, sometimes mercilessly lashing at the lapses which have caused a chasm between the essence of Islam and the present generation of Muslims who claims to be his followers.

Sayed Rashid Ahmed Jaunpuri contents that Islam stands on the simple believe in the truthfulness of the Prophet of Islam. For a Muslim Allah exists because he has put his faith in the words of Prophet Moammed (pbuh) who stated, "There is no God but Allah and Mohammed is his messenger" this believe is the fundamental principle of Islam. The holy Quran as a book of revelation too is dependent upon the veracity of the Prophet's claim that it is Divine Revelation.

All in all Dialogue on Islam is a volume to guide us into the understanding of one of the world's greatest faiths.
