Business leaders have identified non-availability of term loan and working capital from banks, high rate of bank interests on loan, expensive port, huge miscellaneous expenses and slow implementation of the government's policies as major hurdles to industrialisation, reports BSS.

The newly elected executives of Dhaka Chamber of Commerce and Industry (DCCI) led by its president Aftab Ul. Islam vesterday called on Industries Minister Tofail Ahmed at his

During the meet the business leaders expressed their views on the issue and urged the government to take appropriate mea-sures to give a big push to the industrialisation process. The business leaders, however, appreciated the government for framing a number of trade and investment friendly policies, including industrial policy, export-import policy, reshaping import tariff structure for raw materials and finished products, revival of sick industries and entrepreneurs confidence building activities.

They also appreciated the government's role in the Seattle WTO conference for deriving maximum benefit to exports of Bangladesh as well as least developed countries. They said attracting FDI would be easier if even competition with the local entrepreneurs could expand their enterprises. They requested the minister to take initiatives to establish political consensus for creating an enabling environment for industrialisation and trade.

Welcoming their suggestions, the minister said local products should be competitive to sustain in local and foreign markets. He said production cost should be reduced and additional expenditure outside the enterprise should be discour-

He said government is considering giving special incentives to the local entrepreneurs through fiscal and non-fiscal means. He said Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina is very keen to develop an agro-based industry sector. He said, government would also consider bank interest rate if it is higher in comparison to countries in compe-

He said that the BNP government had not look into the interest of local industries. So, local products had to face uncheap imported products in the early nineties. He said developed countries like European Union. Japan, USA are still using various tariff and nontariff measures as projectionist purposes for their local pur-

Hinting at some new policy decisions to be taken very soon, the minister said the government would do everything so that entrepreneurs could produce cost-effective products.

He said we are working very hard under the leadership of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina to develop overall infrastructure to make good availability of gas, electricity, telecom and port facilities right on demand.

Regarding political consensus, the minister said, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, has shown her sincerity for dialogue. He said we can discuss the issues in parliament and work on the basis of consensus.

He said the government is continuing its efforts to establish consensus especially on economic agenda. He said countries those are now economically developed were able to separate economic activities from political agenda. He said we are also pursuing that policy to realise our prospects. Industries secretary KM Ijazul Haq was also present at the meeting.

Bangladesh community in Paris celebrates Eid-ul-Fitr

The Bangladesh community in Paris celebrated Eid-ul-Fitr on Saturday last with religious fervour and due solemnity, according to a message received here, reports BSS.

The main Eid congregation was held at the Grand Mosque of Paris in the morning. Bangladesh Ambassador Syed Muazzem Ali, along with other OIC ambassadors, offered Eid prayers at the Grand Mosque. Most of the Bangladesh community members also offered their prayers at the Grand Mosque which was attended by some 15 thousand Muslims from various countries. In the evening, Bangladesh Ambassador and Mrs Syed Muazzem Ali hosted an Eid reception for the Bangladesh community at the Ambassador's residence. A large number of Bangladesh nationals who live in and around Paris including president and office bearers of local Awami League chapter and other parties and cultural bodies attended the reception.

WHO team, Selim discuss various programmes

A delegation of the World Health Organisation (WHO) led by its Bangladesh representative Dr Hardjo Tanejo called on Health and Family Welfare Minister Sheikh Fazlul Karim Selim yesterday, reports BSS. During the meeting they discussed different programmes taken by WHO to develop the health sector of Bangladesh. The members of the delegation assured the minister of their technical and other cooperation to develop the Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University as one of the best medical centres of the country. They also assured of all modern training facilities to the university to create efficient physicians.

. The delegation stressed the need for bringing all children below five under the extended programme of immunization (EPI) by December 2000.

The delegation also appreciated the programmes undertaken by the government to eradicate arsenic problem from the country and assured further cooperation from the organisa-

Islam fastest growing faith in US: Clinton

WASHINGTON, Jan 11: President Bill Clinton has said that Washington's policy of fighting terrorism is directed at actions of individuals and groups indulging in violence and not Islam, the fastest growing religion in the United States, re-

"Our policies are guided by our profound respect for Islam. The Muslim religion is the fastest-growing faith in the United States (the number of Muslims in the US is put at 5 to 6 million)," Clinton said in a report to the US Congress on

"We recognise and honour Islam's role as a source of inspiration, instruction and moral guidance for hundreds of millions of people around the world. US policy in the (Mid East-South Asia) region is directed at the actions of governments and terrorist groups, not peoples or faiths."

This year, not only the president but also the vice president issued an Eid Day message, in what analysts said was an indication of the importance the administration attaches to the growing popularity of Islam.
