Leicester, Trenmare in semis

LONDON, Jan 13: Leicester City beat Division One side Ful ham 3-0 on penalties after drawing 3-3 after extra time in the League Cup quarter final match at Filbert Street on Wednesday. reports AFP.

The teams were tied at 2-2 in normal time with Paul Peschisolido and Geoff Horsfield giving the visitors a half time

But the Premiership side fought back scoring twice in the last five minutes through Ian Marshall and Steve Walsh to send the tie into extra time.

Chris Coleman looked to have sealed it for Fulham after 93 minutes but Marshall scored his second with nine minutes to go to level the scores. Fulham failed to score from

AFP FOOTBALL BRIEFS

BRASILIA, Jan 13: Brazil have a perfectly legitimate claim to staging the 2006 World Cup, FIFA president Sepp Blatter said Wednesday.

Blatter spoke following talks with Brazilian President Fernando Henrique Cardoso and discussed Brazil's claim to the tournament, although the FIFA head has already revealed he is backing South Africa ahead of the Brazilians, England, Germany and Morocco.

FIFA inspectors arrive on Friday to assess the technical merit of Brazil's claim.

Blatter also thanked Cardoso for Brazilian hospitality for this month's inaugural World Club Championship.

Friday's all-Brazilian final sees Vasco da Gama take on Corinthians.

Premiership Chelsea owe George one

LONDON, Jan 13: New signing George Weah came off the bench to score a dramatic late winner three minutes from time as Chelsea beat Tottenham 1-0 at Stamford Bridge on Wednesday, reports AFP.

The Liberian international, on loan from Italian giants AC Milan until the end of the season, inspired Chelsea after making a 57th-minute entry from the bench along with 10-millionpound (16-million-dollar) sign ing Chris Sutton.

Frenchman Bernard Lambourde put Dennis Wise away down the right to send over a perfect cross and the 33-year-old Weah outjumped Stephen Carr and Chris Perry to plant his header wide of keeper lan Walker.

Victory takes Chelsea above Tottenham into sixth place in the Premiership on 35 points, one ahead of their North London neighbours. Chelsea manager Gianluca Vialli was beaming after the game and praised Weah for his valuable contribution. "It was the best possible start for himself and for the team. "He is such a great player, very experienced, and he has a point to make to show he is still one of the best strikers in the world and that Milan were wrong to let him go," Vialli said.
