Solo painting exhibition by Salma Kaniz Ahmed starts at Zainul Art Gallery

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

A tea-garden, a woman picking up tea leaves and there is a beautiful row of hills behind her - though this is only a description of an oil painting titled 'Tea Garden' displayed at the Zainul Art Gallery, yet the exhibit comes vivid and alive through the canvas of Salma Kaniz Ahmed.

Salma Kaniz Ahmed began her first solo painting exhibition titled 'Expressions' at the Zainul Art Gallery, Institute of Fine Arts yesterday. Honorable Minister for water resources Abdur Razzaque inaugurated the exhibition as the chief guest.

Salma Kaniz Ahmed
Though she was once distracted from art and moved away several times, Kaniz's love for art has brought her back to pallets time and again. Staying abroad for a long time did not keep her away from her instinctive passion. Kaniz finished her MFA from the Institute of Fine Arts in 1991. After that she moved to United States for the second time.

According to Kaniz, staying abroad for a long time has made her nostalgic and this nostalgia is expressed through a series of paintings. These paintings are not only memories but memories associated with events. And the very fact of having her first solo painting exhibition at the Zainul Art Gallery, Institute of Fine Arts is also a part of this expression.

Kaniz's work proves a lot of her words. She basically works with three kinds of subject - still life, landscapes and various forms of people and animals. Mostly her works are in oil on canvas and chalk pastels. She expressed the landscapes of Bangladesh in most of the works, where she frequently used green. In her landscapes we find boat, cart, even the girl plucking tealeaves. Though her subjects are common the work is done differently, in semi-abstract way. Her specialty lies in breaking her subjects and backgrounds in different geometrical shapes with bold outlines.

She used fade and vague colours in her pieces depicting rural lives of Bangladesh, like mother holding her child, a lady bringing water with earthen pitcher and hair dressing of a village woman.

The use of bright and shiny colours are observed in her other works where she used golden and silvery sheen expressing underwater fish, butterfly, flowers and many others. She used yellow, green and red in these works. Kaniz has extensively used the Gesso techniques in her work.

Kaniz picked her subjects from nature and people of Bangladesh. It proves her love for the country and also art. She believes expressions are spontaneous and not restricted by colour and geometry and on the other hand she also wants to express herself to her viewers. She feels that her exhibition has fulfilled this dual feeling.

Kaniz's exhibition will remain open till January 19, from 2 pm to 8 pm.
