

The Beauty of Nature

Sixth solo painting exhibition by Apurba Ranjan Biswas starts at the Alliance Francaise de Dhaka

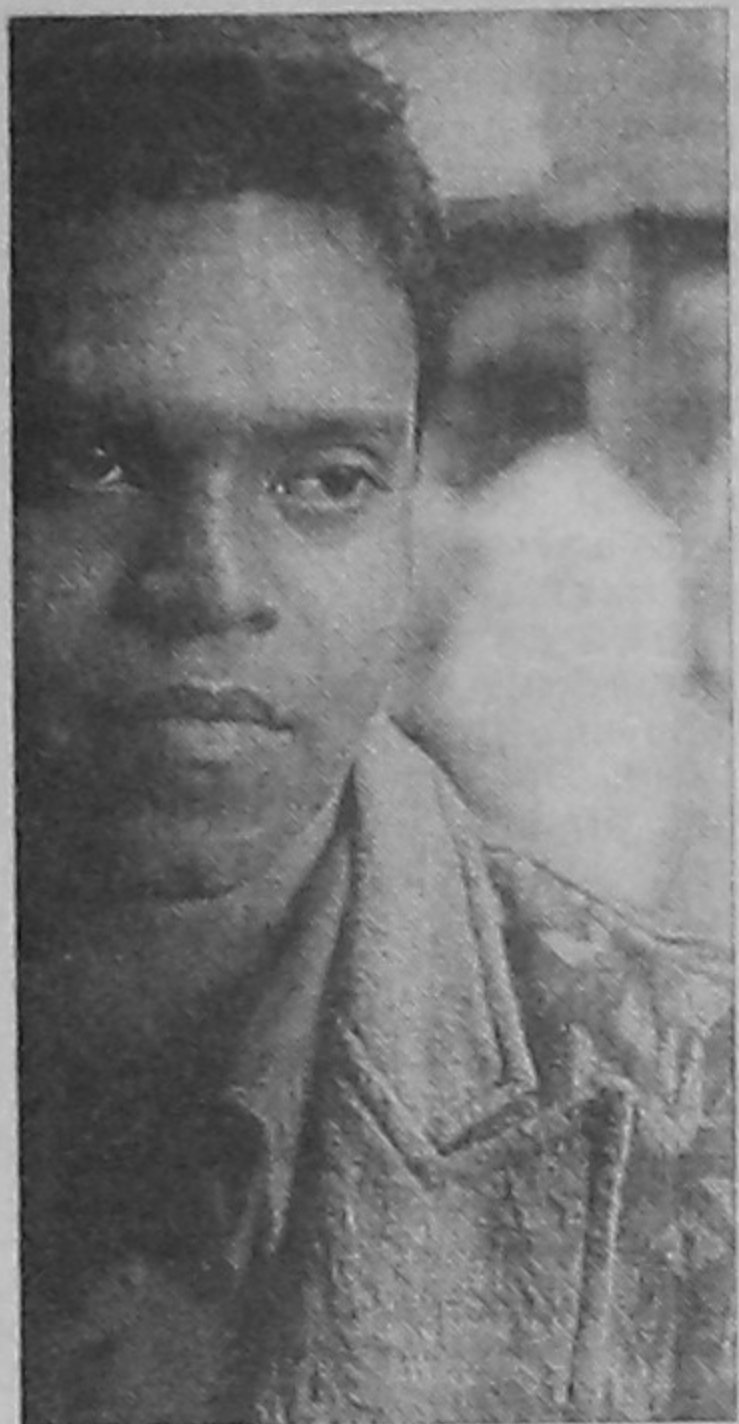

By Nafid Imran Ahmed

KEATS said, 'A thing of beauty is a joy forever,' and there is no doubt that the biggest beauty of this universe is offered by our mother nature. The beauty of nature comes to us most vividly when Apurba Ranjan Biswas starts his solo painting exhibition at the Alliance Francaise de Dhaka.

The exhibition titled Mother Nature started on January 16. Professor Rafiqun Nabi inaugurated the exhibition as the chief guest. France Lasnier, director of Alliance Francaise de Dhaka was also present as the special guest at the inaugural ceremony. In her speech she said, "This exhibition is jointly hosted with Alliance Francaise de Chittagong. The exhibition will no doubt enhance the awareness of the general public on the up and coming talents in Bangladeshi art arena.

"I did not know him," said Professor Rafiqun Nabi, "he is from Chittagong. He was first introduced by some famous artists and teachers from Chittagong. After I saw his work I was amazed. The delectation of his work is that he works with one type of detailing - small objects done by strokes or sketches, very hard to manage, but beautiful."

Apurba's works are very different from others. He bravely experimented with his works. May be the change occurs with the regional difference. His works give a feel that he is in the trend of breaking the old barrier and come out with something new. Apurba details in his works with small objects. Shapes of houses, trees, geometrical forms, human figures and many other things are used frequently with multiple colours. Though he uses Blue constantly. His landscapes picture villages with trees, ponds and paddy fields as if they were all drawn by sitting on the hilltops.

Apurba works in three types of media - oil, water colour and acrylic. He uses all the bright colours in detailing his works. He also did some works in simple Black and White. A group of cattle - a black and white piece by Apurba. Done with small details of brush strokes. The work seems like the colours are spreading out from inside.

Apurba finished his MFA from the Government Art College, Chittagong. A man living so close to the nature is always inspired by it. Apurba loves to play with colours and decorate the nature that he creates in his canvases.

The exhibition will remain open to all from 3 p.m to 8 p.m. till January 20.

New Drama Serial Shabuj Chhaya on BTV

By Cultural Correspondent

AFTER the grand success of the TV serial Shabuj Shathi that was telecast to create social awareness through entertainment, a new TV serial Shabuj Chhaya, aimed at creating mass interest in availing health and family planning services, has been developed. With the call for action 'Let's avail health service for our own sake...' Shabuj Chhaya is going to be aired from 21 January 2000 on BTV on each Fridays after the 8 O'clock Bangla News.

The drama is written and directed by the popular playwright Humayun Ahmed and the key performers are Asaduzzaman Noor, Abul Khair, Amirul Haq Chowdhury, Abdul Kader, Shanta Islam, Saleh Ahmed, Nazma Anwar, Mozammel Hossain, Zahid Hassan, Mahfuz Ahmed, Meher Afroze Shaon, Dr Abdul Karim, Dulal and Humayun Faridi.

The serial Shabuj Chhaya has been developed in the backdrop of a village called Shukhanpukur. The drama depicts all the aspects of human emotion, it tells about the vision, mission, happiness and disappointment as well as hope of the people presently involved in the health facilities and health services in Bangladesh. It also carries vivid stories of the family life, health, happiness, dreams of the villagers.

The central character is one middle aged but ever youthful

and dedicated doctor Jalal. Under his guidance people see the light of hope. Mothers, children and even the seniors nor dream of 'La dolce vita'. There is a unique character, paramedic Nasima, who has vowed to render her life for the sake of humanity. She tries to soothe the sorrows and pains of others with her sincerity. There is a compassionate girl, Sharifa, who is unique at her responsibility and consciousness despite her being a girl of an ordinary family. Farooque, a young man, longs for doing at least one good work each day. There is also an interesting character, one beggar who begs riding on a horse. The doctor faces a lot of hurdles in realizing his noble dreams. On the other hand runs the effort of all the villagers together to remove the hindrance. The people, under the shelter of Shabuj Chhaya, dream of a healthy and beautiful tomorrow.

Each episode of this serial is 30 minutes long and deals with a different health related subject. Compulsory Immunization for Children, Vitamin 'A', Diarrhoea, Family Planning for the newly weds, problems of the adolescents, AIDS and many such subjects come up in this story. To imbue more enthusiasm among the audience of Shabuj Chhaya, as an additional attraction, there will be a quiz with each episode of the serial. Viewers giving the correct answer to the quiz will be awarded.

At the initiative of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare of the Government of Bangladesh and with the financial support from US AID, Shabuj Chhaya production has been supervised by Asiatic Society under the contract with Bangladesh Center for Communication Programs (BCCP). It may be mentioned here that in 1997, at the initiative of the Ministry, as a part of the strategic communication campaign, Humayun Ahmed produced a TV serial titled Shabuj Shathi involving field workers which played a very successful role in creating social awareness regarding health and family planning. Widely acclaimed by the audience of Bangladesh Television this serial has received international commendations. It is expected that this time this new serial would be all the more successful in creating the specific social awareness and thus bring about desired behavioral changes.
