A Painting by Alinoor

A solo exhibition by Alinoor is being held at the Alliance Française de Dhaka from February 4 to 18.

Eminent artist Rafiqun Nabi was present as the chief guest at the opening ceremony...

Alliance Française de Dhaka discovered Alinoor while working on the rickshaw painting programme...

An eye for detail characterises his creations. From the vast blue horizon to the small chicks in front of a farmer's house...

Scenes from villages to urban and semi-urban life mostly attract Alinoor. He not only captures the serene beauty of these places but also focuses on various situations...

Alinoor's portrayal of the tornado brings the disaster and the suffering of the people in to focus. Men, women - young and old - children are running for shelter...

In another picture depicting flood, Alinoor tries to capture the attendant horror of the deluge that recurs every year...

Alinoor loves bright colours. Blue, green, red and brown dominate his canvases. His nature always looks fresh and vibrant...

Scenes from the peaceful village life come over and over again in his creations but that does not leave out the urban and semi-urban scenery...

His semi-urban paintings shows his inclination for realistic presentation--how process of urbanisation are changing the villages...

In all these realistic presentation, one would find some excellent pieces of paintings that show the artist's imaginative quality...

her, Emperor Akbar announcing sentence on Anarak and Selim and many such excellent pieces have been so dramatically depicted in his paintings.

He has been painting rickshaw plates for over thirty years now and his experience of our glorious war of independence found its grand expression in his typical mannerism.

Alinoor never had any academic training that can be traced in his fresh and unique approach to painting. "We are bound to academic knowledge, the grammar of art. We learn them for such a long time that we cannot free ourselves from it but for Alinoor all this does not mean anything and that makes him distinctive..."

Little things may bring great happiness and Alinoor picks up bits and pieces from everyday life and make it into a collage that gives his work an accumulation of snapshots of reality.
